NEED TO KNOW

Kentucky has opened the Mark Pope era scoring in bunches, totaling at least 100 points in each of the team's first two games. It is the first time UK has crossed the century mark in its opening two contests since the 1978-79 season.

The 103 points scored in the season-opener against the Raiders were the most in an opener since tallying 108 vs. Marist on Nov. 11. 2011. It also marked the most points in a head coach's debut since Tubby Smith's Cats had 88 points on Nov. 20, 1997 vs. Morehead State.

Kentucky is averaging 26.5 assists per game through its first two games, with an assist rate of 68.8% on made baskets. That total leads the SEC and ranks third in the nation. The Cats had 30 assists in their opening win over Wright State, just the 19th time in program history with 30 helpers, and the first time ever in the first game of the season. UK's seven turnovers in that game were tied for the program's fewest all time in a game with 30 or more assists.

After leading the nation in 3-point shooting last season, Koby Brea has picked up right where he left off in 2024-25. The grad transfer is 10 of 12 from deep through two games, good for an 83.3 percent clip which ranks him first in the SEC and fifth in Division I. Brea's six made 3s against Bucknell tied a single game career high. He is the second player in school history to make at least four 3s in their first two games at UK, joining All-American Antonio Reeves.

Amari Williams has begun his UK career with consecutive double-doubles. Williams is just the seventh player in program history to begin a UK career with two straight double-doubles.

Jaxson Robinson has been an early-favorite for postseason honors. Robinson was a third-team selection on the All-Southeastern Conference squads by both the media and the coaches. He is also on the Naismith and Wooden Award preseason watch lists.

Hitting the Boards in Win Over Bison

After being challenged by head coach Mark Pope during the week's practices, the Wildcats pounded the boards and snared 57 rebounds, including 22 on the offensive glass.

It was the most rebounds for the Wildcats since hauling in 59 vs. Arizona State on Nov. 28. 2016.

Amari Williams led the way with 14 boards. He is just the fourth player in program history to tally 13 or more rebounds in each of his first two games with the program. The others are Dan Issel, Julius Randle and Oscar Tshiebwe.

Kentucky's success on the glass resulted in 19 second-chance points.

Some additional notes from the win:

• Koby Brea drained a career-high-tying six 3-pointers. He has made 10 of 12 (83.3%) in two games

• Kerr Kriisa tied his career high with 12 assists. He added six points and four rebounds in the win

• UK dished out an assist on 23 of 38 made field goals, an assist rate of 60.5%. Through two games, UK has an assist rate of 68.8%

The Century "Mark"

Kentucky opened the season by scoring 100 or more points in consecutive games. It marked the first time in 46 years, since the 1978-79 season, that UK hit the century mark in each of the first two outings.

During his two-year active playing career at Kentucky, Pope was a part of 13 100-point outings for the Wildcats. The 1994-95 squad hit the mark four times, while the 1995-96 National Champions had nine such games.

A Flying Start to the Pope Era

Kentucky won big in its first regular-season contest under head coach Mark Pope, taking down Wright State, 103-62, to begin the 2024-25 campaign.

Six Wildcats scored in double figures in the contest, led by 21 points from Otega Oweh and 18 from Koby Brea. Kentucky saw six players finish with at least three assists in the victory, while three had five assists.

UK shot 60 percent from the field and assisted on 30 of 39 made field goals, a 76.9 percent assist rate.

Some nuggets from the Pope opener

• The 41-point margin of victory in Pope's debut is the same as his jersey #41 from his playing days at UK

• 103 points are the most for a Kentucky coach in his debut game. The previous high was 88 points vs. Morehead State in Tubby Smith's first game in 1997

• 103 points are the most in a season opener for the Wildcats since Nov. 11, 2011 when Kentucky scored 108 vs. Marist

• The Cats are 8-0 in a head coach's debut dating back to Adolph Rupp's first game in 1930

The Mark Pope Era Begins

When his alma mater came calling,  $\operatorname{Mark}\nolimits$  Pope knew there was no place like home.

