STORYLINES

- FEELS LIKE '98: Riding its first 7-0 start since the undefeated 1998 national championship season, No. 3/3 Tennessee hosts No. 19/17 Kentucky at 7 p.m. ET Saturday in Neyland Stadium. It marks just the third time the two teams will face off both ranked at the time of the matchup. The only two times that occurred was in 1951 and 1950, and the Vols won both and went on to win the national title in each of those years under General Neyland. UT enters Saturday ranked No. 3 in the AP Top 25 for the second straight week, which represents their highest ranking since it held the same spot to open the 2005 season. UT is receiving first-place votes for the second straight week. Saturday's contest marks the fifth straight sellout of Neyland Stadium.
- 65-POINT BARRAGE: Tennessee scored a program record 52 points in the first half en route to a 65-24 defeat of UT Martin on Homecoming in Neyland Stadium. The Vols amassed 696 yards of total offense—the second-most in program history—and nine touchdowns. Tennessee's 65 points were the most since the Vols put up a UT modern era record 70 points against Louisiana Monroe on Sept. 23, 2000. It was the second time this season in which the Big Orange eclipsed the 60-point margin as well as the 600-yards of total offense mark. Tennessee finished with 495 yards and five scores through the air, while adding 201 yards and four touchdowns on the ground. Six different Vols found the checkerboards, including two more from WR Jalin Hyatt, who finished with seven catches for 174 yards in one half. QB Hendon Hooker accounted for 304 yards of total offense, and he was 18-of-24 for 276 yards and three scores through the air in one half of action. TE Princeton Fant rushed for two scores and fired a 66-yard TD to Hyatt.
- HEUPEL ERA: The 27th head coach in UT history, Josh Heupel's 42 victories since the start of the 2018 season are tied for eighth among active FBS head coaches. Heupel became the seventh-quickest active FBS coach to reach the 40-win plateau (54 games). Heupel now owns five wins over top 25 teams at UT, including three on the road (No. 25 LSU, No. 14 Pitt, No. 18 Kentucky). The five is tied with Phillip Fulmer (1992-94) for the most ranked wins over the first 19 games of a UT career. Heupel joined Johnny Majors (def. Auburn in 1985) and Bowden Wyatt (def. LSU in 1959) as the only three coaches in UT history to beat a No. 1 ranked team (Alabama). His 14 victories through the first 20 games of a UT career are the most since Phillip Fulmer won 14.
- THE NATION'S NO. 1 OFFENSE: A year after setting a school record for points in a season and becoming the FBS' most improved offense (No. 108 in 2020 to No. 7 in 2021 in scoring), Tennessee's high-powered offense is still thriving. The Vols are tops in the nation in scoring offense (50.1) and total offense (571.7), and UT is second in the nation in passing offense (368.9) and passing efficiency (198.58). The Vols have put up at least 30 points in a league-best and school-record 10 straight games. UT leads the SEC in seven different offensive categories: scoring offense, total offense, passing offense (347.8), passing efficiency, passing yards per completion (15.57), red zone offense and fewest interceptions (1).
- BUILDING RESUME: Tennessee and TCU are the only FBS programs this season with four or more victories over AP Top 25 ranked teams at the time of meeting. It's the first time since 1998 that the Vols have defeated four or more ranked teams in a regular season and first since 2001 that they have done it including the bowl game. They have already secured bowl eligibility for the second straight season, a first since 2015-16. Tennessee owns the highest ranked win of the year with Alabama holding at No. 6 in the AP and Coaches. The Vols also own a 27-point road win at current No. 18/20 LSU. Josh Heupel is 5-4 vs. ranked teams at UT.

NOTING THE TENNESSEE-KENTUCKY SERIES

- Tennessee leads the all-time series, 82-26-9, and the two teams will be meeting for the 79th consecutive season dating back to 1944. The Vols have played (117 times) and beaten Kentucky (82 times) more than any other opponent.
- The Vols' 82 victories over the Wildcats rank as the fifth-most victories for one side in a head-to-head matchup in the FBS, behind Nebraska-Kansas (Neb.-91), Oklahoma-Oklahoma State (OU-90), Nebraska-Iowa State (Neb.-86), Alabama-Mississippi State (UA-85).
- Since 1996, the Vols have scored 45 points or more 10 times against Kentucky. In every one of those games, the Tennessee offense had over 450 yards, a feat the 2022 team has surpassed in every game this season but one.
- This is the first time since Nov. 24, 1951, that both teams are ranked at the time of the meeting. That year, the top-ranked Vols defeated the No. 9 Wildcats, 28-0, in Lexington, before going on to win the national championship under General Robert Neyland.
- The only other time that both teams were ranked at the time of the meeting was a year prior on Nov. 25, 1950. The No. 9 Vols beat No. 3 Kentucky, 7-0, in Knoxville. That team also won the national championship under General Neyland.
- Tennessee head coach Josh Heupel and Kentucky head coach Mark Stoops were on staff together at Arizona in 2005. Heupel was the tight ends coach, while Stoops was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Mike Stoops was the head coach.
- Heupel's connection to the stoops family runs deep as he was recruited and coached for Mark's brother, Bob, at Oklahoma as well as coached for Bob while with the Sooners.
- Heupel and Stoops have faced each other four times. OC Heupel and the Missouri Tigers played UK in 2016 and 2017 (Stoops won both) and prior to that Heupel was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oklahoma in 2011, while Stoops was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Florida State. The then-No. 1 Sooners beat the then-No. 5 Seminoles, 23-13. Heupel won the matchup 45-42 in a battle of head coaches last season in Lexington.

Vols Outlast No. 18 Wildcats In Road Shootout, 45-42

LEXINGTON, Ky. - It featured five lead changes, a combined 11 touchdowns and 1,073 yards of total offense as Tennessee outlasted No. 18 Kentucky, 45-42, on a cold Saturday night in Lexington.

