MEDIA INFORMATION

UK Media Relations

The University of Kentucky Media Relations Department looks forward to serving the members of the media during the upcoming Wildcat women's soccer season. If you will be attending a game at the UK Soccer Complex, please review the items of interest and important phone numbers provided for you within this media publication.

The 2012 University of Kentucky Women's Soccer Media Guide is intended to answer any questions you might have about the season and assist you in your coverage of the team throughout the year. Requests for photographic privileges and working press space should be made through John Hayden at the media relations department. If the information provided in this publication does not answer your questions or you need further assistance, please contact Hayden or Chris Shoals in the UK Media Relations Department at 859.257.8429 or john.hayden@uky.edu or cmsh223@uky.edu

Game Day in the Bluegrass

Media guides, rosters, Southeastern Conference information, updated game notes and statistics will be available prior to each match. The UK media relations staff will be pleased to accommodate your postgame distribution needs. Please have a list of numbers prepared by the end of the match of the media outlets you wish to be reached. The visiting media relations personnel will be provided one phone line. In the case that a media relations representative will not be traveling to Lexington, arrangements should be made the week of the match for additional services to be provided by UK.

Interviews

Interviews with Coach Jon Lipsitz, his staff and student-athletes will be available following the match after a brief cooling off period. Media members wishing to interview coaches or any players other than on the day of a match should set up an appropriate interview time through John Hayden in the UK Media Relations Department. The best time to reach the coaching staff is in the early afternoon, Monday through Friday. The best time to speak with the student-athletes is after practice during the week. Practice is usually 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. ET at the UK Soccer Complex. All interviews during the week must take place 30 minutes prior to the start of practice or immediately following practice.

UKathletics.com

The official website of the University of Kentucky Athletics Association, UKathletics.com is the 24/7 home for information on UK women's soccer and the 21 other varsity sports. Online you can access all information pertaining to the Wildcats, including rosters, schedules, player profiles, statistics/results and game notes. CatScratches, the official blog of UK Athletics, is also available at the official athletics department website.

UK Interactive

UK Interactive, http://interactive.ukathletics.com, was created to provide on-line visitors with a broad overview of the UK Athletics program and each of its 22 varsity sports in an innovative and entertaining way. Our hope is that this site will provide an accurate glimpse of what it means to study and compete as a nationally prominent student-athlete at the University of Kentucky.

HEAD COACH JON LIPSITZ • FOURTH SEASON

Entering his fourth season, UK head women's soccer coach Jon Lipsitz has continued to develop the culture it takes to build a championship program from the ground up. In doing so, fans have had an opportunity to see the team grow right before their very eyes.

"Last year, outside of our locker room, nobody expected us to be hosting an NCAA Tournament game. It was a tremendous achievement for this program, but we are not where we want to be yet." Lipsitz said.

"The state of the program from when we took over four years ago is unrecognizable. It is a great tribute to how hard everyone involved with this program has worked both on and off the field. We are in a position now where we are very proud of our culture, we are very proud of our success, but we are still very hungry for more."

Last season he helped guide the Wildcats to one of the most historic seasons in program history as the Wildcats hosted an NCAA Tournament game and finished the SEC portion of the schedule with a winning mark for the first time since the 2006 season. During the season, UK earned many key wins inlcuding a 1-0 defeat of South Carolina in Columbia for the first time since 2006, as well as a 1-0 win over No. 14 Tennessee in double overtime in Lexington to earn a key SEC win.

After after a two-year absence from the SEC Tournament from 2007-09, Lipsitz has led Kentucky back to Orange Beach (eight-year home of the SEC Tournament) back-to-back years where the Wildcats dropped a heartbreaker to 12th ranked Souh Carolina, 3-2 in penalty kicks, and in 2011 fell to No. 14 Tennessee 1-0.

