CALIPARI ADDS CHUCK MARTIN AS ASSISTANT COACH

The Kentucky men's basketball team has rounded out its coaching staff with the hiring of Chuck Martin as assistant coach, head coach John Calipari announced on July 6.

"Chuck is a veteran in this profession who will be a great benefit to our team and staff," Calipari said. "He has ties not only to me when we were on staff at Memphis together but also to several other members of our staff. Chuck is an established coach who will be our assistant coach and recruiting coordinator, looking to open new doors to make our successful recruiting even stronger."

Martin adds more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Wildcats' staff, most recently serving as an assistant this past season on Dana Altman's staff at Oregon, where he worked with All-Pac-12 First Team pick N'Faly Dante. Prior to Oregon, Martin spent five seasons on staff at South Carolina, serving as assistant coach for four seasons and another as associate head coach. With the Gamecocks, Martin helped develop 2018 Southeastern Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year and All-SEC First Team selection Chris Silva along with 2019 SEC Sixth Man of the Year Hassani Gravett.

Martin will be tasked with providing strategies to help advance the program while offering additional counsel on all aspects of the program including recruiting, scouting, player development and special projects as assigned by the head coach. As recruiting coordinator, he will independently manage official and unofficial visits and be responsible for all recruiting strategy for the program.

From 2014-17, Martin, who has been named one of the 50 most impactful high major assistants, was an assistant at Indiana, where he helped the Hoosiers to two NCAA Tournament selections and a Big Ten championship in 2016. Prior to his time in Bloomington, Martin spent a year as a scout with the Oklahoma City Thunder after he was head coach at Marist from 2008-13 and an assistant on Calipari's staff at Memphis from 2006-08. While serving under Calipari at Memphis, the Tigers went 71-6, reaching the 2008 NCAA Championship game and having three players, including first overall pick Derrick Rose, selected in the 2008 NBA Draft.

Martin also had prior stops as an assistant coach at St. John's (2004-06), Drexel (2001-04), UMass (2000-01) and Manhattan (1999-2000). At both Drexel and UMass, Martin served under current Kentucky associate to the head coach James "Bruiser" Flint.

Martin, who grew up in Bronx, New York, graduated from Monmouth with a bachelor's degree in communications. He and his wife, Lee, are the parents of daughter Ashley-Monet and sons Jordan and Justin.

KENTUCKY SET TO HOST MIAMI IN INAUGURAL ACC/SEC CHALLENGE

Kentucky will host Miami, a 2023 Final Four participant, in the inaugural ACC/SEC Challenge on Nov. 28 at 7:30 p.m. ET inside of Rupp Arena at Central Bank Center.

It will mark just the fifth meeting between the two schools and the first in the John Calipari era. UK is 3-1 overall in the series but fell 73-67 in the last matchup. Miami edged the Cats inside of Rupp Arena on Dec. 6, 2008. This will be the fourth time in five matchups the series will take place in Lexington.

The 2023 slate of ACC/SEC Challenge games will mark the first season of the event between the Southeastern Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Kentucky boasts the nation's No. 1 recruiting class with seven first-year signees including five top-25 prospects in Aaron Bradshaw, Rob Dillingham, Justin Edwards, Reed Sheppard and D.J. Wagner. Jordan Burks, who led OTE in points per game, and Joey Hart, who captured a state high school crown, were spring additions.

Additionally, Kentucky signed one of the top graduate transfers in Tre Mitchell, who has played in 102 career games, making 92 starts and has scored more than 1,390 career points.

The Cats will also return Antonio Reeves, who averaged 14.4 points per game a season ago and was named the SEC's Sixth Man of the Year. Sophomores Ugonna Onyenso and Adou Thiero also return. Onyenso had a per-40-minute average of 5.7 blocks per game, while Thiero played nearly 10 minutes a game and was a spark off the bench.

CATS ADD TRE MITCHELL TO 2023-24 ROSTER

Kentucky men's basketball head coach John Calipari announced the addition of graduate transfer Tre Mitchell to the Wildcats' 2023-24 roster. Mitchell, a 6-foot-9, 225-pound forward from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, is the eighth newcomer to join the Wildcats, joining Aaron Bradshaw, Jordan Burks, Rob Dillingham, Justin Edwards, Joey Hart, Reed Sheppard and DJ Wagner.

Mitchell, who also attended Texas and Massachusetts earlier in his collegiate career, has played in 102 career games, including 92 starts, totaling 1,398 points and 597 rebounds.