It was the Volunteers' first win over a top 20 opponent on the road since 2006 as quarterback Hendon Hooker was spectacular, completing 15-of-20 passes for a then career-high 316 yards and four touchdowns.

He completed two throws of 70+ yards, marking the first time since at least 2000 that the Vols posted two offensive plays of 70 or more yards in the same game. He connected with JaVonta Payton, who dashed 75 yards down the sideline on the first play of the game. Three plays later on the ensuing possession, he hit Velus Jones. Jr. for a 72-yarder as the Vols continued their first-quarter success.

The Vols took a 24-21 advantage into halftime on a well-executed drive in the final minute that culminated with a Chase McGrath 43-yard field goal as time expired.

The Vols built a 10-point advantage on back-to-back scoring plays in the third quarter. Jabari Small ripped off a 37-yard touchdown run. Then, Alontae Taylor stepped in front a Will Levis pass and returned it 56 yards for a touchdown with 6:23 remaining in the third quarter.

The teams traded scores again, and Hooker finished off a three-play, 47-yard drive when he found Cedric Tillman on a 6-yard touchdown that proved to be the game winner in the fourth quarter.

The Vol defense came up big in the final minute. With the Wildcats trailing by three and down to the UT 38 yard-line, Tennessee forced four consecutive Levis incompletions to create a turnover on downs.

Defensively, UT's linebacker duo of Jeremy Banks and Aaron Beasley each posted a game-high 14 tackles. Theo Jackson tallied a career-high three pass breakups.

NOTING TIM BANKS' ATTACKING DEFENSE

- Tim Banks is in his second season as the Vols' defensive coordinator and his unit features more depth. The Vols rank in the top 25 nationally in rushing defense (eighth - 90.9) and redzone defense (13th - 73.3).
- UT ranks fourth in the SEC in tackles for loss per game (6.29). A total of 23 different Vols have at least 0.5 tackles for loss this season, including 11 with 2.0 or more. UT is also fourth in the SEC in total sacks (17) and sacks per game (2.43).
- Sr. edge rusher Byron Young is a preseason first-team All-SEC selection and off to an outstanding 2022. Young came up clutch with two tackles for loss, a game-high three QB hurries and a sack in a Week 2 win at No. 17 Pitt on Sept. 10. He was tabbed the SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week. He continued his stellar play with a career-best 2.5 sacks at No. 25 LSU on Oct. 8. That tally tied for the most by an SEC player in a game this season. He leads the squad in tackles for loss (4.5) and sacks (3.5). He ranks eighth in the SEC in sacks.
- Banks' defense was disruptive in Week 2 at Pitt. They forced two turnovers, collected nine tackles for loss and four sacks, forced two fumbles and registered one interception. They also tallied 16 quarterback hurries, representing Tennessee's first double-digit game in that category since tallying 10 against Georgia State on Sept. 8, 2012.
- Tennessee has posted 168 total QB pressures this season according to PFF led by Byron Young's 30, which is second in the SEC and 15th nationally.

- The Vols have done an outstanding job defending the run, allowing only 90.9 yards per game on the ground, which is second in the SEC and eighth in the FBS. They have held four opponents to under 100 yards rushing - Ball State, Akron, No. 25 LSU and UT Martin. They limited Alabama to 114 rushing yards, which was 143.2 below its season average.
- The Vols are issuing only 2.89 yards per rush, which is second in the SEC and eighth in the nation.

As UT racked up 576 yards of total offense, Spraggins played all 70 snaps at right guard and did not allow a sack or a QB hit. He was the first Vol to be named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week since Cade Mays was honored on Nov. 8, 2021, following Tennessee's road win at Kentucky.
- Wright became the second Vol this season to be named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week, doing so following the victory over No. 3/1 Alabama on Oct. 15. He was the highest graded offensive lineman in the game on both sides, playing all 70 snaps without allowing a sack or a pressure. He neutralized Alabama star edge rusher Will Anderson. The Vols averaged a stellar 8.1 yards per play against the Tide.
- For the season, Spraggins, Wright and Carvin have not allowed a sack.

Following an interception by Tamarion McDonald, QB Hendon Hooker found WR Jalin Hyatt on a 23-yard touchdown pass on the first offensive play of the season.

NOTEBOOK

- The Vols scored on the first offensive play twice last season, a 2-yard run by Jabari Small vs. Pitt on Sept. 11 and a 75-yard touchdown pass by Hendon Hooker to JaVonta Payton at Kentucky on Nov. 6.

REDZONE OFFENSIVE EFFICIENCY

- Tennessee has converted all 38 of its 39 redzone trips offensively this season, including 32 for touchdowns. That scoring percentage of 97.44 ranks tied for third in the nation with Clemson.
- The Vols' 82.05 touchdown percentage in the redzone ranks fourth in the nation.
- In two seasons under Josh Heupel, the Vols have scored on 87-of-97 (89.7 percent) redzone trips with 71 touchdowns.
- Tennessee converted its first 36 redzone attempts of the season before coming up short on its first one with backups in the third quarter of the UT Martin game in Week 7 on Oct. 22. The Vols got into the redzone, had a penalty and then missed a field goal.

