COVERING KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

Credential Policies

Media Credentials

Credentials for working media, videographers and photographers for UK's home football games should be requested at this website: www.sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than Aug. 1. Requests for single games should be made as far in advance as possible.

Season-credential privileges may be granted to daily newspapers, magazines, radio stations and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis – i.e., weekly news conferences and all home games. Credentials are granted at the discretion of UK Athletics and additional requests and affiliations are considered on an individual basis.

Credentials will not be mailed. On game day, credentials may be picked up at media will call at Kroger Field, beginning two and one-half hours prior to kickoff.

Approved parking passes will be mailed in advance.

Photographers, videographers and television reporters accompanying their camera operators must wear special identification in order to get field access. The special identification can be picked up at media will call prior to every game.

Internet Credentials

The official site of each participating institution and representatives of contractual rights-fee paying media will be granted access. Other Internet representatives not earning credentials through the criteria listed above will be considered on a game-by-game basis, based on factors such as the length of existence of the site, amount of original copy generated, number of visitors to the site, the number of full-time employees on the site, the journalistic experience of the reporter(s) and space availability. All credential privileges are granted at the discretion of UK Athletics.

SEC Internet Real-Time Policy

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

Monday News Conference

Coach Mark Stoops will conduct a weekly press conference on most Mondays during the season.

The news conferences will be conducted in the Press Room at Kroger Field. To enter, go through Gate 1 and go left. Use the 37/38 ramp and the press room door will be on your left.

There is limited parking available on the apron outside of Gate 1. Media with a University issued parking pass may park in any lot surrounding Kroger Field.

The weekly news conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 26 and continue on Mondays thereafter. No news conference is scheduled for Sept. 30 or Oct. 28, the Mondays prior to UK's open date.

The news conference schedule is generally as follows:

- Lunch is from 11:00 a.m. to 11:50 in the Recruiting Room at Kroger Field
- Coach Mark Stoops from Noon to 12:20

News conferences are live streamed on UKAthletics.com.

Quotes from the news conference will be e-mailed out and posted on UKAthletics.com by mid-to-late afternoon on Monday.

Southeastern Conference Services

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Herb Vincent, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the year.

SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via teleconference. Each coach is given 10 minutes to address media questions about his upcoming game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

This is the schedule (August 28–November 27) for the Wednesday teleconferences, all times Eastern:

11:00 a.m.	Ed Orgeron, LSU
11:10 a.m.	Kirby Smart, Georgia
11:20 a.m.	Dan Mullen, Florida
11:30 a.m.	Derek Mason, Vanderbilt
11:40 a.m.	Nick Saban, Alabama
11:50 a.m.	Jeremy Pruitt, Tennessee
12:00 p.m.	Chad Morris, Arkansas
12:10 p.m.	Will Muschamp, USC
12:20 p.m.	Matt Luke, Ole Miss
12:30 p.m.	Jimbo Fisher, Texas A&M
12:40 p.m.	Mark Stoops, Kentucky
12:50 p.m.	Joe Moorhead, Miss. State
1:00 p.m.	Barry Odom, Missouri
1:10 p.m.	Gus Malzahn, Auburn

The SEC Internet address is accessible for media and public usage at www.secsports.com. The Web site is updated continuously with information on all 14 conference schools and their sports.

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I football.

Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

SEC Affiliate Network/XOS Digital

The SEC offers access to free licensed game highlights and other newsworthy event video, including select live streams, through the SEC Affiliate Network. This annual program is exclusively available to the accredited media. It covers all teams and all sports for both men's and women's teams. Video is delivered through a customizable digital video player immediately after televised games/events conclude. Participating news affiliates can also select individual clips to insert directly into online stories. Television stations also have access to an FTP account to run content on-air. The SEC Affiliate Network is managed through XOS Digital. To join, please request a participation form from the program's director, Anna Marie Neri, at aneri@xosdigital.com or at 407-670-5049.

Wildcat Player Interviews

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Athletics Communications and PR Office.

Depending on class schedules or other commitments, most players are available to the media after practice, Tuesday or Wednesday. Post-practice interviews will be conducted at the Joe Craft Football Training Facility on Alumni Drive or by telephone. On game days, interviews will be granted only after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. Please do not contact a student-athlete on social media. The UK Athletics Communications Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete. Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

The university dormitories, dining halls, team locker and weight rooms, and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Athletics Communications Office personnel.

UKAthletics.com

Updated statistics and game notes are available on UK's official website, UKAthletics.com.

For home games, live in-game statistics are available on the website. After the game, notes and quotes also will be posted on the web.

Football Practice

Other than announced exceptions, UK football practices are closed to the media. Interviews are available after most practices. Media members should contact the UK Athletics Communications Office, (859) 257-3838, for practice and interview times.

For practices that are open, media may not shoot video or still photos during 11-on-11 sessions of practice. Video is not to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly scheduled news program).

GAME SERVICES

Media Parking

Media parking at Kroger Field is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting media and/or photo credentials. The primary media parking area is Parking Structure #1, at the corner of Cooper Drive and University Drive.

Media Will Call

Approved media or photo credentials can be obtained at the Media Will Call entrance located at Gate 11. Media Will Call opens two and one-half hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

Media Shuttle

A media shuttle will be provided to working media, 3 hours prior to kickoff from Parking Structure 1 (Yellow Y permit) to Gate 11 and 3 hours after the conclusion of the game from Gate 11 back to Parking Structure 1. The shuttle will pick up/drop off from the entrance of the parking structure, which is the side facing the hospital.

Press Box

The Central Bank Press Box is for working media members only. It is located on the south side (Alumni Drive) of Kroger Field on level five of the press box/suite complex. Access the elevator and press box at Gate 11.

The radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and other VIP booths are located on the press box level of the stadium. The photo deck is on top of the press box.

Post-Game Media Work Hours

The Central Bank Press Box will be available for working media for 3 hours after the end of the game before closing. A member of the UK media relations office will be in the press box for any postgame needs.

Wireless Internet

The Central Bank Press Box offers free wireless Internet service to media members. Instructions will be provided in the press box on game day.

Visiting Radio

The official visiting radio broadcast network personnel should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Two phone lines (including one ISDN) will be made available in the broadcast booth, plus one phone line and two dry pair in the locker room area.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting UK Phone Services Department at (859) 257-0712.

Field-Level Photo Room

The field-level photo area is located inside Gate 11 at Ramp 28/29. There will be a pregame meal, soft drinks and water served in the room. Flip cards will be available. Statistics and play-by-play sheets will be brought to the room during the game. Wireless Internet and eight network Internet lines (first come, first served) have been installed.

Post-Game Interviews

Media are allowed field level access (without field level credentials) for the final five minutes of the fourth quarter until the end of the game. To access the field from the Central Bank Press Box, you should exit through the Central Bank Press Box elevator to the lower concourse. Once you have arrived on the lower concourse, you can gain field level access through Ramp 28/29 or Field Gates 1, 4 or 9. Field Gate 12 will not be accessible postgame.

UK Coach Mark Stoops will conduct his postgame news conference in the media room located under the west grandstand. Media should enter from the concourse ramp 37/38. If coming from the field, exit through Field Gate 1 and circle around the concourse.

The Kentucky locker room is closed to the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the lobby of the Joe Craft Football Training Facility following the conclusion of Stoops' news conference. UK Communications personnel will escort you to the lobby.

Please do not interview the players or coaches when they are on the field.

Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the game in order for the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the southwest corner of Kroger Field. A press conference room is located next to the visitors' locker room. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their post-game comments from that area. Media may reach the interview room from Field Gate 9.

2020 Schedule

The 2020 schedule is being determined by the Southeastern Conference.

The league schedule format will be similar to previous seasons – Kentucky will play every team in the Eastern Division; play one permanent opponent from the Western Division (Mississippi State); and one rotating opponent each year from the Western Division.