Mitchell, who is the Cats' first graduate transfer since Kellan Grady joined UK for the 2021-22 season, averaged 30.0 minutes per contest while starting 32 of 34 games for the Mountaineers this past season. He logged 11.7 points and 5.5 rebounds per game while shooting 47% from the field. Mitchell also totaled 61 assists, 28 steals and 21 blocks a season ago.

Prior to West Virginia, Mitchell spent the 2021-22 season at Texas after playing his first two years at UMass. As a junior for the Longhorns, Mitchell played in 24 games, including 17 starts, averaging 8.7 points and 4.0 boards per game. He shot 47.8% from the field while scoring in double figures in nine contests.

Mitchell played in 44 games, starting all but one, over his two seasons with the Minutemen. A two-time All-Atlantic 10 selection, Mitchell averaged 18.0 points and 7.2 rebounds per game, adding 52 blocks and 47 steals over the 44 contests. Mitchell ranked second in the Atlantic 10 with 19.6 points per game as a freshman and followed that up with 18.8 points per game as a sophomore.

After attending Elizabeth Forward High School in Elizabeth, Pennsylvania, as a freshman and sophomore, Mitchell played his final two seasons at Woodstock Academy in Woodstock, Connecticut. Mitchell scored more than 1,000 points in his two seasons at Woodstock, earning Connecticut Gatorade Player of the Year honors in 2019.

CONFERENCE OPPONENTS ANNOUNCED FOR 2024

The Southeastern Conference revealed its 2023-24 home-and-away designations for the league schedule on Monday. The Kentucky men's basketball team will once again play an 18-game league schedule with nine contests inside Rupp Arena at Central Bank Center and nine more on the road.

As announced prior to the 2015-16 season, Kentucky's permanent home-and-away opponents include Florida, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. This upcoming season, the Wildcats will also play Arkansas and Mississippi State twice in the regular season. It's the second straight year the Cats and Hogs will tangle twice.

Kentucky's league home schedule will include the five aforementioned teams as well as Alabama, Georgia, Ole Miss and Missouri. UK's road matchups will come against Auburn, LSU, South Carolina and Texas A&M in addition to Arkansas and Mississippi State and the three permanent home-and-home opponents.

Six SEC teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament a season ago and the league led the nation with three teams advancing to the Sweet 16. It marked the fourth time in the last nine tournaments that the SEC had three or more teams in the Sweet 16.

UK's home-and-home slate features five intriguing matchups. The Wildcats will take on Arkansas who the Cats split the series with a season ago with both road teams taking home a victory. UK's Antonio Reeves scored 37 points in the regular-season finale for the Wildcats. This marks the first time in the history of the series that the teams will meet twice in the regular-season in consecutive years. Kentucky leads the all-time series by a 34-14 mark.

The Cats have won each of the last four meetings with the Gators and have captured wins in nine of the last 10 overall. Kentucky is 109-41 all-time against Florida and is 23-9 in the series under John Calipari.

Kentucky and Mississippi State will meet in a home-and-home series for the first time since 2018-19. The Wildcats prevailed in down-to-the-wire matchup in Starkville, Mississippi last season by a 71-68 margin. UK leads the all-time series by a 101-21 margin, including 16-1 under Calipari.

UK has played Tennessee more than any other program in its history and owns a 160-77 all-time series record. Kentucky swept the Volunteers last season, marking the first time the Cats were victorious in both regular-season matchups since 2011-12.

Kentucky leads the all-time series with Vanderbilt 155-49, but the Commodores took two of three meetings a season ago, including an opening-round win in the SEC Tournament. Kentucky is 24-6 all-time in the series under Calipari and prior to last season owned a 13-game winning streak.

CASON WALLACE, CHRIS LIVINGSTON SELECTED IN 2023 NBA DRAFT

Two members of the 2022-23 Kentucky men's basketball team were selected on head coach John Calipari's annual "graduation night" when Cason Wallace and Chris Livingston heard their names called in the NBA Draft.

Wallace was selected 10th by the Dallas Mavericks before his draft rights were traded to the Oklahoma City Thunder, while Livingston was taken in the second round with the 58th pick by the Milwaukee Bucks.

In 14 seasons with Calipari at the helm, Kentucky has churned out three No. 1 selections, 35 first-rounders, 23 lottery picks and 47 total players in the NBA Draft. The 47 draft picks are 12 more than the next closest school (Duke).

With Wallace's selection in the opening round, UK has now had at least one player taken in the first round in each of the last 14 drafts under Calipari. That's the longest streak in the modern draft era (since 1966).