POLLING, HIGHEST RANKING SINCE 2005

- Tennessee is ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for the eighth straight week and its seventh consecutive week in the AFCA Coaches Poll. Following the victory over UT Martin, the Vols held at No. 3 in the AP and moved up one spot to No. 3 in the Coaches. The No. 3 ranking marks Tennessee's highest position in the AP poll since opening the 2005 season in the same spot.
- UT coupled 13 first-place votes with its No. 3 ranking in the AP this week, the second straight week with such votes. Prior to this season, the last time the Vols received first-place votes was Sept. 12, 1999.
- The Vols are ranked in the top 10 for the fifth consecutive week, and it marks the ninth time that a Josh Heupel coached team is in the top 10. The last time that Tennessee was in the top 10 prior to this season was Oct. 2016.
- Heupel's UCF teams were ranked a total of 27 weeks in his three seasons in Orlando. Their highest ranking in the Heupel era was No. 7 when it played in the 2018 AAC Championship Game and then the Fiesta Bowl.
- Tennessee holds five wins over top 25 teams in the Heupel era, including four this season and three on the road. The Vols defeated No. 18/17 Kentucky, 45-42, last season in Lexington, topped No. 17/14 Pitt, 34-27, in overtime on Sept. 10, beat No. 25 LSU in Death Valley on Oct. 8 and topped No. 3/1 Alabama on The Third Saturday in October, 2022.
- The Pitt victory was UT's first over a ranked non-conference opponent on the road since it beat No. 6 Miami, 10-6, on Nov. 8, 2003, in Orange Bowl Stadium.
- Tennessee and TCU are the only teams in America with four victories over AP Top 25 teams at the time of the meeting.
- The Alabama win gave the Vols victories over ranked teams in three consecutive games played for the first time since the 1991 season when it beat No. 21 UCLA, No. 23 Mississippi State and No. 13 Auburn in three straight weeks.
- A win over No. 19/17 Kentucky would give the Vols five victories over ranked teams at the time of the meeting, which would be the most in a regular season in school history.

CLUTCH CHASE MCGRATH

- Senior placekicker Chase McGrath, the Southern Cal transfer who is in his second year at Tennessee, has been clutch for the Vols. McGrath is 10-of-13 in field goals this season and 40-of-41 in PATs.
- McGrath booted two crucial field goals and converted all four of his PATs to help push No. 24 Tennessee past No. 17 Pitt, 34-27, in overtime in a non-conference road game. Following a turnover in the final seconds of the first half, McGrath drilled a 37-yard field goal as time expired to give the Vols a 24-17 lead. Then in the fourth quarter, McGrath extended Tennessee's lead to seven as he nailed a 51-yarder with 8:57 to play. It was his longest made field goal as a Vol and the longest by a UT player since Brent Cimaglia made a 53-yarder vs. UAB in 2019. It was the longest by a Vol in a road game since Cimaglia's 51-yarder at Florida in 2017.
- McGrath converted a UT-high 4-of-5 field goals at No. 25 LSU on Oct. 8 in helping the Vols to a road win. He tallied 16 points on the day, one point shy of the single-game school record by a kicker. He was named SEC Special Teams Player of the Week for his efforts.
- McGrath then earned SEC honors again in a heroic effort in the victory over No. 3/1 Alabama on Oct. 15. He connected on his only field goal attempt of the night on the biggest stage, making a 40-yarder as time expired to give

No. 6/8 Tennessee its first victory over No. 3/1 Alabama since 2006 by a score of 52-49. The kick was Tennessee's first game-winner as time expired since Michael Palardy hit a 19-yard try to defeat No. 11 South Carolina on Oct. 19, 2013. It was McGrath's first game-winning field since a 43-yard make against Texas as a true freshman at Southern Cal on Sept. 16, 2017.

- For his UT career, McGrath is 22-of-29 and 1-of-2 from 50 or more yards. From 40 yards or less, McGrath is 17-of-18 for his Tennessee career, including 11 makes in a row.

GRAND HYATT

- After an up-and-down sophomore season, WR Jalin Hyatt is off to a historic start in 2022 and is a candidate for the Biletnikoff Award. Tennessee has never claimed the award since its inception in 1994.
- Hyatt leads the nation in receiving touchdowns (12), and he is tops in the nation in 30+ yard receiving plays (9), 40+ yard receiving plays (8) and 60+ yard receiving plays (3). He and Ohio State's Marvin Harrison Jr. (10) are the only players in the country with double-digit receiving scores.
- Hyatt is fifth in the nation in receiving yards per game (109.9), and he is seventh in total receiving yards (769).
- Hyatt leads the SEC in four categories: receiving touchdowns, receiving yards, receiving yards per game and receptions per game (5.7).
- Hyatt has produced more 40-yard receiving plays this season (8) than 11 SEC teams have produced as a team the entire season! He has more than Arkansas (7), Alabama (6), Auburn (6), LSU (6), Florida (5), Ole Miss (5), Missouri (4), Texas A&M (4), Vanderbilt (3), Georgia (1) and Mississippi State (1). Hyatt has three more than the next closest in the nation as Coastal Carolina's Jared Brown has five.
- Hyatt delivered the greatest WR performance in school history as No. 6/8 Tennessee downed No. 3/1 Alabama on Oct. 15. He caught six passes for 207 yards and a school-record and SEC-record-tying five touchdowns. Hyatt became the fifth player in SEC history to catch five or more touchdowns in a game and the first since Alabama's DeVonta Smith vs. Ole Miss in 2019.
- Hyatt's 207 receiving yards vs. Alabama ranked sixth in Vol single-game history and were the most by a UT player in an SEC contest since Denarius Moore had 228 vs. South Carolina on Oct. 30, 2010. He was the first FBS player to have 200-plus receiving yards and five or more touchdowns since Smith in that 2019 Ole Miss game. Hyatt also tied the single-game program record for points with 30, a mark that evened with Gene McEver who had 30 points vs. South Carolina in Dec. 7, 1929. Hyatt caught touchdown passes of 36-, 11-, 60-, 78- and 13-yards. He had two huge ones in the fourth quarter with the 78-yarder and then the game-tying 13-yard score with 3:26 remaining the game that culminated a 75-yard drive.
- Hyatt became the first player to register three or more touchdowns and 100 receiving yards or more against Alabama in the Nick Saban era. He was the first FBS player with five or more receiving touchdowns vs. an AP top-five team since NC State's Terry Holt did so vs. No. 3 Florida State on Nov. 8, 1997. Hyatt was named National Offensive Player of the Week and SEC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.