On Dec. 16, 2008, Lipsitz became the second head women's soccer coach in University of Kentucky history. Lipsitz, who owns a career record of 129-57-16 (.678) in 10 seasons, came to Lexington after spending four seasons as the head coach at Charlotte where he guided the 49ers to a 58-23-4 (.706) record including three straight Atlantic 10 titles in 2006, '07 and '08. Each season, Charlotte increased their win total, going from 11 in 2005, to 13 in 2006, to 16 in 2007, to a school record 18 in 2008.

In his four seasons at Charlotte, he guided the 49ers to 34 A-10 wins with a Carolinas' Cup title, three A-10 regular season titles, two A-10 Tournament titles and two NCAA Tournament appearances. The 49ers' success on the field during Lipsitz's tenure translated into recruiting success, as well.

The two springs prior to his arrival in Lexington, he signed two of the highest-ranked recruiting classes in the program's history including the 19th ranked class in the nation according to Soccer Buzz in 2007.

While in Charlotte, he also coached seven

Academic All-Americans and two athletic All-Americans. In 2007, Lipsitz was named Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year after leading the 49ers to 16 wins and a school-record nine Atlantic 10 wins en route to the program's third-ever bid to the NCAA Tournament. The 49ers captured their second straight A-10 regular season title which was the fourth regular season championship in the program's history. Charlotte also won their first A-10 Tournament Championship when they captured the title with a victory over Fordham. Lipsitz and the 49ers continued their momentum through the 2008 season where they finished with a school record 18-4-1 mark including a perfect 11-0 mark in conference play. The team won their second straight A-10 tournament title and capped the magical season with an NCAA second round appearance, defeating the Tennessee Lady Vols 2-0 in the first round. The 49ers finished the 2008 campaign ranked fifth nationally in scoring (3.00) and 19th in shutout percentage (56.5).

Before taking over the 49ers women's soccer program, Lipsitz spent four seasons (2001-04) as an assistant coach for national-power Ohio State. During his four seasons with the Buckeyes, he was the chief recruiter for a program that won 52 games, two Big Ten Tournament titles and made three straight trips to the NCAA Tournament. In 2004, Ohio State won a school-record 19 games en route to an NCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearance. His efforts produced nationally-ranked recruiting classes, including players that earned freshman All-America honors in each of his last two seasons in Columbus.

Prior to his time at Ohio State, Lipsitz spent three seasons at NCAA Division III Denison University where he tallied a 43-10-4 record in three seasons.

No stranger to the UK women's soccer program, Lipsitz served as the Director of Coaching and Player Development for the Ohio Premier Girls' Soccer Club from 1993 to 2005, which

ASSOC. HEAD COACH MICHELLE RAYNER • FOURTH SEASON

Associate head coach Michelle Rayner is in the fourth year of her second stint with the UK women's soccer program, and her first season as associate head coach.

Rayner served as an assistant in the program from 2001-04. During her time in Lexington, Rayner helped coach seven Wildcats to seven All-SEC honors.

"You can look over the years, and the change is phenominal in the sense that we have come so far in such a short amount of time," Rayner said. "Because of the work the whole staff is putting in day in and day out, we are generating interest from not only the top regional-level players, but now national-caliber players.

"It is amazing to see what we have done together in such a short amount of time. Having said that, this is not a time where we rest. It is just a situation where we continue to work even harder to continue to go deeper into all the competitions that we play in.

"We will continue to build off last year. These players know we will not rest off the performance we had last year."

Rayner returned to Lexington after serving as head coach at High Point for the last four seasons where she led the Panthers to a 33-38-12 record, including a 19-13-11 mark in her last two seasons. In 2007, Rayner guided High Point to the Big South Tournament Championship and made the school's second appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Along the way the team matched the program's Division I record for season wins with 11. In 2008, she equaled the all-time program record for fewest losses in a season with five.

During her time at High Point, she produced 14 All-Big South performers and recruited and developed three Big South All-Freshman selections. Rayner's insistence on excellence in the classroom showed results as well, producing two Big South Women's Soccer Scholar Athletes of the Year and four CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honorees.