Wallace was the third Wildcat selected by the Mavericks, following Dirk Minniefield (1983, 2nd round, 33rd overall pick) and Jamal Mashburn (1993, 1st round, fourth overall pick).

Wallace was an All-Southeastern Conference Freshman Team selection after ranking among the league leaders in assists per game (2nd), assist-to-turnover ratio (4th) and steals per game (4th). He found a variety of ways to impact the game, including finishing third in program history for a freshman with 63 steals. His eight steals against Michigan State in the Champions Classic tied for the most in a single game in UK history.

Wallace averaged 11.7 points, 3.7 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 2.0 steals per game in 32 appearances. He had 17 double-figure scoring games and led the team in steals in 19 contests. Wallace had 21 points, four assists, two steals and a career-high nine rebounds against Kansas State in the NCAA Tournament in his final game for the Wildcats.

Livingston was picked in the second round with the 58th selection by the Milwaukee Bucks. He is the sixth Kentucky player to be taken by Milwaukee and the first since Doron Lamb was taken 42nd overall in 2012.

Livingston played in all 34 contests, including 26 starts, for the Wildcats in his freshman season, averaging 6.3 points and 4.2 rebounds per contest. The Akron, Ohio, native played 22.4 minutes per game, earning Southeastern Conference All-Freshman Team honors after coming on during the stretch run for Kentucky. Livingston notched seven double-figure scoring games, including four in a five-game stretch in February. He was named SEC Freshman of the Week on Feb. 20 after averaging 12.5 points, 7.5 rebounds and two assists per game in wins at Mississippi State and against No. 10 Tennessee.

The Wildcats have had more top-10 picks, more lottery selections and more first-round picks in the Calipari era than any other team in the country.

Kentucky has had 138 players drafted 140 times in its illustrious history with 60 players selected in the opening round. Calipari is the only coach to have multiple players selected in 16 consecutive NBA Drafts, dating back to his time at Memphis.

Of the 34 players at UK in the Calipari era who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman seasons, 30 have been first-round draft picks.

REEVES LEADS TRIO OF RETURNERS

UK's returning players are led by graduate student Antonio Reeves, who averaged 14.4

points per game a season ago and was named the Southeastern Conference's Sixth Man of the Year.

Sophomores Ugonna Onyenso and Adou Thiero also return. Onyenso had a per-40-minute average of 5.7 blocks per game, while Thiero played nearly 10 minutes a game and was a spark off the bench.

JOEY HART JOINS WILDCATS

Kentucky men's basketball head coach John Calipari announced on June 17 the addition of Joey Hart to his No. 1-ranked recruiting class for the 2023-24 season. Hart, a 6-foot-5, 180-pound guard from Linton, Indiana, is the seventh freshman to join the Wildcats, joining Aaron Bradshaw, recently-added Jordan Burks, Rob Dillingham, Justin Edwards, Reed Sheppard and DJ Wagner.

Hart averaged 23.6 points and shot better than 40% from 3-point range while helping Linton-Stockton High School to the Class 2A State Finals this past season. While playing on the Under Armour grassroots circuit last spring and summer, the three-star prospect shot 45% from deep, averaging 19.8 points per contest.

JAMAL MURRAY WINS NBA CHAMPIONSHIP

When the Denver Nuggets captured their first NBA Championship in franchise history on June 12, Jamal Murray became one of 17 players from the University of Kentucky to earn a world championship.

Murray joined the likes of Frank Ramsey (seven-time winner), Lou Tsioropoulos (two-time winner), Rajon Rondo (two-time winner), Anthony Davis, Jodie Meeks, Derek Anderson, Antoine Walker, Nazr Mohammed, Tayshaun Prince, Rick Robey, Kevin Grevey, Larry Steele, Dan Swartz, Cliff Hagan, Paul Noel and Pat Riley as the other Cats to win an NBA title.

Murray averaged 21.4 points, 10 assists and 6.2 rebounds per game during the NBA Finals. He became the first player in NBA history to amass at least 10 assists in each of his first four NBA Finals contests.

UK ADDS JORDAN BURKS

Kentucky men's basketball head coach John Calipari added another piece to his No. 1 ranked recruiting class for 2023-24 with the signing of Jordan Burks. Burks, a forward from Decatur, Alabama, is the sixth freshman to ink with the Wildcats, joining Aaron Bradshaw, Robert Dillingham, Justin Edwards, Reed Sheppard and DJ Wagner who all signed in the fall.