 Carlos Carson (LSU) - 5 vs. Rice (1977)

- Hyatt followed that up with 174 yards on seven catches and two touchdowns last week vs. UT Martin. Hyatt has produced multiple receiving touchdowns in three straight games, becoming the first Vol to achieve that feat since Marcus Nash did so in 1997. Nash did it ...
- In his last three games combined, Hyatt has nine receiving touchdowns, including seven in his last six quarters as he did not play the second half last week vs. UT Martin.
- Hyatt's 12 receiving touchdowns are already one off the school single-season record of 13 set by Marcus Nash in 1997. Hyatt is currently tied for second with teammate Cedric Tillman (12 in 2021) and Cedrick Wilson (12 in 2000). He is two scores away from cracking the SEC single-season top 10.

NOTEBOOK

CEDRIC TILLMAN BACK FOR MORE

- Sr. WR Cedric Tillman elected to return for another season. He enters the Kentucky game with 100-yard receiving games in six of his last nine games he has played in. He became the first Vol with four straight 100-yard efforts since Joey Kent did in seven consecutive games in 1996. Tillman did not play the last four contests due to injury.
- With his 162-yard performance at No. 17 Pitt in Week 2, Tillman entered the UT career top 10 in 100-yard games. He is tied with six other players for eighth place. One more would put him in a three-way tie for sixth place with Robert Meachem (2004-06) and Lary Seivers (1973-76) with seven.
- Tillman owns the school record for consecutive games with a touchdown catch with seven, which broke Joey Kent's old mark. The streak came to an end in the season opener against Ball State. He has caught at least one touchdown in eight of his last 10 games.
- Tillman also holds the school record for single-game touchdown catches with three, a feat he achieved in his last game in the 2021 Music City Bowl vs. Purdue.
- Tillman's 14 career touchdown catches rank tied for 12th in Vol annals. He is one shy of 11th place held by Tim McGee (15 from 1982-85) and two shy of 10th place held by Alvin Harper (16 from 1987-90).
- In 2022, Tillman is third in the SEC in catches (17), fifth in receiving yards (246) and fourth in receiving yards per game (82.0).

SIX STRAIGHT 100-YARD RECEIVERS

- Tennessee has produced a 100-yard receiver in six consecutive games.
- Cedric Tillman started the streak with 162 at Pitt followed by Jalin Hyatt a week later with 166 vs. Akron. USC transfer Bru McCoy got into the mix with 102 yards receiving in the win over No. 20 Florida on Sept. 24 and followed that up with 140 at No. 25 LSU. McCoy's highlight vs. Florida came on a 70-yard pass play that set up a Hendon Hooker rushing touchdown in the second quarter vs. the Gators. Hyatt had his epic 207-yard performance in the win over No. 3/1 Alabama on Oct. 15, and both he (174) and true freshman Squirrel White (122) went over 100 vs. UT Martin.
- The Vols have produced 15 100-yard receiving games in the Josh Heupel era (since 2021).

PANDEMONIUM REIGNS ON THE THIRD SATURDAY IN OCTOBER

- Oct. 15, 2022, will forever live in Tennessee football lore as this year's Third Saturday in October saw the No. 3 Vols take down the No. 3/1 Alabama Crimson Tide, 52-49, on Chase McGrath's 40-yard field goal as time expired.
- The victory snapped a 15-game losing streak to the Tide and was the Vols' first win in the series since Oct. 21, 2006.
- Fans stormed the field and tore down the goalposts for the first time since defeating No. 2 Florida, 20-17, in overtime on Sept. 19, 1998.
- The Vols put up 567 yards of total offense and tallied 52 points, the most allowed by Alabama in a game in the SEC era (since 1933) and the most allowed in any game since surrendering 54 to Sewanee on Oct. 21, 1907.
- The victory was the third in school history over a No. 1 ranked team (Coaches or AP). The others: Sept. 28, 1985 def. Auburn in Knoxville and Nov. 7, 1959 def. LSU in Knoxville.
- The Vols averaged 8.10 yards per play, the most allowed by the Tide in a game since since Texas A&M put up 8.85 on Sept. 14, 2013.
- WR Jalin Hyatt tied the SEC record and set a school record with five receiving touchdowns, while QB Hendon Hooker threw for 385 yards and five touchdowns. Hooker got the Vols into field goal range on just two plays in 14 seconds before McGrath's game winner. Hooker became the first QB to throw five touchdowns on Alabama since Texas A&M's Johnny Manziel did so on Sept. 14, 2013.
- The win was Tennessee's first over a Nick Saban-coached team since 2001 when they beat LSU in Knoxville in Saban's second year.
- It also snapped a 38-game losing streak to AP Poll top 10 teams for Tennessee and was the first since beating No. 10 Georgia on Oct. 7, 2006.
- The 52 points scored by the Vols were the most allowed by a Nick Saban-coached team since Nebraska put up 55 points against Michigan State on Sept. 7, 1996.