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Football Championship Game. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

QUICK NOTES

- Kentucky kicks off the 2019 season against Toledo on August 31 seeking a fourth consecutive bowl appearance and second consecutive finish in the final Top 25 polls.
- This is coach Mark Stoops' seventh season in Lexington and the Wildcats have either matched or exceeded the previous season's win total in each of the past six seasons, making them the only program in FBS to accomplish that feat.
- Stoops' "recruit and develop" mentality culminated in 2018 with a 10-3 record, UK's best season in 41 years and only the third 10-win season in school history.
- UK's 5-3 SEC record also was the team's first winning league mark since 1977. The Cats finished second in the SEC Eastern Division.
- Highlights included ending a 31-game losing streak vs. Florida with a 27-16 win in The Swamp; a miraculous comeback win at Missouri; a 56-10 win at Louisville that is the largest margin of victory in the Governor's Cup series; and the season was topped by a 27-24 win over No. 12 Penn State in the VRBO Citrus Bowl.
- A rock-ribbed defense was led by linebacker Josh Allen, who broke the single-season and school records for quarterback sacks en route to winning the Bednarik Award, Nagurski Award and Lott Trophy as the National Defensive Player of the Year. He was UK's first unanimous first-team All-American since Art Still in 1977. Running back Benny Snell Jr., had three straight 1,000-yard seasons, breaking UK career records with 3,873 rushing yards and 48 touchdowns. He was a second-team All-American.
- Helping pave the way for Snell's exploits was guard Jervontius "Bunchy" Stallings, who received first-team All-America accolades.
- UK's five NFL draft picks (Allen, Lonnie Johnson Jr., Mike Edwards, Snell, George Asafo-Adjei) were the most since eight players (James Ramsey, Jim Kovach, Kelly Kirchbaum, Rod Stewart, Bob Winkel, Robert Hawkins, Dan Fowler and David Stephens) were chosen in 1979.
- Kentucky had a player drafted in each of the first four rounds for the first time in school history. The only other schools to accomplish that feat were Alabama, Ohio State and Oklahoma.
- UK went 4-2 last season against teams that finished ranked or receiving votes in the final national polls, including wins over No. 7 Florida, No. 17 Penn State and No. 25 Mississippi State.
- The Cats were 3-1 against ranked foes at the time of the game being played.
- What production returns for the 2019 season? Forty-one letterwinners are back, including 10 starters: Logan Stenberg (LG), Drake Jackson (C), Lynn Bowden Jr. (WR), Terry Wilson (QB), Calvin Taylor Jr. (DE), Quinton Bohanna (NG), Jamar "Boogie Watson (SLB), Kash Daniel (MLB), Blake Best (SNAP) and Max Duffy (P). The Cats also welcome the return of junior offensive tackle Landon Young who missed the 2018 season with a knee injury and sophomore defensive end Joshua Paschal who has been battling melanoma and only saw limited action in the final three games last season. Young played in all 13 games as a sophomore, starting in six at left tackle.
- In addition, 20 redshirt freshmen, 18 true freshmen, three junior college transfers and a transfer from Florida State are primed and ready to make their mark in 2019.

OFFENSIVE PREVIEW

- "Balance" has been the hallmark of the Kentucky offense under Eddie Gran, UK assistant head coach for offense. The Wildcats have totaled more than 2,000 rushing yards and 2,000 passing yards in all three seasons that Gran has been here. Prior to Gran's arrival, this had been accomplished in only two seasons total in school history.
- The Cats have averaged at least 25.5 points per game in all three seasons, only the third time in school history UK averaged at least 25.5 in three straight years.
- In the Gran era, UK has rushed for 7,738 yards, best three-year total since the 1970s, when Kentucky ran the ball almost exclusively.
- UK has had a 1,000-yard rusher in three straight seasons (Boom Williams, Benny Snell Jr.); prior to this, UK had never had 1,000-yard rushers in back-to-back seasons, let alone three straight seasons.
- Despite having starting quarterbacks who had never played in a major-college game in 2016 (Stephen Johnson) and 2018 (Terry Wilson), UK won 24 games over three seasons and went to three straight bowl games.
- Two wide receivers (Garrett Johnson and Dorian Baker) and one tight end (C.J. Conrad) became 1,000-yard career receivers during the last three seasons.
- UK has won 24 games in three seasons, the most in school history since 1949-51.
- The Wildcats were picked fifth in the 2018 SEC East preseason polls by the media but finished tied for second with a 5-3 record. It tied UK's highest finish (also 2016) since the league split into divisions in 1992.

Quarterbacks

2018 Starters Returning/Lost: 1/0

2018 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 1/1

- Junior Terry Wilson won the starting job at the start of the 2018 season and led the Wildcats to their first 10-win season since 1977. The 10 wins are the most for a first-year starting QB in school history.
- Nicknamed “Terry Touchdown” in high school, the signal caller completed 67.2 percent of his passes for 1,889 yards and 11 touchdowns. He was also a dangerous runner as he compiled 547 net rushing yards and four TDs. Wilson, who redshirted as a freshman at Oregon, threw for 2,133 yards and 26 touchdowns in one junior college season.
- Wilson ranked 13th nationally in completion percentage.
- Wilson was the “Manning Quarterback of the Week” after accounting for 256 yards total offense and three touchdowns (one rushing, two passing) in the win at Florida last season.
- Among Power Five schools, Terry Wilson and Benny Snell Jr., had the second-most combined rushing yards for a quarterback/running back duo (1,996)
2,072 Trace McSorley/Miles Sanders, Penn State
1,996 Terry Wilson/Benny Snell, Kentucky
1,703 TaQuon Marshall/Tobias Oliver, Georgia Tech
- Sophomores and Kentucky natives Walker Wood (Lexington) and Kolbe Langhi (Hopkinsville) will also compete for playing time along with freshmen signal callers Amani Gilmore (Amite, La.) and Nik Scalzo (Fort Lauderdale, Fla.), and Troy transfer, Sawyer Smith, a junior from Cantonment, Fla.

Running Backs

2018 Starters Returning/Lost: 0/1

2018 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 1/2

- The biggest question mark of the 2019 season is who will succeed UK’s all-time leading rusher and All-American Benny Snell Jr.? Before foregoing his senior season and declaring for the NFL Draft, Snell set just about every rushing record at UK, including becoming the first player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards or more in three straight seasons. Ready to fill those shoes is junior A.J. Rose. The Eagle Scout totaled 72 carries for 442 yards and five touchdowns last season, finishing third on the team in rushing behind Snell and Wilson (QB). Despite just 72 carriers, he still averaged 6.2 yards per rush, highest on the team with at least 70 attempts.
- Also looking to make names for themselves after redshirting last season are Christopher Rodriguez and Kavosiey Smoke. Rodriguez appeared in three games last season and Smoke played in two. Both have received praise from running backs coach Eddie Gran as they strive to be the heir apparent to Snell.
- Redshirt freshman Tyler Markray got reps in spring practice, his first action since a knee injury sidelined him after playing in just five games as a senior in high school.
- True freshman Travis Tisdale of Valdosta, Ga., was ranked the nation’s No. 18 running back by ESPN and the No. 11 all-purpose back nationally out of high school. He posted impressive numbers at Lowndes High School, rushing for 1,903 yards and 21 touchdowns.
- In 2018, the Cats rushed for 2,592 yards and 27 rushing touchdowns (tied for third in school history).

Wide Receivers

2018 Starters Returning/Lost: 1/2

2018 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 14/3

- Wide receivers coach Michael Smith is in his second season with the Wildcats and will have to rely on a plethora of young talent as five of UK’s top seven receivers are gone from last season (C.J. Conrad, Snell, David Bouvier, Dorian Baker and Tavin Richardson).
- Smith’s meeting room goes 15 deep and includes Lynn Bowden Jr., whose speed and elusiveness make him a breakaway threat anytime he has the ball. Last season, he set the UK record for most pass receptions by a sophomore with 67 catches. He also led the team with 745 receiving yards, averaging 11.1 yards per catch.
- Kentucky had 15 different players catch passes last season and nine of them return in 2018, including six wideouts (Bowden, Josh Ali, Isaiah Epps, Clevan Thomas Jr., Allen Dailey Jr. and Akeem Hayes).
- Letter winners Josh Ali (10 catches for 115 yards and one TD in 2018), Allen Dailey (2 catches for 38 yards and one TD in 2018), Isaiah Epps (8 catches for 76 yards in 2018) and Ahmad Wagner are back and looking to make an impact.
- What’s interesting to note about Wagner is that in 2018, he was thrown four passes, three of which drew a pass interference call on the defense. Wagner, a 6-foot-5, 238-pound receiver, is in his final year of eligibility after transferring from Iowa where he played three seasons on the basketball team.

MILESTONES TO WATCH

- Junior WR Lynn Bowden Jr. has 84 career receptions and needs 16 to become the 17th Wildcat player to catch at least 100 passes in their career.
Bowden has 955 receiving yards in his career and needs 45 to become the 30th player in school history to reach 1,000 career receiving yards.
Bowden has returned two punts for a touchdown in his career, both coming during the 2018 season. With one more return to the house he would join Dicky Lyons Sr. (1966-68) and Larry Carter (1976-79) in a tie for second on the career list with three punt return touchdowns. Derek Abney (2000-03) holds the school record with six.
Junior P Max Duffy has averaged 44.78 yards per punt for his career on 60 punts, which would be the highest average in school history once he reaches the minimum of 75 punts. The current high-water career mark is Glenn Pakulak's 44.43 from 2000-02 (134 punts).
Head coach Mark Stoops has 36 career victories at Kentucky. He needs three more to tie Rich Brooks (2003-09) for fifth on the school's all-time list.

- Redshirt freshmen B.J. Alexander, Akeem Hayes, and Bryce Oliver are also emerging pass catchers.
Mid-year enrollee and true freshman DeMarcus Harris of Vero Beach, Florida said he enrolled early to get a jump-start as a college athlete and to learn from Coach Smith. After becoming the Treasure Coast's career record holder for receiving yards (2,864), he's looking to pick up where he left off last season. Louisville native Tae Tae Crumes is another true freshman looking to make an impact. He caught 42 passes for 877 yards as a senior at Butler in 2018.