Pope, a captain of the University of Kentucky's 1996 National Championship team, returned to Lexington as the 23rd head coach of Kentucky's storied men's basketball program on April 12.

• Pope is coming off a 23-11 season in 2023-24. It was BYU's first season in the Big 12 Conference and the Cougars' 10-8 league record featured victories over No. 7 Kansas, No. 11 Baylor and No. 24 lowa State

• He played professional basketball from 1997-2005, including stints with Indiana, Milwaukee Bucks, New York Knicks and Denver Nuggets

From Lex, to the League, and Back Again

Mark Pope brings a unique background and experience to Kentucky as the 23rd head coach of the men's basketball program.

• Mark Pope is one of 49 head coaches at the NCAA Division I level that is the head coach at his alma mater

• Mark Pope is one of 19 head coaches at the NCAA Division I level that played in the NBA

Old But New

Mark Pope's inaugural roster features a bevy of experience led by six players in their fifth year of collegiate basketball. The roster also has a senior, a junior and sophomore, and three freshmen.

The roster is one of the most experienced in the country, but not a single player enters the season having appeared in a game for Kentucky.

Entering the 2024-25 campaing, UK's veteran lineup had played in 845 career games, played 20,741 minutes, made 586 starts, scored 7,900 points and sunk 1,033 3-pointers at a 37.0% rate.

That was more than any team in the history of Kentucky basketball entering a season (minutes statistics available through the 1964-65 season).

Kentucky's other most-veteran squads were the 2021-22 squad which played 13,385 total minutes and scored 5,203 career points. Pope's 1996 team -- hailed as one of the greatest college basketball teams of all time -- had career point totals of 5,232. The 2002-03 squad had 559 games to its roster.

Conversely, Kentucky is returning 0.0% of its scoring, rebounding, assists, steals or blocks production from a season ago. It is the first time in the history of the program there has not been a single returning contributor. The fewest returning points scored from one season to another in program history occurred in the midst of World War II where the 1943-44 roster had a squad with team members who had combined to score just 19 points the season before. • In a preseason survey of other men's basketball programs, Kentucky's six fifth-year players are tied for the third-most in college basketball among the power conferences. Only Oklahoma State (8) and Louisville (7) have more

• In a different survey of men's basketball programs throughout the country, Kentucky's 12 newcomers are tied for the fifth-most among power conferences trailing only Cal (16), Louisville (16), Oklahoma State (13) and Vanderbilt (13)

• The Wildcats join only Louisville as a major-conference team that is not returing any production from last year's roster

Kentucky's Team

Mark Pope and his staff pieced together an experienced, talented, honored and winning group of players to represent Big Blue Nation's 2024-25 team.

Ansley Almonor, Lamont Butler, Andrew Carr and Amari Williams are all 1,000-point scorers. Butler and Williams were named their league's defensive player of the year, while Koby Brea and Jaxson Robinson have been tabbed a conference's sixth man of the year in their career and Almonor was a most improved selection. Brandon Garrison is a former McDonald's All-American. Kerr Kriisa has played in 99 career games and has made 238 3-pointers, while Otega Oweh has seen action in 60 games and was Oklahoma's second-leading scorer a season ago.

Kentucky's freshmen group includes Travis Perry and Trent Noah from the state of Kentucky and Collin Chandler, a former top-35 signee in the class of 2022. Perry is the state's alltime leading scorer, while Noah broke the Sweet 16 state record for most 3-pointers drained in a single run with 19 this season.

Assistants Snapshot

In addition to putting together a roster from scratch, Mark Pope also had to assemble a staff upon his hiring as head coach of the Wildcats. Pope constructed what he considers to be the best in the country.