TEN STRAIGHT GAMES WITH 30+ POINTS

- Tennessee has reached the 30-point plateau in a school-record 10 straight games dating back to last season. They have also gone over 35 points in five consecutive games for the first time in school history. The 30-point streak is tops in the SEC and tied for the national lead:

SOLD-OUT NEYLAND STADIUM THE NORM, STREAKING

- Tennessee has already sold out five of its home games this season. It's the first time the Vols have produced five or more sellouts since 2007 when they did it six times: Southern Miss (9/8), Arkansas State (9/22), Georgia (10/6), South Carolina (10/27), Arkansas (11/10) and Vanderbilt (11/17). Official capacity was listed as 102,037 in 2007.
- It's the first time since 2006 with five consecutive sellouts in Neyland Stadium. UT sold out every game that season.
- UT sold over 17,000 new season tickets for the 2022 campaign, more than doubling its previous high since new season ticket sales have been tracked.
- The Vols have produced sold-out crowds of 101,915 this season vs. Akron, Florida, Alabama, UT Martin and now Kentucky on Saturday.
- The Vols have won seven straight games in Neyland Stadium dating back to Nov. 20 last season. That is Tennessee's longest home winning streak since winning seven in a row from 2015-16.

PEYTON MANNING TABBED TO 2022 SEC LEGENDS CLASS

Twenty-five years after leading Tennessee to the 1997 SEC championship, VFL and Pro Football Hall of Famer Peyton Manning will represent the Volunteers on the 2022 SEC Football Legends class. The class will be honored at the 2022 SEC Football "Weekend of Champions" Dec. 2-3 in Atlanta. Manning will join his brother, Eli, as 2022 honorees with Eli representing his alma mater of Ole Miss. Peyton guided Tennessee to four consecutive bowl games, three straight top 10 national rankings and the 1997 SEC championship as he captured MVP honors. The Vols topped Auburn, 30-29, in that contest as he threw for 373 yards and four touchdowns, including a game-winning, 73-yarder to Marcus Nash in the fourth quarter.

PAXTON BROOKS NAMED CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST

Punter Paxton Brooks is one of 156 semifinalists named for the 2022 William V. Campbell Trophy, as announced by the National Football Foundation. The Campbell Trophy, considered college football's premier scholar-athlete award, recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership. Brooks is also one of the Vols' best in the classroom, earning first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors following the 2021 season, UT's first player to do so since Mike Terry in 1982. Brooks is a three-time CoSIDA Academic All District honoree and has been named to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll three times, as well. He graduated Summa Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in May 2021 and is on track to earn a Master of Science in kinesiology-biomechanics in December. Brooks was also a member of the prestigious VOLEaders Academy Class of 2020-21 and capped the year-long leadership program with a 12-day cultural exchange trip to Belize. The NFF will announce 12-14 finalists on Oct. 26.

STAFF CONTINUITY

- Tennessee retained nine of its 10 on-field assistant coaches on Josh Heupel's staff, including both coordinators in OC Alex Golesh and DC Tim Banks.
- The only departure was at wide receivers as Kodi Burns took the same role with the NFL's New Orleans Saints. Kelsey Pope was hired as his replacement in the spring. Pope, however, was already in the building last season and worked closely with Burns as a quality control analyst last fall.

NOTEBOOK

PERFECT SEPTEMBER, PERFECT OCTOBER?

- The Vols already secured their first perfect September since 2016, going 4-0 with wins vs. Ball State, Pitt, Akron and Florida.
- Tennessee is seeking its first perfect October since 2006. UT has already defeated two ranked teams this month - LSU and Alabama - while also beating non-conference foe UT Martin. In 2006, the Vols beat Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina in October.

A SWEEP OF THE SEC WEST

- With wins over LSU and Alabama, Tennessee completed its first sweep of the SEC West in the regular season since 2001. The Vols defeated Arkansas, LSU and Alabama in the 2001 regular season.
- Currently, LSU and Alabama are atop the SEC West standings at 4-1 and both are ranked in the top 20. Tennessee put up a combined 92 points on those two teams.

UNDEFEATED VS. NON-CONFERENCE

- Tennessee completed an undefeated 4-0 record against non-conference in the regular season for the first time since 2017. This season, the Vols beat Ball State, No. 17/14 Pitt, Akron and UT Martin. In 2017, Tennessee defeated Georgia Tech, Indiana State, UMass and Southern Miss.

FANT-ASTIC

- Sixth-year senior tight end Princeton Fant has played for three different coaches during his Tennessee career, and he is making the most of one last year of college.
- Fant, who began his career at running back before transitioning to tight end following the 2018 season, is one of the most versatile players in the SEC. He's much more than the Vols' starting tight end. Fant has combined for three rushing touchdowns in his last two games, while lining up at fullback.
- He had a 2-yard touchdown run in the second quarter of the historic victory over No. 3/1 Alabama, and he caught three passes for 24 yards and converted a two-point conversion to tie the game in the fourth quarter following Jalin Hyatt's 78-yard touchdown.
- A week later vs. UT Martin on Oct. 22, Fant rushed for two touchdowns in the first half on a 1-yarder and an 11-yarder. Following his 11-yard run, he then fired a beautiful throwback pass on a 66-yard touchdown to Jalin Hyatt. Fant added one catch for 17 yards in the victory.