Burks was an explosive scorer at Overtime Elite and led the league with 27.1 points per game in 2022-23. He also contributed 7.5 rebounds, 2.9 assists and 1.4 steals per game. Burks scored 20 or more points in all but one game and had a season-high of 42 against OTE competition.

Burks suited up for Hillcrest Prep with Overtime Elite and connected on 46.7% of his field-goal attempts, 26.7% from 3-point range and 67% from the charity stripe. Burks began his high school career at Heritage Christian in his hometown and also suited up for Southern California Academy (California) before his move to OTE. In the full 40-game schedule for Hillcrest this season Burks averaged 28.2 points per game and connected on 41% from 3-point range.

He is a consensus three-star prospect and measured at 6-foot-9 and 190 pounds with OTE.

JOHN WELCH NAMED ASSISTANT COACH

Longtime NBA assistant coach John Welch will join the Kentucky men's basketball staff as its newest assistant coach in 2023-24.

"John Welch has been involved in every level of basketball and been an important part of the development of NBA careers for guys like Carmelo (Anthony), Pau Gasol, DeMarcus Cousins, Blake Griffin and Brook Lopez," UK head coach John Calipari said. "He loves the game and will be a tremendous asset to our young players and our staff. John has worked closely for decades with Vance Walberg, who developed the dribble-drive offense, and was a pioneer of bringing it to the NBA. With the strength of our guards and perimeter players we need to get back to that style of play. John will be involved heavily in our offensive strategy and will be our lead coach in on-court player development. We're excited to have him join our program."

Welch has served as an assistant coach in the NBA for nearly 20 years and spent almost 10 years on a collegiate staff prior to moving into the professional ranks. He has worked under notable coaches such as Doc Rivers, George Karl, Jason Kidd, Hubie Brown and Jerry Tarkanian.

He will be tasked as serving as a vital part of Calipari's offensive strategy, while being a primary contributor to UK's scouting and game-planning. Furthermore, Welch will be integral in the development and implementation of all individual on-court player training. This will include individual workouts and film sessions to improve skills, decision making and efficiency.

In his last NBA role, he was a part of the Los Angeles Clippers staff that advanced to the playoffs twice, including moving on to the Western Conference semifinals in 2020.

Prior to his stop in Los Angeles, he spent time with the Sacramento Kings (2015-16), where he coached former UK stars Cousins, Willie Cauley-Stein and Rajon Rondo. He was also a part of staffs with the Brooklyn Nets (2013-15), Denver Nuggets (2005-13) and Memphis Grizzlies (2002-05).

While in Brooklyn, the Nets made consecutive playoff appearances. Under Karl in Denver, the Nuggets reached eight consecutive playoff appearances, including advancing to the 2009 Western Conference Finals and claiming three first-place finishes in the Northwest Division.

During his tenure in the NBA, Welch was a part of a staff that advanced to the NBA Playoffs 15 times, including a stretch of 12 consecutive seasons.

THREE WILDCATS HEADLINE ALL-NBA TEAMS

After leading the nation with total players on NBA opening-day rosters, players appearing in the 2023 NBA Playoffs and the most NBA All-Stars of any collegiate program in the country for the 2022-23 season, it should be of no surprise that three former Kentucky men's basketball players headlined the All-NBA Teams. Shai Gilgeous-Alexander was a first-team honoree, while De'Aaron Fox and Julius Randle were third-team picks.

Since 2015, Kentucky has had eight players earn 14 All-NBA honors. The number of individual players and the number of selections lead all other programs during that time frame. Gilgeous-Alexander and Fox earned the first honors of their careers, while Randle was selected for the second time in his career. All three players were also NBA All-Stars this season.

Gilgeous-Alexander finished the regular season as the league's fourth leading scorer, averaging a career-high 31.4 points per game. Gilgeous-Alexander also contributed 5.5 assists and 4.8 rebounds per game for the youthful Oklahoma City Thunder.

Fox started all 73 regular-season games in which he appeared for the Sacramento Kings who advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2006. He averaged 25.0 points, 6.1 assists, 4.2 rebounds and 1.1 steals per game in his sixth NBA season. Fox was tabbed to the 2023 NBA All-Star Game roster, the first selection of his career and was voted as the league's inaugural winner of the Clutch Player of the Year honor.

Randle averaged a career-high 25.1 points per game, while also contributing 10.0 rebounds and 4.1 assists per game. He produced 40 double-doubles in 77 total games. Randle had four 40-plus point efforts, including producing the first 40-point, 15-rebound game for the Knicks since Patrick Ewing in 1996.

