

DRAFT AGENDA

Extreme Weather Social, Behavioral, and Economic Sciences Summit

February 18-21, 2025
National Conservation Training Center
Shepherdstown, WV

This draft agenda provides a high-level overview of the event programming and topical focus areas. Note that there will be no virtual component for this event. Please check back for additional information on event logistics, panels, and keynotes closer to the Summit date.

DAY 1 – TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18th

Afternoon

Registration Opens

Evening

Welcome and Opening Remarks @ National Conservation Training Center (NCTC) Auditorium

DAY 2 – WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19th

Morning

Welcome Plenary

Session 1: Advancing Partnerships Across Extreme Weather Communities: SBES Coordination Networks (Part 1, Today's Landscape)

Topic to be revisited on Day 4.

Afternoon Session 2: Bringing Social Science Research Findings Closer to the People Who Need Them: Knowledge Transfer and Data Management

Evening OPTIONAL: Networking Reception and Research Poster Showcase @ National Training Conservation Center (NCTC) Roosevelt Room

DRAFT AGENDA

DAY 3 – THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20th

Morning Welcome Plenary

Session 3: Supporting Interdisciplinary Collaboration Between Practitioners and Researchers: Frameworks for SBES Integration

Afternoon Session 4: Exploring Tomorrow's Career Pathways in Extreme Weather: SBES Roles and Workforce Development

Evening TO BE DETERMINED

DAY 4 – FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21st

Morning Welcome Plenary: Recap of key themes from days 1, 2, and 3

Session 5: Advancing Partnerships Across Extreme Weather Communities: SBES Coordination Networks (Part 2, Tomorrow's Vision)

12pm

Lunch and adjourn