MUST SEE VOLTS

- Tennessee has dominated the viewership ratings this fall with three of the Vols' games drawing over 4.5 million.
- Tennessee has hosted ESPN College GameDay twice this season and 11 times in its history. The crew was on hand prior to the Florida game on Sept. 24 and then for the Third Saturday in October contest vs. Alabama. It was the first time since 2002 that the UT campus hosted the show twice in the same season. The Alabama game

IMPACT TRANSFERS

In April 2021, the NCAA ratified a rule change that allowed all athletes who have not yet transferred the ability to do so one time in a college career and be immediately eligible to play. Since January 2021, a total of 15 players from Power Five programs joined the Vols. Since January 2022, four total scholarship transfers have arrived at Tennessee and are members of the 2022 team. Transfers in Josh Heupel's first season who departed and thrived were return specialist/wide receiver Velus Jones Jr. (USC), the SEC Co-Special Teams Player of the Year, and wide receiver JaVonta Payton (Mississippi State). Jones Jr. was selected in the third round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears, and Payton signed with the Arizona Cardinals. FBS transfers on the 2022 team include:

HEAD COACH JOSH HEUPEL

Second Season • @CoachJoshHeupel

- 42-14 Overall Record In Five Seasons
- 14-6 Record at Tennessee, 28-8 Record at UCF
- Coached in three national title games and 18 bowl games
- Won eight conference championships
- Coached multiple Heisman Trophy winners
- FBS Top 10 total, scoring offenses all four seasons as HC
- Only two-time winner of the Steve Spurrier Award
- 2018 National Coach of the Year Finalist
- Ranks Top 10 among HC in NFL Draft picks developed in the last two drafts combined (10 total)
- 2000 National Champion QB and Heisman finalist

Former Oklahoma national champion quarterback and UCF head coach Josh Heupel took the reins of Tennessee football in 2021 and led the proud program to an immediate resurgence. A 2018 National Coach of the Year finalist and two-time recipient of the Steve Spurrier First-Year Coach Award, Heupel was officially announced as the Volunteers' 27th head football coach on Jan. 27, 2021, by Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White, who he worked alongside at UCF.

Taking over a program coming off a 3-7 season and the departure of several players prior to his arrival, Heupel instilled a strong culture built on trust, accountability and relationships. Picked to finish fifth in the SEC East, Heupel guided Tennessee to a 7-6 first-year campaign, including a 4-4 mark in conference play to take third place in the division. The Vols beat six teams by at least 24 points, and Heupel became just the fifth UT head coach in the last 80 years to win seven or more games in his debut season. Of the eight first-year Power Five head coaches in 2021, no coach won more regular season games than Heupel. Tennessee secured the program's 54th all-time bowl berth with a Music City Bowl appearance, and Heupel became the fifth Vol coach in the last 70 years to lead the Vols to a bowl in his debut season.

The Vols shattered eight team single-season records in 2021, including points (511), total offensive yards (6,174), touchdowns (67), point after touchdowns made (67), total first downs (316), rushing first downs (164), fewest interceptions thrown (3) and passing efficiency (167.10).

NFL scouts and executives took notice of Tennessee's development under Heupel. A total of five Vols were called in the 2022 NFL Draft, representing the program's most since 2017 and more than UT produced in its last three drafts combined. Heupel's crop of five draftees ranked top five in the SEC and top 11 in the country. The five picks were the most of any FBS first-year head coach.

NEYLAND STADIUM | SHIELDS-WATKINS FIELD

CAPACITY: 101,915 | OVERALL RECORD AT NEYLAND STADIUM: 483-141-17 (.767)

2022 STADIUM NOTES

100+ YEARS OF NEYLAND STADIUM, SHIELDS-WATKINS FIELD

Tennessee held its centennial celebration of Neyland Stadium Shields-Watkins Field in 2021, and the iconic venue is in its 101st year. During the spring and summer of 2022, Neyland Stadium experienced an upgrade with two new videoboards, including one in the north end zone for the first time. As part of the “My All” Campaign, two new premium areas were installed with the addition of the North End Social Deck below the new videoboard and a new lower-west premium club with enhanced chairback seating. The modernization project brought Neyland Stadium’s capacity to 101,915 for the 2022 season. The stadium previously held a capacity of 102,455 from 2010-21.

THE FUTURE

The UT Board of Trustees in June of 2022 approved a request to adjust the scope and budget of the ongoing Neyland Stadium renovations project originally approved in 2017. That approval brought the overall Phase I budget to $288 million, which will be fully funded. A critical element in the plan is major and necessary upgrades to the south side and perimeter of the stadium, including the widening of concourses, construction of expanded gates and entryways and provision of additional restrooms and concessions areas. The ongoing renovations phase will provide annual deliverables through an anticipated project completion date of Fall 2026.

THE RETURN OF V-O-L-S

For the first time in over a decade, the iconic V-O-L-S letters will rise gloriously on the south end of Neyland Stadium in 2022. Two sets with an orange background and white lettering were installed this summer as part of stadium upgrades under the leadership of Vice Chancellor/ Director of Athletics Danny White. A V-O-L-S history:

Summer 1966

The 8-foot tall backlit VOLS letters—originally with orange lettering and a white background—were installed at the top of the stadium on the south side. From summer 1966 until 1978, they were lit every evening. Beginning in 1978, they were turned off—with the exception of during night football games—as part of an energy conservation program.

Summer 1976

As part of renovations prior to the 1976 season, the design of the letters shifted to white lettering with orange background.

Summer 1999

Neyland Stadium installed its first edition of a videoboard, and the letters are moved to the top of the videoboard. The design of the letters also shifted to orange lettering with white background.

Summer 2009

Due to Neyland Stadium’s videoboard being replaced, the letters were removed entirely from the stadium for the first time since the 1965 season.

November 2010

The version of letters that overlooked Neyland Stadium from 1999 to 2009 were auctioned off to Copper Cellar Family of Restaurants through United Way of Greater Knoxville’s online auction.