• Alvin Brooks III (associated head coach): Brooks coached eight seasons at Baylor, serving as both an assistant and associate head coach. The Bears went 194-72 during Brooks' tenure, including a 94-46 record in Big 12 action, won the 2021 NCAA Tournament, went 12-5 in NCAA Tournament games and 22-15 against Associated Press top-10 ranked foes. A Houston native, Brooks began his coaching career at the junior college level. He spent two seasons at Arkansas-Forth Smith, helping the Lions to the 2006 NJCAA Division I championship. He then joined the staff at Midland, where he again was on staff for an NJCAA title team in 2007.

• Mark Fox (associate coach): Has been a head coach at the NCAA Division I level for 18 years and has a career record of 324-263. Fox has directed teams to four regular-season conference titles, five NCAA Tournament appearances and 10 total postseason appearances during his collegiate coaching tenure. Fox and Pope reunite in Lexington, after Fox hired Pope for his first collegiate basketball position. Pope served as the Director of Basketball Operations at Georgia in 2009-10, coincidentally Fox's first season with the Bulldogs.

• Cody Fueger (assistant coach): Fueger has been a nine-year member of Mark Pope's staffs, first serving as an assistant coach at Utah Valley and then transitioning to BYU. The connection began when they were on the BYU staff together when Pope was an assistant coach and Fueger served as the director of basketball operations. Fueger began his career as a student assistant coach and video coordinator at Utah under Rick Majerus. Named one of the most impactful mid-major assistant coaches in Division I men's basketball by Silver Waves Media in 2022 and 2023, Fueger has been instrumental for Pope's squads.

• Jason Hart (assistant coach): Hart is a nine-year NBA veteran with extensive coaching experience at the high school, collegiate and professional levels. ### The Long Ball

A staple Mark Pope team is known for shooting the long ball. Pope has discussed throughout the offseason the desire to average 35 3-point attempts per game for the 2024-25 season. Entering the season, Pope's veterans have combined to make 1,033 3-pointers at a 37.0% rate.

Through two games, the Wildcats are averaging 12 made 3s per game on 30 attempts per game. The Cats are hitting at a 40.0% clip. Should the Cats take and make 3s like Pope intends, some notable UK records will be on watch:

Four is Good, Seven is Better

Entering the 2024-25 campaign, the Wildcats have four players (Ansley Almonor, Lamont Butler, Andrew Carr and Amari Williams) who have all eclipsed the 1,000-point plateau for their collegiate careers.

Three more players are nearing the milestone:

Kentucky Boasts Nation-Leading 29 Players on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

The Kentucky men's basketball program finds itself in familiar territory with a nation-leading 29 players on NBA opening-day rosters. It marks the 13th consecutive season in which the Wildcats have paced the nation in terms of their alumni contingent in the league. The total of 29 players is based off the NBA's official opening-day roster list and includes all two-way and inactive players.

Duke (24 players) is the only other school with at least 20 representatives on a roster heading into the 2024-25 season. The Southeastern Conference leads all collegiate conferences with 100 players on opening day rosters. The Big Ten is second with 89.

Of the 30 NBA franchises, 20 feature at least one player out of Kentucky, while eight have multiple Wildcats. The Sacramento Kings lead the league with three UK products on their roster, while the 76ers, Heat, Knicks, Lakers, Pelicans, Suns and Thunder each have two. A group of four Cats from last year's Kentucky team join the NBA ranks this season, led by top-10 draft picks Reed Sheppard and Rob – Dillingham.

Kentucky's NBA contingent enters the 2024-25 season with significant momentum. Last year, a record-breaking seven UK players earned NBA All-Star nods, while three were selected to All-NBA teams. Shai Gilgeous-Alexander finished as the runner up for the league's Most Valuable Player award, while Tyrese Maxey was named the KIA Most Improved Player. Maxey also received the NBA's Sportsmanship Award and Karl-Anthony Towns was chosen as the recipient of the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Social Justice Champion Award.