Tight Ends

2018 Starters Returning/Lost: 0/1
2018 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 2/1

- Saying that three-year starter and three-time Mackey Award Watch List member C.J. Conrad will be tough to replace is an understatement. Conrad was second on the team in receptions (30 catches for 318 yards and three scores) and ended his illustrious career at No. 29 on UK's career receiving yards chart. He is currently a free agent with the N.Y. Giants. However, tight ends coach Vince Marrow thinks he has just the right players to fill the void of Conrad.
The front-runner is sophomore Justin Rigg who played in all 13 games last season and caught four passes for 45 yards.
Redshirt freshmen Brenden Bates and Keaton Upshaw were highly touted out of high school and both used a redshirt last season. Upshaw sat out last season due to a season-ending knee injury but looks to be healthy entering the fall camp. Bates played in two games last season and is looking for an opportunity to show what he can do. True freshman Nik Ognenovic of Fort Lauderdale, is 6-foot-5 and a gifted athlete who caught 11 passes for 170 yards and a touchdown in helping Cardinal Gibbons win the program's first state title in Class 5A.

Offensive Line

2018 Starters Returning/Lost: 3/3
2018 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 8/2

- Offensive line coach John Schlarman can be described in one word - tough. The 2018 Capital One Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award nominee was diagnosed with an undisclosed cancer in the summer of 2018. Despite his health issues, he has coached through countless chemotherapy treatments and has not missed a practice or a game.
Schlarman was a four-year starter with the Wildcats from 1994-97. He is entering his seventh season at UK.
The O-line boasts three returning starters (which includes Landon Young) who helped Benny Snell Jr., become the first player in school history with 1,000 rushing yards in three consecutive seasons.
The O-line returns 49 career starts, including 29 from 2018.
At left tackle, the biggest story line is the return of junior Landon Young who sat out the entire 2018 season with a knee injury. As a sophomore, he started six games and has looked poised to regain his starting spot.
The graduation of George Asafo-Adjei, selected in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the N.Y. Giants, freed up the right tackle spot. Sophomores Darian Kinnard and Naasir Watkins, who both saw significant action last season, look to battle for the starting job.
At left guard, three-year starter Logan Stenberg deciding to come back for his senior season was a big boost. He's a preseason second-team All-American by Sporting News and will provide leadership and experience on the line. Junior Luke Fortner provides depth in that spot and true freshman Eli Cox is looking for a spot in the rotation.

- Another one of those big question marks is who will replace First Team All-American and All-SEC performer Bunchy Stallings at right guard? Senior Mason Wolfe has the most experience after seeing action in 12 games last season. Also battling for the spot are sophomore Austin Dotson and redshirt freshman Kenneth Horsey. An interesting note about Horsey - he had open-heart surgery in April of 2018.
- The center spot looks to be locked up by junior Drake Jackson who has 20 consecutive starts under his belt. Redshirt freshman Quintin Wilson is an additional option as well as walk on Tyler Couch.

SPECIAL TEAMS PREVIEW

- Special teams coordinator Dean Hood brings a wealth of knowledge to the program as he enters his 32nd year of college coaching.
- Graduating senior Miles Butler made 7 of 11 field goals in 2018 and all 40 extra points. Looking to replace his production is redshirt freshman Chance Poore. He made 2-of-4 field goal attempts and all three extra-point tries in three games last season. He was the No. 1 punter/kicker in the 2018 class by ProKicker.com.
- Australian transplant Max Duffy will once again handle the punting duties. Duffy ranked sixth in the SEC and 14th nationally with a 44.8-yard average in 2018. Half of his punts, 30 of 60, were within the opponent 20-yard line, yet he also had only two touchbacks. He arrived in the United States as an early enrollee in January of 2018.
- Senior Grant McKinniss handled the kickoff duties and had 31 touchbacks last season.
- Senior Blake Best is the snapper for punts, field goals and PATs.
- Kickoff return specialist, Lynn Bowden Jr., returned 25 kickoffs for an average of 21.6 yards in 2018. He had two punt returns for TDs on just five total returns, a 58-yard punt return for a TD vs. Penn State and 67-yarder at Missouri. Bowden was one of just three players nationally with two punt returns for a TD.

DEFENSIVE PREVIEW

- Kentucky has a new defensive coordinator in Brad White, who joined the staff in 2018 as outside linebackers coach. White was promoted after Matt House accepted the linebackers position with the Kansas City Chiefs.
- White welcomes back 20 returning letterwinners, including four starters.
- UK started 19 different players on defense last season and five (OLB Josh Allen, DT Adrian Middleton, SS Mike Edwards, CB Derrick Baity and CB Lonnie Johnson Jr.) started in all 13 games.
- The good news is that 11 of those 19 players who started at least one game, return for the 2019 season.
- Also, of a possible 143 total starts (13 games, 11 starts per game), 66 total starts return on defense in 2019.
- Last season, UK ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 16.8 points per game. The defense also ranked 23rd nationally and fourth in the SEC in total defense yards per game (338.2), 18th in passing yards allowed (188.3) and 36th nationally in team passing efficiency defense (119.06 rating points).
- The 16.8 points per game in 2018, was the best since the 1979 defense allowed 13 points per contest.
- The positions where a starter from 2018 does not return are outside linebacker (Josh Allen), two cornerback spots (Derrick Baity and Lonnie Johnson Jr.), strong safety (Mike Edwards), weakside linebacker (Jordan Jones) and defensive tackle (Adrian Middleton).

#LAFAMILIA

Kentucky football has several set of sons playing for fathers who were former Wildcats or who are currently working for UK Football:

- Senior OLB Elijah Barnett is the son of former Wildcat, Oliver Barnett (1986-89)
- Redshirt-freshman TE Brendan Bates is the grandson of former UK basketball player Gene Neff (1951-52)
- Sophomore WR Zac Berezowitz is the son of UK Football's chief of staff Dan Berezowitz
- Sophomore center Tyler Couch is the son former Wildcat, the late Joey Couch (1988-91)
- Freshman DB Moses Douglass is the son of former Wildcat Maurice Douglass (1984-85)
- Sophomore WR Darren Edmond is the son of UK Football's director of performance Corey Edmond
- Senior TE Drew Schlegel is the son of former Wildcat Mike Schlegel (1992-95)

Linebackers

2018 Starters Returning/Lost: 2/2

2018 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/2

- Who will replace national defensive player of the year, First-Team All-American and first-round draft pick Josh Allen? That is the million dollar question. After compiling these impressive numbers in 2018 - team-high 88 tackles, 21 TFL, 17 sacks, 7 QBH, 5 FF, 4 QBH, 2 FR and 1 blocked kick - Allen's absence will surely be felt. However, Coach White is confident players such as junior outside linebacker Jamar "Boogie" Watson and sophomore outside linebacker Jordan Wright have the tools to replace his production.
- The linebacking unit runs 13 deep and senior middle linebacker Kash Daniel is the team's lone returning captain and the team's leading returning tackler from 2018. He had 75 tackles along with 7.5 TFL and five QBH, despite playing most of the season with a broken left hand.
- Backing up Daniel is sophomore Jamin Davis, who impressed the coaching staff during spring practice with his speed and athleticism.
- Two super sophomores are interchangeable at the Will linebacker spot in Chris Oats and Deandre Square. Both shined as true freshman in 2018 as Oats earned his first career start at Texas A&M, while Square received a starting nod in the Citrus Bowl vs. Penn State. Square was eighth overall on the team in tackles with 35 along with 3.5 TFL and 1.0 sack. Oats was ninth in tackles with 27 and had 3.0 TFL and 2.0 sacks.
- Looking to contribute quality minutes at Sam linebacker behind Watson is sophomore Alex King. He saw playing time in nine games last season on special teams. Mid-year true freshman enrollees Jared Casey and Tra Wilkins also look to make their mark at the Jack and Will linebacker spots, respectively.
- True freshmen and Louisville natives, Shawn'Kel Knight-Goff and J.J. Weaver, along with Georgia talent, K.D. McDaniel, look to add depth at the outside linebacker spots.
- Redshirt freshman Xavier Peters', a transfer from Florida State, status has not been determined at the time of this printing.

Defensive Line

2018 Starters Returning/Lost: 2/1

2018 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/2

- Defensive line coach Derrick LeBlanc, a former defensive lineman at Northwestern State known for his toughness, is in his third season at Kentucky. His line features seven returning letter winners, including two starters in nose guard Quinton Bohanna (17 tackles, 4.0 TFL, 1.0 sacks, 1 FF, 1 FR) and 6-foot-9 defensive end Calvin Taylor Jr. (26 tackles, 6.0 TFL, 1.0 sacks, 1 PBU, 1 FR). Taylor also could see some time at tackle as well.
- Because of Kentucky's platoon system and improved depth in the down lineman positions, significant contributors are returning with experience. They should help make up for the loss of tackle Adrian Middleton (starter in all 13 games last season) and reserve noseguard Tymere Dubose to graduation. Those returners are redshirt sophomore Josh Paschal, who has moved to defensive end for the 2019 season, senior T.J. Carter (16 tackles, 2.5 TFL, 1.0 sack, 4 QBH, 3 PBU), junior Kordell Looney (15 tackles, 1.0 TFL) at defensive end and senior Phil Hoskins (21 tackles, 3.5 TFL, 3.0 sacks, 1 QBH, 1 FF) at tackle.
- Paschal, who played in all 13 games as a true freshman at outside linebacker in 2017, redshirted last season due to battling melanoma in his right foot. He saw action in three games last season, playing vs. Middle Tennessee, Louisville and Penn State. As a freshman, he totaled 17 tackles, 4.5 TFL, 3.5 sacks, 3 QBH and 1 blocked kick.
- Two reserve nose guards, sophomore Abule Abade-Fitzgerald and redshirt freshman Qua Mahone, are sure to also be a productive part of the defense in 2019.
- Three players looking to earn a spot in the rotation are sophomore Davoan Hawkins at end and true freshmen Cavon Butler and Isaiah Gibson at tackle. Gibson was a mid-year enrollee and participated in spring practice.