“QUOTES”

ABOUT NEYLAND STADIUM

“The big games I played in Neyland Stadium are right up there with the Super Bowl. It is still one of the most electric atmospheres I have ever experienced, and the passion of the fans is what makes the difference.”
- Peyton Manning, Hall of Famer

“It is a remarkable experience. It starts with the Vol Walk down to the stadium, and the energy just builds and builds until you run through the ‘T’ for kickoff.”
- Jerod Mayo, Former Vol and NFL LB

“Take anybody that’s never been to a game in Knoxville and let them experience that with neutral glasses on and they will be blown away. The campus, the Vol Navy, when you pull into town, the stadium, the mascot, the uniforms, the crowd, the fight song, all of it. There is no way you can’t be impressed when you go to a game in Knoxville.”
- Cole Cubelic, ESPN/SEC Network analyst

“The noise was a constant, oppressive force. I could literally feel it on my skin. But these fans weren’t just loud on the first drive. Or just on 3rd down. Or just in the fourth quarter. It was every. single. play.”
- Ty Darlington, former Oklahoma offensive lineman (2015)

“Last year when we went to play Tennessee in Neyland Stadium, that was probably the best game experience I’ve had and probably will ever have. That’s a different type of loud. I can’t even describe it. It was unbelievable.”
- Baker Mayfield, former Oklahoma quarterback (2015)

“It’s got to be Tennessee! That night in that stadium with the orange and Rocky Top -- that’s my favorite!”
- Lee Corso, ESPN College Football Analyst

Vols Bounce Ball State In Opener, 59-10

Quarterback Hendon Hooker accounted for 233 yards of total offense and four touchdowns as Tennessee rolled past Ball State, 59-10, in its season opener. It marked the second straight year that the Vols opened on a Thursday night. UT eclipsed the 45-point mark for the fourth straight game. That feat matched a school record set over the final four games of the 1993 season. The first two plays of the season couldn't have gone any better for Tennessee. Tamarion McDonald, making the start at the STAR position, intercepted Ball State on the first play of the game and returned it to the 23-yard line. On the Vols' first play from scrimmage, Hooker then found Jalin Hyatt for a 23-yard touchdown. Nine different receivers were the beneficiaries of passes from Hooker on the night. Hooker accounted for back-to-back rushing scores in the first half, representing his first multi-rushing touchdown game as a Vol. UT took a 38-0 lead into halftime and scored 45 unanswered to start. Hooker and the starters were lifted after the first series of the third quarter. The Vols scored on their first four drives and were 7-of-7 in redzone chances. Kamal Hadden added an interception in the second quarter. Warren Burrell, Christian Charles and Aaron Beasley each led Tennessee with eight tackles apiece.

#24 Vols Knock Off #17 Pittsburgh In Overtime

Quarterback Hendon Hooker found Cedric Tillman open in the end zone for a 28-yard touchdown in overtime, and the Big Orange defense came up with a monumental stop as 24th-ranked Tennessee took down No. 17 Pittsburgh on the road, 34-27, capping a thrilling edition of the Johnny Majors Classic at Acisure Field. The victory marked Tennessee's first road triumph over a top-20 non-conference foe since defeating No. 6 Miami (Fla.), 10-6, on Nov. 8, 2003. The Vols fell behind 10-0 in the first six minutes of the game but settled down and outscored the Panthers, 24-7, the remainder of the half to take a lead. Safety Trevon Flowers came up with a big interception in the end zone to prevent a Pitt score, and Tyler Baron forced a fumble that led to a Chase McGrath 37-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. Tennessee's defense responded in the second half as Pitt quarterback starter Kedon Slovis exited due to injury. After a scoreless third quarter and multiple special teams miscues from Tennessee, Pitt rallied to tie the game after Flowers muffed a punt at the UT 39. On the Vols' first OT possession, Hooker escaped pressure, stepped up in the pocket and found Tillman for what proved to be the game-winning score. On the Panthers' OT possession, Flowers redeemed himself, sacking QB Nick Patti for a 12-yard loss on third down. Pitt turned it over on downs on its next play. Tennessee racked up four sacks, nine tackles for loss and 16 quarterback hurries on the day. Linebacker Aaron Beasley led all tacklers with 14, while Baron and defensive end Byron Young notched two tackles for loss.

#15/16 Volunteers Zap Zips, 63-6

In front of a sold-out Neyland Stadium crowd of 101,915 celebrating the 50th anniversary of the iconic venue's first night game, No. 15/16 Tennessee piled up 676 yards of total offense en route to a 63-6 thrashing of Akron—good for the highest point total and victory margin of the Josh Heupel era. QB Hendon Hooker was stellar in the opening 30 minutes and the first drive of the third quarter before retiring to the home sideline, ending the evening with 298 yards and two scores. The Vols scored 42 unanswered, including 35 in the first half. The first half was capped on a five-play, 80-yard drive that ended with Hooker finding Jalin Hyatt for the second time on the evening. Hyatt shined with five receptions for a career-best 166 yards and touchdowns of 57- and 48-yards. Defensively, the Vols blanked Akron in the first half and didn't allow points until 7:35 remained in the third period. The Zips were held to 276 yards of total offense, including just 35 yards on the ground. The Big Orange had 11 tackles for loss, including four sacks. Freshman linebacker Elijah Herring had two of those quarterback takedowns to lead the team, while fellow linebacker Jeremy Banks was tops in total stops with five. Nine different players registered at least one tackle for loss.

#11 Tennessee Takes Down #20 Gators, 38-33

Redshirt junior cornerback Kamal Hadden's game-ending interception preserved a hard-earned, 38-33 victory for No. 11 Tennessee over No. 20 Florida and unleashed a jubilant celebration from a sell-out, checkered crowd of 101,915 at Neyland Stadium. The Gators executed an onside kick after scoring a late touchdown, recovered at their own 47 with 16 seconds left and quickly moved to the UT 37. With seven seconds remaining and quarterback Anthony Richardson looking toward the end zone, senior Vols defensive end Byron Young pressured him into an errant pass attempt that fell into the awaiting hands of Hadden as the clock was expiring. The Vols put up 576 total yards—their most ever in the series—and Tennessee opened a season 4-0 for the first time since 2016. Redshirt senior quarterback Hendon Hooker had a sensational performance for the Big Orange, finishing with a career-best 461 total yards (349 passing, 112 rushing) to pace the Tennessee offense. With top target Cedric Tillman out of the game due to injury suffered the week prior, redshirt junior wideout Bru McCoy delivered his first career 100-yard performance with 102 on five catches with one touchdown. UT running backs Jabari Small and Jaylen Wright scored rushing touchdowns, with Small tallying a season-high 90 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, Hadden was a co-leader for the Vols in tackles, tying redshirt-senior linebacker Jeremy Banks with seven. Young had four stops to go along with four quarterback hurries on a night in which his squad recorded 13.