Noteable nuggets about UK's NBA stars:

• Karl-Anthony Towns (Knicks): Towns poured in 44 points in a win over Miami on Oct. 30. It was the most points scored by a New York Knicks' center since Patrick Ewing had 41 in 1996

• Devin Booker (Suns): With 14,529 career points entering this season, he has scored the ninth most in NBA history before turning 29 years old. Booker was named the NBA Western Conference's Player of the Week on Nov. 4 after a week which saw the Phoenix star average 33.7 points over three Suns' wins

• Anthony Davis (Lakers): Davis was named the NBA Western Conference's Player of the Week following the opening week of the season. He became just the third player in NBA history to have multiple season openers with at least 35 points and at least 15 rebounds, joining only Elgin Baylor and Wilt Chamberlain as the other players to turn the trick

The updated court design also features perimeter borders painted Kentucky Blue with the Kentucky Wordmark on each baseline, the Rupp Arena at Central Bank Center logos on the wings and the Southeastern Conference logos in the lanes.

The Cawood's Court marker memorializing legendary radio play-byplay announcer Cawood Ledford remains at midcourt in front of the broadcast table on the opposite side from the team benches, and the UK logo with "Mr. Wildcat" honoring longtime manager Bill Keightley is still in front of the UK bench.

HEAD COACH MARK POPE

Mark Pope, a captain of the University of Kentucky's 1996 National Championship team, has returned to Lexington as the 23rd head coach of Kentucky's storied men's basketball program.

Pope is a nine-year head coaching veteran with stops at BYU and Utah Valley, amassing a 187-108 career record prior to the start of his UK career. His squads won 20 or more games in six of the last seven seasons and he has made six postseason appearances.

"Mark Pope not only brings an impressive record in nine years as a head coach, but also a love of the University of Kentucky and a complete understanding of what our program means to the people of our state," UK AD Mitch Barnhart said at the time of Pope's hiring. "As a captain on the '96 championship team, Mark was a beloved and respected teammate. As a head coach, he is highly regarded nationally as an innovator. His teams run a unique and dynamic up-tempo offense and they get after it on defense. He is a strong recruiter with international ties and a person of integrity.

"He fully embraces our high expectations and standards and I know that as our fans get reacquainted with Mark, they will be eager to join him on what promises to be an ### exciting ride."

Pope returns to UK from Provo, Utah, where he compiled a 110-52 record (.679) during five campaigns at the helm of BYU. He took the Cougars to three postseason appearances, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament, and missed another bid when the 2020 event was cancelled because of the Covid pandemic. Three of his five BYU teams finished the season ranked in the top 20 of the KenPom efficiency ratings.

"The University of Kentucky is the pinnacle of coaching in college basketball. It's the definition of blueblood program where hanging a banner is the expectation ever year," Pope said. "Equally as important, UK changed my life forever as a human being. The love and passion I have for this program, this University and the people of the Commonwealth goes to the depth of my soul.

"I'm thankful to Dr. (Eli) Capilouto and Mitch Barnhart for this opportunity. I'm proud to be your next head coach and I can't wait to do this together!"

Pope is coming off a 23-11 season in 2023-24. It was BYU's first season in the Big 12 Conference and the Cougars' 10-8 league record featured victories over No. 7 Kansas, No. 11 Baylor and No. 24 lowa State. BYU's first win in the Big 12, on January 13 at Central Florida, also marked Pope's 100th victory as head coach of the Cougars.

The Cougars ranked third in the country with 11.1 made 3-pointers per game in 2023-24, and also ranked in the top 10 in assists per game (3rd) and assist-to-turnover ratio (6th). BYU led the Big 12 in scoring at 81.4 points per game. They were ranked as high as No. 12 in the AP Poll after going 12-1 in nonconference action, winning the Vegas Showdown, BYU's first multi-team event title since 2011. Pope was named to the 2024 Naismith College Coach of the Year Late Season Watch List for his efforts.

Pope's teams also hit the postseason in 2020-21, finishing with a 20-7 mark and making BYU's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2015. The Cougars were 24-11 in 2021-22 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament. The Cougars captured win No. 60 under Pope in January of '22, making him the fastest BYU coach to achieve the mark.