Secondary

2018 Starters Returning/Lost: 0/4

2018 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 5/6

- Coach Steve Clinkscale might have one of the hardest jobs this offseason as he replaces five talented defensive backs, including all four starters, from 2018. Gone are safeties Mike Edwards, now with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and Darius West as well as cornerbacks Derrick Baity, a free agent with the Houston Texans, Lonnie Johnson Jr., selected in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Houston Texans and Chris Westry, a free agent with the Dallas Cowboys. The five combined for 161 career starts, 853 tackles, 77 PBUs and 24 interceptions.
- UK opponents completed just 57.4 percent of their passes in 2018 and the Wildcats ranked fourth in the SEC in pass defense, allowing just 186.3 yards per game in the air. UK ranked seventh in the SEC and 36th in the nation in pass efficiency defense.

- Kentucky received a big blow in late July when junior and Lexington native Davonte Robinson suffered an injury to his right quadriceps muscle that will require surgery and force him to miss the season. The safety played in all 13 games last season with three starting assignments. He showed big-play potential last season, charting 42 tackles (sixth on the team) and, on the final play of the game at Florida, returned a fumble 30 yards for a touchdown.
- Senior Jordan Griffin has played in 33 career games with five starting assignments at safety, totaling 41 tackles and six PBUs. He is primed for the starting spot at strong safety with sophomore Tyrell Ajian looking to get in the mix as well.
- Behind Robinson at free safety is sophomore Yusuf Corker, who saw action in eight games last season and true freshman Moses Douglass, son of former Wildcat Maurice Douglass.
- Also looking to make immediate impacts at cornerback are redshirt sophomore Cedric Dort Jr., redshirt freshmen Stanley Garner and Jamari Brown. Mid-year enrollees - junior college transfers Brandin Echols and Quandre Mosley and true freshman Taj Dodson were able to showcase their talent in spring drills, while true freshmen M.J. Devonshire and Jalen Geiger are anxious to learn the ropes.

DOUBLE DIPPING

- Heading into the 2019 season there are only five schools in FBS/Division I that maintain at least three straight seasons of playing in a bowl game and the basketball program earning a bid to the NCAA men's basketball tournament. Kentucky has done so in three consecutive years after making the TaxSlayer Bowl, Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl and VRBO Citrus Bowl:

Michigan - 4

KENTUCKY - 3

Florida State - 3

Kansas State - 3

Virginia Tech - 3

HERE, THERE, EVERYWHERE

- While most college football programs recruit regionally, Kentucky has expanded its reach as far west as Colorado, east to Maryland, north to Michigan and south to Florida. Furthermore, the Cats have a second kicker/punter from Australia, tapping into the ranks of young men who have a history with Australian rules football.
- The Cats' geographic roster breaks down in 15 different states and Australia: Kentucky (23), Ohio (21), Florida (18), Georgia (16), Tennessee (4), Maryland (3), Oklahoma (3), Alabama (3), Michigan (3), Louisiana (2), South Carolina (2), Colorado (1), Mississippi (1), Pennsylvania (1), and Australia (1).

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

- UK's uniform preparers have a little extra work to do this season and a little less space with which to do it. The Cats have six players whose names have "Jr." in it, two that are hyphenated and two others that could stump even the top finishers in the National Spelling Bee.
- The six players who are a "Jr." include: Lynn Bowden Jr., Allen Dailey Jr., Christopher Rodriguez Jr., Cedrick Dort Jr., Calvin Taylor Jr., and Clevan Thomas Jr.
- The Cats also have Abule Abadi-Fitzgerald, who has 15 characters in his last name, as well as Shawn'Kel Knight-Goff, Zac Berezowitz and Nik Ognenovic.

CATS TIE/IMPROVE WIN TOTAL SIX STRAIGHT SEASONS

UK is the only program in the country that has tied or improved its win total in each of the last six seasons:

- 2012: two wins
- 2013: two wins (first season under Coach Mark Stoops)
- 2014: five wins
- 2015: five wins
- 2016: seven wins
- 2017: seven wins
- 2018: ten wins

STOOPS NAMED SEC COACH OF THE YEAR

- Head coach Mark Stoops was named SEC Coach of the Year by the AP and Coaches, becoming the first UK coach to earn Coach of the Year honors since Jerry Claiborne in 1983.
- Stoops was named the No. 1 coaching performance in the 2018 college football season by CollegeFootballNews.com.
- The Wildcats won 10 regular-season games for the first time in 41 years, including seven over bowl-eligible teams and five over squads that won eight or more.
- UK's 5-3 mark in SEC play also was the team's first winning league record since 1977.

- Stoops was a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year and was on the watch list for the Paul “Bear” Bryant Coach of the Year.

CATS IN THE NFL DRAFT

The 2019 NFL Draft was one for the history books as Kentucky saw five of its players, Josh Allen, Lonnie Johnson Jr., Mike Edwards, Benny Snell Jr., and George Asafa-Adjei selected. UK had a player chosen in each of the first four rounds, a UK first. The only other schools to accomplish that feat in this year’s draft were Alabama, Ohio State and Oklahoma.

- UK’s five draft picks were the most since eight players (James Ramsey, Jim Kovach, Kelly Kirchbaum, Rod Stewart, Bob Winkel, Robert Hawkins, Dan Fowler and David Stephens) were chosen in 1979
- Josh Allen, selected as the seventh overall pick by the Jacksonville Jaguars, was the 17th player in UK history selected in the first round.
- Allen was UK’s highest draft pick since Dewayne Robertson was selected as the fourth pick by the Jets in 2003.
- Allen was the 11th player in UK history chosen in the top 10 and the first since Dewayne Robertson was selected as the fourth pick by the Jets in 2003.
- Allen was the sixth player drafted under head coach Mark Stoops at Kentucky and the second first-round pick, joining Bud Dupree (Pittsburgh Steelers) in 2015.
- Since 2001, Coach Stoops has recruited and developed 12 first-round draft picks.
- Kentucky has had a linebacker drafted in five of the last six NFL drafts (2019 - Josh Allen, 2016 - Josh Forrest, 2015 - Bud Dupree, 2015 - Za’Darius Smith, 2014 - Avery Williamson).
- UK is the only school in the nation to have first-round picks in the 2019 NFL, MLB, and NBA Draft.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

- Kentucky currently has four players on its roster who have already earned their undergraduate degrees and are in graduate school or will work on a second degree. They are Blake Best (master’s degree in finance), Logan Stenberg (second degree in communication), Calvin Taylor Jr. (second degree in communication) and Mason Wolfe (master’s degree in sport leadership).
- Eight Wildcats are on track to graduate in December. They are Elijah Barnett, Kash Daniel, Max Duffy, Luke Fortner, Jordan Griffin, Phil Hoskins, Drake Jackson and Grant McKinniss.
- Seven Wildcats were named to the First Year SEC Academic Honor Roll: Brenden Bates – Marketing; Zachary Berezowitz - Economics; Tyler Couch – Sociology; Max Duffy – Psychology; Collin Hartmann – Management; Shawn Lawson – Undeclared; Quintin Wilson – Management
- Last season, Kentucky had two Academic All-Americans in Blake Best and Miles Butler.
- UK had 20 total graduates last season.
- UK had 23 players on the 2018 SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll last season.
- Several players have strong come GPAs over their academic careers, including:
 Blake Best – 4.0
 Luke Fortner – 3.491
 Jordan Griffin – 3.495
 Josh Paschal – 3.493
 Brett Slusher – 3.793
 Clevan Thomas – 3.453
 Quintin Wilson – 3.735
 Mason Wolfe – 3.623

