Fall Festival Celebrates the Season in Downtown DC
Fun-Filled, Midweek Event for All Ages returns to RRB/ITC

WASHINGTON, DC—Celebrate the changing season in the heart of downtown with the Fall Festival on Woodrow Wilson Plaza, taking place on Wednesday, October 30, 2024, at the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center \(RRB/ITC\). This free, midweek event invites DC visitors, local families, and downtown professionals to step away from the hustle and enjoy a day of seasonal fun.

From 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM, the Plaza will come alive with the colors, sounds and all the feels of fall. Kids can enjoy the pumpkin decorating station, get their faces painted, and make memories in the hay bale maze. Adults and kids alike can take part in festive balloon twisting, while the energetic beats of a live DJ will set the stage for dancing and fun. Plus, in collaboration with our community partners, organizations like the National Children's Museum and Turning the Page and more, will offer exciting activities to explore. Whether you're wearing your best Halloween costume or just coming as you are, this festival is sure to bring out the festive spirit!

To complement the autumn vibes, enjoy a cup of complimentary hot cider, and check out the local eats from Capital Harvest on the Plaza \(CHoP\) vendors.

The event is free, open to the public, and weather permitting. Activities are available while supplies last.