Pope began his head coaching stint at BYU in the 2019-20 season, tallying a 24-8 record, the most wins for a first-year coach in program history. He finished the season ranked No. 18 in the Associated Press poll and No. 16 in the USA Today/Coaches poll, becoming the first head coach at BYU to conclude the season with a national ranking in his first season. The Cougars finished second in the West Coast Conference with a 13-3 record. The Cougars also toppled No. 2-ranked Gonzaga, earning their best win over a ranked opponent inside their home venue in program history. The Covid pandemic prevented an almost-certain bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Pope's Cougars were statistically among the top offenses in the nation in '19-20. The Cougars finished the season ranked first in 3-point field goal percentage, second in assist-to-turnover ratio, third in field-goal percentage, fourth in 3-point field goals per game and fifth in assists per game.

Following his first season with the Cougars, Matt Norlander of CBS tabbed Pope as the best hire of the year. He was also awarded with the United States Basketball Writers Association District VIII Coach of the Year honor. He was a semifinalist for the Werner Ladder Naismith Coach of the Year.

Pope's first head coaching stint was a four-year term at Utah Valley. Beginning in 2015-16, the Wolverines increased their win total during every season of Pope's tenure, culminating in a 25-10 overall mark and a runner-up finish in the Western Athletic Conference in 2018-19. Utah Valley was 30-2 at home from 2017-19, and the 25 wins in 2019 were a single-season school record.

He began his collegiate playing career at the University of Washington, where he was tabbed the 1992 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year. After his sophomore season, he transferred to Kentucky, where he appeared in every game of his two-year career with the Wildcats. UK won the 1995 and '96 regular-season Southeastern Conference championships, the '95 SEC Tournament title and the 1996 NCAA Tournament. He averaged 7.9 points and 5.7 rebounds per game in 69 career games. Pope was named to the All-SEC Tournament Team in 1995, behind a pair of double-doubles in three games, including one in the title game that went to overtime.

Pope was selected in the second round of the 1996 NBA Draft by the Indiana Pacers. He played professional basketball from 1997-2005, including terms with Indiana, Milwaukee Bucks, New York Knicks and Denver Nuggets. In 2000-01, he started 45 games and helped the Bucks reach the Eastern Conference Finals.

Following his playing days, Pope enrolled in medical school at Columbia University and completed two years before returning to basketball. He joined Mark Fox's staff at Georgia in 2009. He then spent one season as an assistant coach for Jeff Bzdelik at Wake Forest and four seasons at BYU under Dave Rose. The Cougars posted four straight 20-win seasons and advanced to postseason play in each of those four years, including three bids to the NCAA Tournament. His success as an assistant at BYU was the springboard to become head coach at Utah Valley.

Pope and his wife, Lee Anne, have four daughters, Ella, Avery, Layla and Shay. He is a 1996 graduate of Kentucky with a degree in English.

"I got to know and watch Mark Pope coach two years ago at Battle4Atlantis. He is extremely smart, engaging, confident in who he is and the style of ball he coaches. He is creative and a players coach. His teams play hard, just like he did. He knows what that Kentucky jersey is all about and that's a huge deal in the Bluegrass state."

"Mark Pope is one of the rising stars in college basketball. He is very smart, personable and a tireless worker. Few, if ny, coaches understand the magic of Kentucky basketball the way a former Wildcat captain and national champion does. Mark is back home."

IIMMY BYRE

"I want to congratulate Mark on his hiring at the University of Kentucky. Mark is one of the great young coaches in college basketball today and he will do an excellent job at UK. As a former Kentucky player, he understands Kentucky basketball and embraces the history and passion. He's a true Wildcat and I think that is important for the program. The Big Blue Nation will be very pleased and celebrate his arrival and tenure at UK. His team will play with the same passion, toughness, and energy as he did when he was a Wildcat. Mark is an absolutely excellent hire. He's a gracious person and proven winner. I'm so excited for him and TUBBY SMITH his family."