ROSE IS AN EAGLE

- In May of 2019, three Wildcats, defensive end Calvin Taylor Jr., offensive tackle Landon Young and linebacker Jamar "Boogie" Watson, were chosen by the athletic department to participate in a service/educational trip to the Ethiopia. During the week-long trip, they delivered essential nutrition, supplies, hope and love to families living in Korah, a slum made up of all the trash accumulated in Addis Ababa. With the care packages delivered, it could prevent them from digging for two weeks to a month; visited an orphanage with approximately 80 children; took teenagers from Korah to play arcade games and see the Avengers movie; paired with a feeding program that supplies meals to government schools in Cherkos, a poorer region in Addis Ababa. The program began as a result of kids fainting and lack of focus in the classroom due to malnutrition at home, often missing breakfast in the morning and at night only leaving them with one meal per day.
- UK has taken football student-athletes to Ethiopia on a service trip since 2011. Due to the state department's travel ban to Ethiopia in 2017, the Cats visited the DR.
 - 2011: Stuart Hines, Danny Trevathan
 - 2012: Mikie Benton, Matt Smith, Larry Warford
 - 2013: Kevin Mitchell, Jonathan George, Avery Williamson
 - 2014: Alvin "Bud" Dupree, Landon Foster, Braylon Heard
 - 2015: Austin MacGinnis, Marcus McWilson, Alex Montgomery
 - 2016: Greg Hart, De'Niro Laster, Courtney Love
 - *2017: Jordan Bonner, C.J. Conrad, Denzil Ware (Dominican Republic)
 - 2018: George Asafo-Adjei, Bunchy Stallings, Tristan Yeomans
 - 2019: Calvin Taylor Jr., Landon Young, Jamar "Boogie" Watson

ROSE IS AN EAGLE

- Senior RB A.J. Rose earned an Eagle Scout, the highest achievement or rank attainable in the Boy Scouting program of the Boy Scouts of America
- Only four percent of Boy Scouts are granted this rank after a lengthy review process
- Other Notable Eagle Scouts
 - >> Neil Armstrong - Astronaut
 - >> Gerald R. Ford - first Eagle Scout to serve as President
 - >> Peter McLoughlin - President of the Seattle Seahawks
 - >> Steven Spielberg - Filmmaker
 - >> Sam Walton- Founder of Wal-Mart
 - >> Reed Timmer – Famous storm chaser

#BRINGIT

- #BringIt is UK's mantra for the 2019 season. It originated from the VRBO Citrus Bowl win over Penn State, when the Nittany Lions unsuccessfully tried a fourth-down fake punt on the game's first possession. Coach Mark Stoops was seen on the sideline shouting, "Bring it on!" The inspirational moment helped spark the Wildcats toward the upset victory.

COACHING CHANGES

- UK defensive coordinator, Matt House, was hired to be the linebackers coach for the Kansas City Chiefs in February of 2019. That move prompted head coach Mark Stoops to promote outside linebackers coach Brad White to defensive coordinator and hire a former Wildcat, Jon Sumrall, to coach the inside linebackers.

CATS WELCOME TEN MID-YEAR ENROLLEES

- Kentucky welcomed 10 mid-year enrollees to the program in January. Seven (Jared Casey, Eli Cox, Taj Dodson, Moses Douglass, Isaiah Gibson, DeMarcus Harris, Tra Wilkins), are high school standouts who graduated in December, while Marquez Bembry (not participating in spring practice due to a knee injury), Brandin Echols, Quandre Mosely are junior college transfers.
- Bembry will have three years of eligibility, while Echols and Mosely will have two years.
- The 10 enrollees are:

PASCHAL BATTLING CANCER, RETURNS TO THE FIELD

- In July of 2018, defensive lineman Josh Paschal was diagnosed with malignant melanoma on the bottom of his right foot. He underwent three surgeries, and has followed that by ongoing monthly immunotherapy treatments.
- In an extremely emotional moment for everyone associated with Kentucky football, Paschal returned to action against Middle Tennessee on Nov. 17.
- He started the game and saw occasional action throughout.
- In the second quarter, he made a tackle on a third down play that forced a punt. When his name was called as the tackler, the Kroger Field crowd gave him a roar of approval and rousing ovation.
- Teammate Kash Daniel offered this unique perspective of what Paschal means to the Cats: “You ever like look at a living room and you look at one piece of furniture, like a carpet, and you’re like, ‘Wow, that really ties the room together.’ That’s what Josh does to this team, and Josh ties this team together. It’s a funny way to put it, but seriously, that guy’s the heartbeat of this team.”

KENTUCKY’S YOUNGSTOWN BOYS

As a neighbor of Pittsburgh, a.k.a. Steel City USA, Youngstown, Ohio has a reputation as a blue collar community defined by hard work and relationships forged over generations that are stronger than steel. Kentucky’s football program is, in many ways, defined by that bond as it creates a southern alumni club from Youngstown, the hometown of head coach Mark Stoops and several other key members of the program. Below is a list of staffers and players from Youngstown, Ohio:

- Mark Stoops - Head Coach (Cardinal Mooney)
- Vince Marrow - Recruiting Coord./Tight Ends (Cardinal Mooney)
- Steve Clinkscale - Defensive Backs (Chaney)
- Frank Buffano - Director of Operations (Cardinal Mooney)
- Lynn Bowden Jr. - Wide Receiver (Warren Harding)

DID YOU KNOW?

- Kentucky was the only school in the nation to have first-round picks in the 2019 NFL (Josh Allen), MLB (Zack Thompson), and NBA (PJ Washington, Tyler Herro, Keldon Johnson) drafts.
- This is the 129th season of intercollegiate football for Kentucky.
- Kentucky is in its seventh season under head coach Mark Stoops, who has energized the UK fan base with record-setting recruiting classes, facility upgrades and an influx in talent.
- A picture of longevity, UK Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski is in his 42nd season in that role. A group of former players, staff members and current UK coaches pitched in during the summer of 2017 to surprise him with a new Ford Escape. He also was a student manager in 1974-77, giving him 46 years in UK football.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 24 national cheerleading championships, including 20 of the last 24, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association championships.
- Kentucky is one of only 10 schools that have won an NCAA men’s basketball championship while also having a claim on a national championship in football.

COUCH NAMED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HOF BALLOT

Former Kentucky quarterback Tim Couch has been named to the ballot for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame, the National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame. Couch is one of 76 players and five coaches from the Football Bowl Subdivision and 101 players and 33 coaches from the divisional ranks.

A storied name of the Kentucky program, Couch, was the team's quarterback from 1996-98. After giving up his senior season of eligibility, he was drafted as the No. 1 pick by Cleveland in the 1999 NFL Draft. In 1998, the junior quarterback was named a first-team All-American and consensus Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Couch completed 400 of 553 passes for 4,275 yards and 36 touchdowns and led the nation in pass completions while ranked second in completion percentage, passing yardage and touchdown passes, and fourth in total offense. After guiding the Wildcats to the Outback Bowl, UK's first New Year's Day bowl appearance in 47 years, Couch finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting. He was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award as a junior and sophomore. His breakout sophomore campaign featured 363 of 547 passes completed for 3,884 yards and 37 touchdowns while leading the nation in pass attempts, completions, yardage, and completion percentage. Also during his sophomore year, Couch earned second-team All-SEC honors and finished ninth in Heisman voting. He played in seven games as a true freshman, with two starts. Career wise, Couch completed 795 passes on 1,184 attempts for 8,435 yards and 74 touchdowns. The legend ended his career with seven NCAA records, 14 SEC records, and 26 school records.

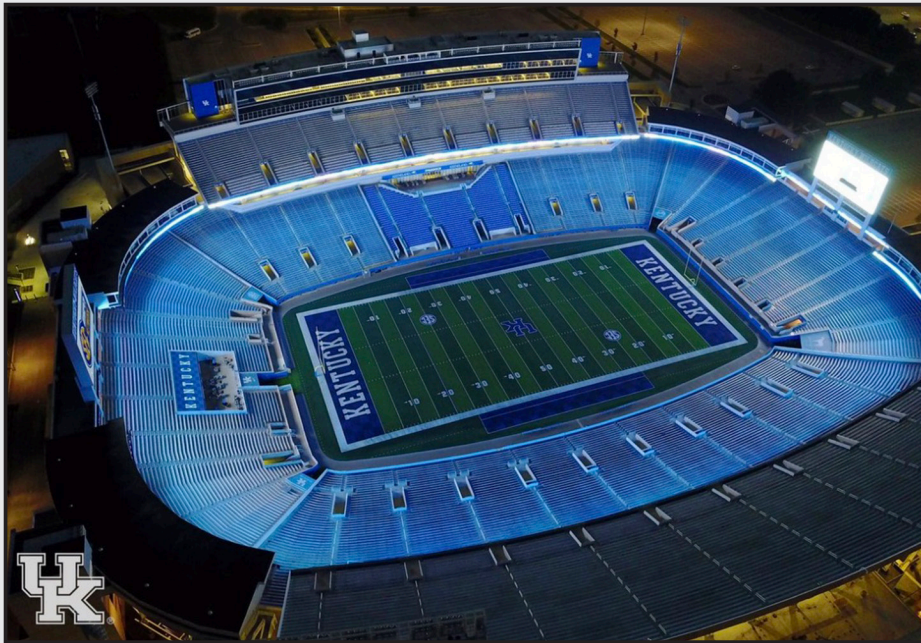

The announcement of the 2020 Class will be made in January 2020 in the days leading up to the College Football Playoff (CFP) National Championship in New Orleans. The January announcement will be televised and/or streamed live, and specific viewing information will be available as the date draws near. Several of the electees will also participate in the pregame festivities and the coin toss before the championship game.

The 2020 College Football Hall of Fame Class will officially be inducted during the 63rd NFF Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 8, 2020, at the New York Hilton Midtown. They will also be honored at their respective schools with an NFF Hall of Fame On-Campus Salute, presented by Fidelity Investments, during the 2020 season.