Prior to her coaching tenure at UK, Rayner began her collegiate coaching career as the top assistant for the men's and women's soccer programs at Lincoln Memorial University in Harrogate, Tenn. She earned her bachelor's degree in physical education with a minor in coaching from Lincoln Memorial in 2001.

In addition to her collegiate coaching experience, Rayner served as the Director of Coaching for the Knoxville (Tenn.) United Stars Girls club, where two of her teams won Tennessee State Championships and other squads captured titles in numerous tournaments around the region.

Rayner, who played professionally in Australia and England for several years before coming to the United States to pursue a college education, was a member of the New Zealand National Team that competed in the first Women's World Soccer Championships in China in 1991.

ASST. COACH AARON RODGERS • FOURTH SEASON

Fourth-year assistant coach at Kentucky, Aaron Rodgers is no stranger to the Southeastern Conference. Rodgers is in his third stop within the SEC, having previously coached at Florida and Alabama.

Under his tutelage, former UK goalie Sydney Hiance posted 12 shutouts in two seasons, including seven in 2009, the third most in a season in school history. Hiance finished her career ranked second in UK history in shutouts (20), saves (283), minutes (6143:56) and fourth in goalsagainst-average (1.23).

"Kayla Price came in last year as a freshman and did really well. She helped us to a NCAA Tournament slot, and was really solid for us," Rodgers said.

"Kayla King had a great spring for us and we also have Kylie Morgan coming in with a huge youth career so we expect big things from her this year. It is going to be an open competition again, and competition always brings out the best.

"You also have Taylor Mogel who had a good year last year, worked hard and is going to make this an interesting fight. Whoever steps up and takes the position will earn the right to play."

Prior to coming to Lexington, Rodgers spent a year as a volunteer coach with the University of Florida soccer team, serving as the goalkeeper coach. During his time in Gainesville, the Gators captured the 2008 SEC championship, while reaching the NCAA Sweet 16 as well.

His other SEC stop in Tuscaloosa occurred in the 1998 season. The Crimson Tide won the Southeastern Conference's Western Division and earned a NCAA Championship berth that season. Rodgers coached 1998 All-SEC first team selection Rachel Brown, who is currently the goalkeeper for the England National Team.

Rodgers brings knowledge from the collegiate and club coaching ranks as well as experience as a player to the Wildcat program.

He began his coaching career as an assistant coach for the women's team at his alma mater, the University of North Texas. After a year with the Mean Green, Rodgers became the South Alabama assistant women's soccer coach for the 1996 and 1997 seasons. While at USA, the Jaguars went from a 2-17 record in 1996 to 18-3-1 in 1997, marking the biggest turnaround in women's collegiate history.

He went on to accept the associate director position at the nationally prominent Cardinal Soccer Club located in Cincinnati, Ohio. Rodgers spent almost two years with the program, working with players aged seven to 20.

A volunteer coaching position for the University of North Florida for the 2001 season followed, and the Ospreys finished the 2001 year nationally ranked. He spent the 2005, 2006 and 2007 seasons as an assistant coach for the Flager College men's team.

Rodgers played collegiate soccer at both Arkansas-Little Rock (1991) and North Texas (1992-1993). He also played four seasons with various United Soccer League (USL) teams in the southeast - Texas Toros (1993-1994), Dallas Rockets (1995) and Mobile Revelers (1997).

Dallaire's Q & A

What is your nickname, and why? My family calls me JQ, because Q was the first letter I learned how to write!

What team member is most likely to be a head coach? Brooke

Who is the most famous person you have ever met? Charles Mann and Ricky Irvins (both former Redskins players) – they were both parents on my soccer teams Would you rather win the World Cup or an Olympic gold medal? World Cup What is the worst Christmas gift you've ever been given? None, really! I love Christmas – it's definitely my favorite holiday

If you had a horse in the Kentucky Derby, what would you name it? Zippy! Who is the best soccer player in the world outside of Messi? Xavi!

What is your prized possession? Probably the super fuzzy UK blanket my parents got for me after I committed – I always travel with it!!