#8 Vols Dominate All Phases in 40-13 Rout of #25 LSU

From the opening kickoff it was all Tennessee as the eighth-ranked Volunteers picked up their third ranked victory of the season, dominating 25th-ranked LSU, 40-13, at Tiger Stadium. Tennessee posted 503 yards of total offense and did so with balance, picking up 272 rushing yards and 239 passing yards. The defense made critical plays when it needed to as the Vols forced LSU into turnovers on the opening kickoff and their last play from scrimmage while stuffing all three Tiger fourth down plays. Redshirt-senior quarterback Hendon Hooker was marvelous yet again, tossing two touchdowns to Jalin Hyatt and rushing for 56 yards on 10 attempts. Jabari Small, the bell cow of the rushing frenzy, accumulated 127 yards on 22 attempts and punched in two rushing touchdowns. The Memphis, Tennessee, native eclipsed 100 yards on the ground for the first time in 2022 and has scored six times out of the backfield. Bru McCoy had a career day, gaining 140 receiving yards and passing the century mark for the second time in as many games. He caught seven passes and recorded 70 yards after the catch in the victory. Hyatt matched McCoy's effort in the slot, reeling in four passes for 63 yards and a pair of house calls in Baton Rouge. The strong defensive effort was highlighted from an impressive day by edge rusher Byron Young who recorded 2.5 sacks, all coming in clutch spots, with the most critical being the 4th and 10 takedown of LSU quarterback Jayden Daniels for an eight-yard loss that allowed Tennessee to get in field goal position at the end of the first half. Senior safety Trevon Flowers capped the victory with his second interception of the season with nine seconds left in the contest, snaring the back-corner fade in the endzone.

#6 Vols Take Down #3 Tide As Time Expires, 52-49

Redshirt senior Chase McGrath kicked a 40-yard field goal as time expired to deliver No. 6/8 Tennessee an epic 52-49 victory over No. 3/1 Alabama in front of a capacity orange-out crowd of 101,915 at Neyland Stadium on a Tennessee Saturday night. The Vols, who scored their most points ever in the 105-game series, improved to 6-0 overall for the first time since 1998 and secured their first triumph over the Crimson Tide since 2006. The 52 points scored established a new program record for most points scored against an AP Top 25 opponent and were the most surrendered by an Alabama defense since 1907. After an electric back-and-forth affair was tied at 49 with overtime looming, UT started its game-winning possession at its own 32 with 15 seconds left in the contest. With completions of 18 and 27 yards to senior Ramel Keyton and redshirt junior Bru McCoy, respectively, redshirt senior quarterback Hendon Hooker moved the Big Orange down the field expeditiously into field goal range and opened the door for a possible victory in regulation. As McGrath's kick cleared the crossbar, Big Orange waves of fans spilled out of the stands and covered Shields-Watkins Field as the strains of Rocky Top and Dixieland Delight provided a musical soundtrack to the joyous celebration that included the taking down of both goal posts. In the win, junior wideout Jalin Hyatt pulled in an SEC record-tying five touchdown receptions while racking up 207 yards on six catches—representing the sixth most receiving yards in a single game in program history. Hooker produced another masterpiece through the air, setting career-highs with 385 passing yards and five touchdowns to extend his streak of games with a touchdown pass to 18 which tied VFL Heath Shuler's school record. Hooker's stat line marked the most touchdowns and yards by a Volunteer QB in 105 meetings with the Crimson Tide.

#3 Vols Cruise to 65-24 Win on Homecoming

After scoring a program-record 52 points in the first half, the No. 3/4 Tennessee Volunteers cruised to a 65-24 win over UT Martin on Homecoming in front of a sold-out crowd of 101,915 in Neyland Stadium. The Vols amassed 696 yards of total offense—the second-most in program history—and scored nine touchdowns, and Tennessee's 65 points were the most since the Vols put up a modern-era, program-record 70 points against Louisiana Monroe on Sept. 23, 2000. Tennessee finished with 495 yards and five scores through the air, its most in nearly a decade, while adding 201 yards and four touchdowns on the ground as six different Vols found the checkerboards against the Skyhawks. Quarterback Hendon Hooker etched his name into the record books on a beautiful day on Rocky Top, as the Greensboro, North Carolina, native recorded a touchdown pass in his 19th straight game, setting a new program-record by passing VFL Heath Shuler's previous record of 18 (1992-94). Reigning National Player of the Week Jalin Hyatt posted another big-time performance, improving his FBS-leading marks in receiving touchdowns (12) and 40-plus yard receiving plays (8) on the day as he finished with 174 yards on seven catches. Hyatt wasn't the only receiver to eclipse the century mark on the day, as freshman Squirrel White finished with 122 yards and a touchdown on five receptions—becoming the first Vol freshman to surpass 100 yards receiving in a game since 2013. Redshirt senior tight end Princeton Fant had a career day in multiple facets, accounting for a personal-best three touchdowns (two rushing, one passing) in the first half. In recognition of the 50th anniversary of Title IX, the Vols donned Summit Blue accessories against Pat Summitt's alma mater, and Tennessee's newest live mascot, Smokey XI, was formally introduced to a packed Neyland Stadium in the second quarter.