KROGER FIELD

On game day, Kroger Field often becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

Video Boards: Video boards by Daktronics measuring at 39 by 79 feet, each, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability. The video boards put UK among the nation's leaders in video square footage. The interior seating bowl also has LED ribbon boards.

Sound System: Sportsound system delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies, and high-impact entertainment. Components of the sound system include a main speaker cluster behind the end zone, under-balcony speakers and concourse speakers.

GAME DAY EXPERIENCES

The "Cat Walk" on Talbott Todd Way: With the unveiling of the new $45 million Kentucky Football Training Facility in August of 2016, the headquarters of the program moved next door to Kroger Field. That means the Cat Walk presented by Chevy will still begin outside Gate 1 two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff, but the team roceeds past Gate 1 and between Kroger Field and Nutter Field House which has been dedicated to former Wildcat Talbott Todd (1963-65). Todd, who passed away from ALS in August of 2017, was an avid supporter of the program. From Talbott Todd Way the team will walk to the locker room in the Joe Craft Kentucky Football Training Facility.

Pregame concerts: The Kentucky Football Pregame Concert Series has returned for the 2018 season. Concerts will begin on the stage outside Gate 12 immediately following the Cat Walk and last until 30 minutes prior to kickoff. The Cat Walk takes place two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff.

Coca Cola Fan Zone: Fans of all ages, but especially the younger Wildcats, will enjoy playing at the Fan Zone located in Nutter Field House. It will have inflatable games, free posters, face tattoos and more, available two hours before kickoff.

- Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 299 games within the friendly confines of newly-named Kroger Field. UK has a 162-133-4 record (.549), 26-17 under Mark Stoops.
- UK set a new Kroger Field attendance record when 63,543 fans packed the stadium for the Nov. 3, 2018 game vs. No. 6 Georgia.
- Two of the top five crowds in Kroger Field history came in 2018.
- UK announced its first sellout since 2015 when 62,945 fans attended the Florida game on Sept. 23, 2017.
- Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 62,382 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 30 teams in attendance in 14 of the last 16 season.
- The playing surface is named C.M. Newton Grounds at Kroger Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.

providing additional engagement opportunities with UK students. Per the agreement, Kroger is also the Official Nutrition and Pharmacy Partner of UK Athletics. Kroger Field was transformed into a state-of-the-art facility after a $126-million reinvention which was completed prior to the 2015 season. The project was handled by HNTB. The outside of the stadium underwent a dramatic external facelift, receiving a modern look, but one that remained uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Kroger Field was reduced over the course of the two-year project to approximately 61,000, but the value of all remaining seats were increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses were revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and security. Players and coaches reaped the benefits of the new Kroger Field as well, as home-team facilities were built, and a multi-purpose recruiting room hosts future Wildcats on their on-campus visits.

KROGER FIELD

Commonwealth Stadium was renamed to Kroger Field in May of 2017. The agreement--which is between Kroger and JMI Sports, UK's multimedia rights partner-- begins at approximately $1.85 million annually with a term of up to 12 years. With the partnership, Kroger becomes the Official Fuel Partner of the University of Kentucky and the Official Grocery Partner of Move-In at UK while also

HEAD COACH MARK STOOPS / SEVENTH SEASON / IOWA, 1989

No. 1, Mark Stoops, Kentucky

Kentucky might have gone bowling last year [2017], but absolutely no one outside of the biggest blue die-hards could've seen what was coming ... Stoops put together a masterpiece. Ten wins, a victory over Florida for the first time since 1986, a 46-point blowout over Louisville, and a Citrus Bowl win over Penn State – it was a special coaching job.

So wrote Pete Fiutak of CollegeFootballNews.com, who put Mark Stoops atop his list of the nation's best coaching performances of the 2018 season.

Early on, one could sense that the '18 campaign could be special when Stoops' troops won at Florida -- the Wildcats' first victory over the Gators in 32 years -- resulting in UK being named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America.

Kentucky went on to win five Southeastern Conference games, including a 28-7 win over No. 14-ranked Mississippi State and a miraculous comeback at Missouri, as Stoops posted UK's first winning SEC record in 41 years.

The regular season concluded with a 56-10 win at in-state rival Louisville, the largest margin of victory in the history of the Governor's Cup series.

A season that featured five victories considered upsets by the experts was fittingly finished with the finale -- a 27-24 triumph over favored, No. 12-ranked Penn State in the VRBO Citrus Bowl.

All totaled, the 10-3 record was Kentucky's best season since 1977 and only the third 10-win season in school history. UK was No. 11 in the final USA Today coaches' poll and No. 12 in the final Associated Press tabulation, the school's first appearance in the final rankings since 1984.

Stoops was well-recognized for Kentucky's breakthrough season. In addition to the No. 1 listing from CollegeFootballNews.com, he was named SEC Coach of the Year by the league coaches, Athlon Sports and The Associated Press. His name also appeared on watch lists for National Coach of the Year honors.

Stoops' individual accolades also extended to his players. Linebacker Josh Allen earned three National Defensive Player of the Year Awards and was a unanimous first-team All-American.

STOOPS AND CO. MAKING A HIT IN RECRUITING

In six seasons at the helm of the Kentucky football program, head coach Mark Stoops and his staff have been making noise on the recruiting trail. Kentucky’s seven classes under Stoops have ranked in the top 50 by all four major recruiting services. Below is a look at UK’s recruiting success under Stoops and Co.

Offensive guard Bunchy Stallings also was a first-team All-American and running back Benny Snell earned second-team All-America while becoming UK’s all-time leading rusher.

The 2018 season continued a remarkable trend – since Stoops took over as coach of the Cats in 2013, UK is the only school in the nation that has tied or improved its win total in each of the last six seasons.

That steady progression has culminated in multiple achievements:

- From 2016-18, UK won at least seven games and finished at least .500 in the Southeastern Conference each season. It’s the first time UK won seven games and finished at least .500 in the league in three consecutive seasons since 1949-51.
- The Wildcats placed second in the SEC Eastern Division in 2016 and 2018, the team’s best finishes since the league split into divisions in 1992.
- UK’s 2016-17-18 bowl appearances are only the third time in school history that the Cats have advanced to a bowl in at least three consecutive seasons.
- UK won three road games in both 2017 and ’18. It’s the first time UK has won three road games in back-to-back seasons since 1949-50.

How has Stoops accomplished all of this? The coach would tell you that there’s been nothing magical about the process.

True to his blue-collar roots in Youngstown, Ohio, the methodical advancement made by Stoops’ teams is a reflection of the coach’s rock-steady work ethic, tireless recruiting, and ability to adapt.

Stoops’ ability to adjust when necessary shone its brightest at the beginning of the 2016 season. After losing the first two games of the schedule, and seeing his starting quarterback out for the season with an injury, and seeing his defense struggle in the early stages, Stoops didn’t retreat. The Wildcat coach chose determination over despair and went back to work, revising the offense for a new QB while becoming more involved in helping coach the defense.

The results? The Wildcats went 7-3 in the last 10 regular-season games, topped by a win at No. 11-ranked Louisville. Stoops was named 2016 SEC Coach of the Year runner-up by Athlon Sports. That was the beginning of a turnaround which resulted in three straight bowl games and culminated in the VRBO

Citrus Bowl victory – representing UK’s first New Year’s Day bowl game in 20 years.

Stoops came to Kentucky from Florida State, where he was defensive coordinator from 2010-12. He inherited a unit ranked 108th in the nation in total defense and turned it into one of the nation’s best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game. Playing well against the run and the pass, FSU was third in the country in rushing defense and led the nation in pass defense. FSU led the ACC in seven defensive categories. Stoops also coached the defensive backs under head coach Jimbo Fisher.

Eight Seminoles on defense earned 2012 All-ACC honors, including four first-team selections, highlighted by one of the nation’s top defensive end duos in Bjoern Werner and Cornelius Carradine, who combined for 24 sacks and 31 tackles for loss. Werner was a finalist for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and was among the national leaders in sacks with 13. Stoops also coached cornerback Ronald Darby to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

The Seminoles’ prowess was a continuation of the 2011 season, when Stoops’ defenders led the nation in fewest yards allowed per carry (2.3), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense (275 yards per game), second in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), and eighth in tackles for loss (8.6 per game) and quarterback sacks (3.1 per game). FSU led the ACC in eight defensive categories.

Stoops overhauled the Florida State defense in 2010, his first season as defensive coordinator. The Seminoles gave up 19.6 points per game, third-best in the ACC and 20th nationally. FSU ranked 42nd nationally in total defense that season; in contrast, the team was 108th nationally in total defense and 94th in scoring defense in 2009, the year before Stoops' arrival. FSU improved its overall defense by more than 80 yards per game, primarily by limiting opponents to 75 fewer rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and were 21st in tackles for loss. In the secondary, Stoops coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades.

During Stoops' three seasons, FSU went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Stoops was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at Arizona from 2004-09, working for his brother, Mike, who was head coach of the Wildcats. During Mark's time there, Arizona's records improved steadily, going 3-8, 3-8, 6-6, 5-7, 8-5 and 8-5. The Wildcats advanced to the Las Vegas Bowl and Holiday Bowl during the last two years. Mark and Mike are also brothers of Bob Stoops, who retired in 2017 after 18 years as the Oklahoma head coach. The eldest Stoops brother, Ron Jr., is special teams coordinator at Youngstown State.