Why did you choose your jersey number? On my high school team, numbers were chosen by seniority, and when it came time for the freshman to pick, I had no idea which number to choose. Everyone else did though, and number 13 was the only one left! I really like it though because I had a good season and everyone likes to think of it as an unlucky number but I like to think I make my own luck.

Who is the most famous person in your cell phone? Clyde Watson (my club team coach). Mia Hamm still goes to him for advice

What song gets you pumped up for a game? Pretty much all music (except classical and country). It's better if it is a goofy song, so I don't get into my own head. My current fave is Call Me Maybe!

Who is the funniest player on the team? Me! They just don't know it yet. What is your favorite city to visit? Chincoteague Island

 $\textbf{Who is your favorite American Idol winner?} \ \textbf{Clay Aiken (did he win?)}$

What is your biggest fear? I hate heights! Just climbing stairs with gaps in between them makes my hands and feet sweaty and tingly.

What is one food you will absolutely not eat? I hate big chunks of cold cheese What is your dream job? Well I really want to be a doctor in an Emergency room or in a free health clinic

Who have you not seen in concert that you want to see in person? Ne-Yo or Nicki Minai!! I LOVE them!

What's one of your most interesting life stories that sets you apart from everyone else?! have a really good memory!

Gorgol's Q & A

What is your nickname, and why? People usually just call me Gorgol. It started when I first started playing travel soccer and my coach called me by my last name. Ever since then it just kind of stuck.

What team member is most likely to be a head coach? Hmm probably Cailin Who is the most famous person you have ever met? Well I haven't really met anyone famous but I was third row for a Drake concert if that counts for anything. Would you rather win the World Cup or an Olympic gold medal? World Cup What is the worst Christmas gift you've ever been given? Last year I got a pair of gloves.

What would people be surprised to know about you? My last name used to be Gorgoloski until my great grandfather changed it.

If you had a horse in the Kentucky Derby, what would you name it? Dash Who is the best soccer player in the world outside of Messi? Cristiano Ronaldo no doubt. I even think he's better than Messi.

What is your prized possession? Probably my ipod

Why did you choose your jersey number? Well I've never been 14 before but I've always been an even number and I'm kind of excited to start with a new number. Who is the most famous person in your cell phone? My brother convinced me he had Lil Wayne's number about five years ago. The number is still in my phone.

What song gets you pumped up for a game? Any weeknd or Drake song. I actually get more in the zone listening to calm songs before games

Who is the funniest player on the team? Maddie!

What is your favorite city to visit? San Diego

Who is your favorite American Idol winner? Carrie Underwood

Hoff's Q & A

What is your nickname, and why? Hailes, Hay, or Hoff. Pretty much whatever is easiest to say on the field.

What team member is most likely to be a head coach? I would definitely say that Ashley VanLandingham or Dani Krohn would since they have tons of patience with everyone on the field and know just what to say!

Who is the most famous person you have ever met? I'd say the most famous person I have ever met is Mia Hamm... it was a highlight of my life!

Would you rather win the World Cup or an Olympic gold medal? I would want to win an Olympic Gold medal because I think it would be amazing to represent the USA with all of the other athletes and sports, and it would also be out of this world to get the chance to experience the Olympic Games up close and personal!

What is the worst Christmas gift you've ever been given? The worst would have to be the random pajama sets I get at least once every Christmas.

What would people be surprised to know about you? Probably the fact that I'm an absolute germ freak and I hate worms with a passion.

If you had a horse in the Kentucky Derby, what would you name it? Lightning... It even sounds fast!

Who is the best soccer player in the world outside of Messi? Balotelli, but not when he chokes in front of the goal.

Why did you choose your jersey number? It was all that was left, but I still like it because it's not common!

Who is the most famous person in your cell phone? Renee Balconi What song gets you pumped up for a game? Ayy Ladies by Travis Porter-- It's my go to jam before a game.

Who is the funniest player on the team? Molly Huber, mostly since we have the same sense of humor and think that everything is funny.

What is your favorite city to visit? New York City, but I don't think I could live there, I just like to go for the site seeing and shopping!