A total of 27 players were on NBA opening-day rosters (including two-way and inactive players) that played and finished their college basketball careers at Kentucky was more than any other college program in the country. Duke, with 24, was the only other school with more than 20 players in the NBA. Kentucky also led the league with 17 players on NBA playoff rosters.

Calipari's players are not only reaching the next level, but they are also succeeding when they do. Since 2010, 10 Calipari-coached players have garnered 32 All-Star selections. Nine of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (Devin Booker, DeMarcus Cousins, Fox, Gilgeous-Alexander, Randle, Derrick Rose, Wall, Davis, and Towns), and 15 players from Calipari's first 13 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Among all active collegiate coaches, Calipari has more total players (10) and more total All-Star selections (32) than any other coach. Only Dean Smith (12) had more former players earn an All-Star nod. Kentucky had four selections in 2023 which was more than any other program.

NO. 1 RECRUITING CLASS

Kentucky men's basketball once again will welcome a standout recruiting class when for the 2023-24 season. Highly-touted prospects Aaron Bradshaw, Rob Dillingham, Justin Edwards, Reed Sheppard and D.J. Wagner have continued to impress since signing with the Cats in November.

The Wildcats have signed more top 25 players under Calipari's leadership than any other school. Nearly a quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects nationally over the past 15 classes have signed with the Cats. The 2023 class is no different.

In nine of the 15 years, Calipari has inked a No. 1 class by at least one of the three major recruiting publications. With the additions, Kentucky has signed 72 top-50 recruits, 57 top-25 players and 33 top-10 players (according to Rivals) in what will now be Calipari's 15 recruiting classes at Kentucky.

KENTUCKY BASKETBALL HEAD COACH

JOHN CALIPARI

A “players-first” coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 58 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his 31-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up more than 800 on-court victories, 22 NCAA Tournament on-court appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

From UMass to Memphis and now Kentucky, Calipari’s career has been successful throughout, but his most recent run in Lexington has been the best stretch of his career. During Calipari’s first 14 seasons at UK, he has led all coaches in NCAA Tournament wins (32), Final Fours (four), Elite Eights (seven) and Sweet 16s (eight).

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball’s first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at UMass, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport’s greatest program at Kentucky, he totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari’s on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped more than 55 young men realize their dreams and reach the NBA level with 58 players earning NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari’s help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are more than any other coach, and he has had 47 players drafted during his first 14 years at Kentucky, including 35 first-round picks.

Calipari’s players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 32 All-Star selections -- all since 2010 -- with Anthony Davis winning the game’s MVP honor in 2017. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Eight of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (14 times), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year and 15 players from Calipari’s first 14 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams. He is the only coach in history to have a player win each of the NBA’s major honors: MVP, Rookie of the Year, Most Improved Player, Sixth Man of the Year and Clutch Player of the Year.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80%, Calipari has stressed academics. Seventeen of his last 20 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor’s degrees, and all 29 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including five players who earned their degree in just three years. Calipari’s teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

Calipari has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and beyond. He has had a particular passion to assist those impacted by natural disasters. For instance, in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with telethons in 2012, raising $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, in 2017 for victims of Hurricane Harvey, played a leading role in the “Kentucky United” efforts that generated more than $5 million for victims of devastating tornadoes in Western Kentucky in 2021, and raised nearly $4 million with the Kentucky Flood Relief Telethon and open practice at Rupp Arena in 2022.

Calipari launched his foundation in 2012, and since then the foundation has worked with several key partners and donated more than $1.5 million, a figure that does not include matching funds that have been contributed from individuals and corporations. In 2013, Calipari initiated hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend has generated millions of dollars for charity since its inception.

In 2019, when federal workers were without pay due to a government shutdown, he, his wife and his foundation assisted workers with financial help and grocery gift cards. He and his wife, Ellen, teamed up with Fayette County Public Schools to help families in need during the COVID-19 pandemic.

His latest efforts include spearheading the creation of the John McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative, a nationwide coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship. Participants in the initiative will be known as MLI Future Leaders.

He was awarded the Jefferson Award for Outstanding Public Service in Sports by Multiplying Good in 2022. For more than 50 years, Multiplying Good has honored those who put others first. Those receiving the Jefferson Award are empowered to do more, while their stories of extraordinary public service inspire others to action. It is an award that underscores impact.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men’s U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo. Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller “Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out,” Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that “it’s never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it’s about how high you bounce back.”