Stoops inherited an Arizona unit that was 109th in the nation in total defense and 107th in scoring defense in 2003, the year before he arrived. By the end of his term at Arizona, the Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 25 in total defense his final two sea-

Prior to Arizona, Stoops coached the defensive backs three years at Miami (Fla.). The 2001 national champion Hurricanes led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. That team also established a school record with 27 interceptions and 45 total takeaways.

Stoops' 2002 secondary led the nation in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Despite having to replace all four starters in the defensive backfield, the 2003 team led the nation in pass defense. In his three seasons, Miami went 35-3, including the 12-0 Rose Bowl title campaign, plus appearances in the Fiesta and Orange bowls. Ten Miami defensive backs who played at least one season under Stoops were eventually selected in the National Football League draft - seven in the first round.

a school-record 24 interceptions in the '97 season. His first full-time coaching job was in 1996 at South Florida, helping USF in the start-up of its program before the Bulls had their first kickoff in '97.

Stoops has recruited and developed numerous outstanding defensive backs, many of whom went on to National Football League careers. Among the notables are Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson at Arizona, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Meriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph and Sean Taylor and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

Stoops was raised in Youngstown, Ohio. As did brothers Bob and Mike, Mark played in the secondary at the University of Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. He participated in four bowl games as a player. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa in the 1990 and '91 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl, duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player. Stoops went on to coach four years in high school before entering the collegiate ranks.

Mark and his wife, Chantel, have two sons, Will and Zack.

DR. ELI CAPILOUTO, PRESIDENT

Dr. Eli Capilouto became the 12th President of the University of Kentucky July 1, 2011.

Under his leadership, Kentucky's flagship and land grant research university has reimagined what's possible as the state's most important institution for growth in education, health care, and economic and social advances. In less than a decade, UK has grown from $2.7 billion to $4.2 billion in total operations, fueled by sustained and significant momentum in its missions of teaching, research, service, and health care.

One example of that growth—and reimagining of what is possible for a public university—has been a $2.4 billion transformation of the campus, aimed squarely at expanding UK's education, research, service, and health care missions. Specifically, through partnerships with the private sector, increased philanthropy, and effective financial management, UK is self-financing the vast majority of this aggressive development.

Over the last eight years, the University has opened:

- The $265 million Healthy Kentucky Research Building;
- The $201 million Bill Gatton Student Center;
- The $112 Jacobs Science Building (financed, in large part, through a $65 million partnership with UK Athletics);
- The $65 million renovated and expanded Gatton College of Business and Economics building;
- 20 new dining facilities;
- 14 new residence halls, funded entirely with private equity;
- A new $15 million home for the School of Art and Visual Studies;
- A $126 million revitalized Kroger Field (funded solely by Athletics revenue);
- Nearly $550 million since 2011 in the continued construction and fit-out of the new Chandler Hospital;
- And a $56 million renovation and expansion of the College of Law, opening this fall.

This re-imagining and innovation of the campus has resulted in:

- Enrolling more than 30,500 students, thanks to dramatic growth in first-year enrollment and record retention rates;
- Conferring more 7,000 undergraduate, graduate, and professional degrees in the last academic year, reflective of a record graduation rate;
- Treating more than 40,000 patients in UK Health-Care;
- Earning more than $380 million in research awards, including a historic $87 million grant to fight opioid abuse and death;
- Being nationally recognized for efforts to be a diverse and welcoming community;

Dr. Eli Capilouto is enhancing UK's multi-faceted mission of teaching, research, service and health care.

- Remaining in a strong financial position, reflected by a strong and stable bond rating; and
- Negotiating a transformative partnership with the city of Lexington that will strengthen economic development, improve career prospects for our graduates, and provide better pedestrian safety.

The progress on the campus is helping ensure an outstanding workforce for Kentucky, with dramatic increases in the number of science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) degrees. More than 77 percent of all UK graduates stay in Kentucky, with average earnings of more than 25 percent above the national average.

UK is Kentucky's indispensable economic partner, with dozens of partnerships to provide research expertise to private business owners and internship opportunities for UK students; spending $5.5 billion with Kentucky companies since 2011; owning more than 600 patent assets; and employing more than 13,500 people, who pay more than $100 million in state and local taxes.

A native of Montgomery, Alabama, Dr. Capilouto previously served as Provost of the University of Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) and Dean of the UAB School of Public Health -- a period of remarkable growth and transformation at one of the leading academic and health sciences institutions in the South. Dr. Capilouto holds several undergraduate and graduate degrees from schools within the University of Alabama system, a Doctor of Medicine in Dentistry (D.M.D.) from UAB, and a Doctorate in Health Policy and Management from Harvard University. He and his wife, Dr. Mary Lynne Capilouto (D.M.D.) a former Dean of the UAB School of Dentistry, have one daughter.

MITCH BARNHART, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

One of the foremost leaders in college athletics and SportsBusiness Journal's reigning Athletic Director of the year, Mitch Barnhart is in his 18th year at the helm of the University of Kentucky Athletics Department.

Since his arrival in Lexington, Barnhart has steadily invested in the growth of all 22

UK teams while maintaining a singular commitment to the holistic development of Wildcat student-athletes. Matching resources to expectations has been a hallmark of his tenure, with the proof coming in the form of $300 million in facility improvements since 2007 and his bold pursuit of Elite 1-3-5. At the heart of everything are the core values Barnhart has instilled in the department he leads: character, integrity, knowledge, stewardship and competitiveness.

The aim of Elite 1-3-5 is for each UK team to be No. 1 by winning a conference or national championship, sustain a department-wide 3.0 grade-point average and rank in the top five of the Learfield IMG Directors' Cup standings by 2022. It's an ambitious undertaking, but UK students, coaches and staff have proven themselves capable of unmatched achievement. Four UK teams have won championships towards Elite 1-3-5, most recently with volleyball winning a second consecutive SEC championship and men's soccer sweeping Conference USA regular-season and tournament titles.

UK is well positioned to pursue a top-five Directors' Cup finish on the heels of the six best finishes in school history coming in the last seven seasons. Two seasons removed from a school-record 10th-place finish in 2016-17, UK Athletics finished 14th in 2018-19.

UK Athletics continues to excel in the academic component of Elite 1-3-5, as Wildcat student-athletes on scholarship have combined for a GPA of better than 3.0 in 14 consecutive semesters. In spring 2019, UK achieved a cumulative GPA of 3.201, the second best in school history. UK athletes have set records for graduation rates and maintained a perfect mark in the 15-year history of the NCAA Academic Progress Rate, making UK one of just two SEC schools to never incur an APR penalty.

Elite 1-3-5 is the successor to Barnhart's 15 by 15 by 15 Plan, set forth in 2008. The 15 by 15 by 15 Plan called on UK Athletics to rank among the nation's top 15 athletics programs and win 15 conference or national championships by 2015. At the same time, Barnhart set goals of a 3.0 composite GPA for Wildcat students and an even greater commitment to community service.

The academic goal was first achieved in the spring semester of 2010, with grades hitting a peak in spring 2014 with a school-record 3.218 composite GPA. Community service has risen to more than 4,000 hours annually and includes outreach to the Lexington area, the Commonwealth of Kentucky and as far away as Ethiopia, the Dominican Republic and Panama.

The Directors' Cup objective was reached a year early when UK checked in at a then-school record No. 11 in the 2013-14 national all-sports standings.

The final goal was reached when UK men's basketball claimed the 2015 SEC Tournament title, the 15th championship won by Wildcat athletes since 2008. In addition to being one of four NCAA Division I Athletics Directors of the Year in 2015, Barnhart also was one of four finalists for Athletics Director of the Year as chosen by the SportsBusiness Journal and he received the Sports Business Award from the Bluegrass Sports Commission that year.

Four years after his first nomination by the SportsBusiness Journal Barnhart was named 2019 Athletic Director of the Year, but he has always been more interested in the achievements of UK student-athletes than his own. On that count, UK has had plenty to celebrate.

During a 2018-19 season that saw five teams (men's soccer, men's basketball, rifle, volleyball and softball) post top-10 finishes and the football program post its best season in 41 years, Wildcat student-athletes excelled. Softball's Abbey Cheek was named NFCA National Player of the Year, football's Josh Allen was named national defensive player of the year and women's basketball's Rhyne Howard was named national freshman of the year. Dozens more Wildcats earned All-America and all-conference honors.

Off-the-field recognition has come just as often, with softball senior Katie Reed being named the winner of the Senior CLASS Award, C.J. Conrad winning the 2018 Pop Warner National College Football Award, and Asia Seidt honored as 2019 Arthur Ashe Female Sports Scholar of the Year and NCAA Elite 90 winner. Seidt added to UK's rich history of producing winners of the Elite 90 award – given to the student-athlete with the top GPA at each NCAA championship – following in the footsteps of Chelsea Oswald (track and field, 2012-13), Sam Malone (men's basketball, 2013-14) and Aldila Sutjiadi (women's tennis, 2014-15 & 2015-16).

Even with UK's sustained success, Barnhart is always seeking improvement. One recent example is UK's newly launched Student-Athlete Experience Division. Through the division's work, UK has renewed its commitment to prepare student-athletes to enter life after UK by equipping them with requisite professional skills and helping them identify and pursue internship and work opportunities while continuing to provide the academic support that has made UK Athletics a trendsetter in college athletics for the last four decades.

Investment in the success of UK student-athletes in all facets has been a theme of the Barnhart era, beginning with the provision funds for full coaching staffs and scholarship allotments for all 22 UK sports. Barnhart has also strategically invested in improvements to UK Athletics' facilities. Investments in new construction and renovation to facilities total approximately $300 million and include the Joe Craft Center; new stadiums for track and field, softball and soccer; the UK Golf House; and the Wildcat Coal Lodge dormitory. The home of Kentucky football, Kroger Field, underwent a $126 million renovation completed in 2015 and the $45 million Joe Craft Football Training Facility opened a year later. A new $49 million baseball stadium – Kentucky Proud Park – opened in fall of 2018 and a new men's basketball locker room opened in 2017. Next on the docket are upgrades to Memorial Coliseum and the construction of a new indoor tennis facility.

Even with the department's growth and the increasingly competitive nature of college sports, UK Athletics has remained financially self-sufficient under Barnhart's management, operating with a balanced budget and with the help of no state or University funds. Seeing pressing facility needs on campus as well, Barnhart has made a $65 million commitment for athletics to fund nearly two-thirds of the new Don & Cathy Jacobs Science Building on campus. He also directs an annual $1.7-million contribution to the University's scholarship program. Millions more dollars from the athletics budget stay on campus each year through athletic scholarship payments, administrative support payments, merchandise royalties and other avenues. Additionally, UK has also completely phased out the athletics fee previously paid by students as part of their tuition.

A steadfast believer in the transformational power of college athletics, Barnhart is influential on the national level. Already having served on numerous committees and boards for the NCAA and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), Barnhart completed his third year as a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee in 2019, which brings responsibility for selecting, seeding and bracketing teams, along with administration of the NCAA's highest-profile event.

With his extensive previous experience on the NCAA Division I Council, as chair of the NCAA Competition Oversight Committee and as a member of the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee, in addition to several other leadership groups, Barnhart has proven himself well suited for the task.

On a league level, Barnhart – the longest-tenured athletics director in the conference – was named chair of the SEC Athletics Directors in 2017, the latest instance of his active involvement in SEC projects. Of recent note is his work with the SEC Compliance Committee and the SEC Network Content Committee, which helped the highly successful launch of the largest new cable channel in television history.

Barnhart's legacy at UK includes helping develop administrators who have gone on to become athletics directors at nationally prominent universities, including Greg Byrne of Alabama, Mark Coyle at Minnesota, Rob Mullens at Oregon, Scott Stricklin at Florida, John Cohen at Mississippi State and Kevin Saal at Murray State.

Barnhart arrived at UK from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-83).

Barnhart is a native of Kansas City, Kansas. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University.

In addition to the extraordinary achievements of his work world, reaching new heights is also a theme of his personal life. An avid mountain climber, Barnhart has scaled Mount Kilimanjaro, the highest mountain in Africa, along with two of the most challenging peaks in the United States, Mount Rainier in Washington and the Grand Tetons in Wyoming. He has also twice performed tandem parachute jumps with the Army Golden Knights. Impactful in community service, Barnhart has taken part in mission trips and was on the national advisory board of K-Love Radio.

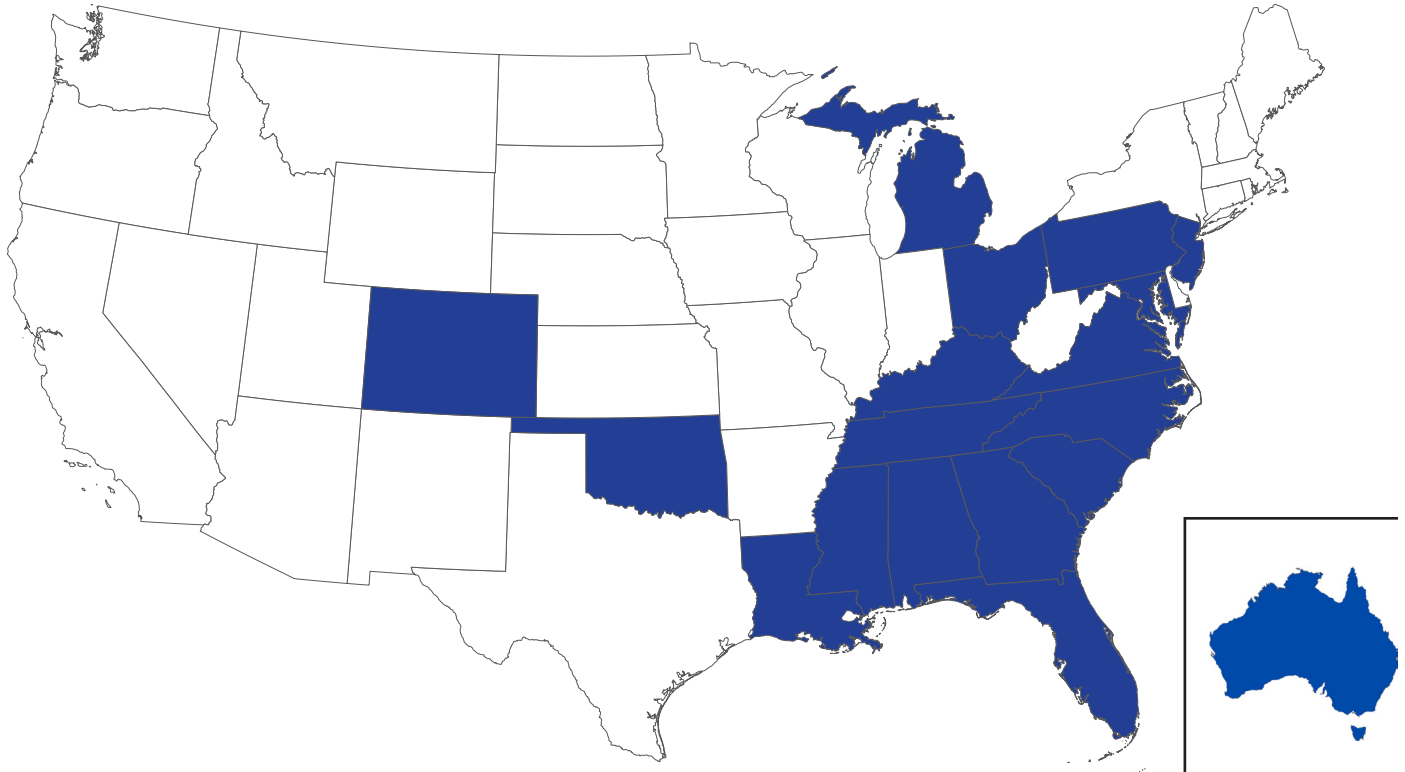

Barnhart and his wife, Connie, also actively serve and support the Christian Student Fellowship and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes on campus in an effort to minister to young people. The Barnharts have three children, Kirby Willoughby, Blaire Jansen and Scott; Kirby's husband, McKenzie; grandsons, Cooper and Reece; Blaire's husband, Andrew; and Scott's wife Cassie.

2018 - Sophomore-RS

- Redshirt season
- Dean's List (Spring 2019)
- Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll
- Played in three games with one starting assignment vs. Middle Tennessee
- In July of 2018, was diagnosed with malignant melanoma on the bottom of his right foot ... underwent three surgeries, followed by ongoing monthly immunotherapy treatments
- Recovered sufficiently to play against Middle Tennessee ... started the game and saw occasional action throughout
- In the second quarter, made a tackle on a third down play that forced a punt ... When his name was called as the tackler, the Kroger Field crowd gave him a rousing ovation while his teammates swarmed him with congratulations
- Named SEC co-Defensive Player of the Week (11/19)
- Had two tackles and a TFL at Louisville

2017 - Freshman

- Played in all 13 games with one start
- Earned his first career start vs. Northwestern in the Music City Bowl
- Totaled 17 tackles, 4.5 TFL, 3.5 sacks, 3 QBH and 1 blocked kick
- Recorded a career-high three tackles along with a sack in the win over Tennessee and Vanderbilt
- Named SEC Special Teams Player of the week for his game-changing blocked punt vs. EMU
- First UK player to block a punt since Josh Forrest vs. Alabama State in 2013
- With UK clinging to a 17-14 lead in the fourth quarter, Paschal deftly broke through the line and punter shield, also deducing the correct place and time to block a running rugby punt
- The blocked punt went for an 18-yard loss back to the EMU 12-yard line, setting up Benny Snell's 12-yard TD run on the next play
- On the play before the blocked punt, forced a third-down incomplection with a quarterback hurry

- Finished the EMU game with a tackle and a QB hurry, and shared a quarterback sack
- Athlon Sports Preseason SEC All-Freshman Third Team
