

SAYS:
Show You Care About Clean Air

This Book Belongs to:

---

Hi Kids,
My name is "Sunny" the scissor-tailed flycatcher.

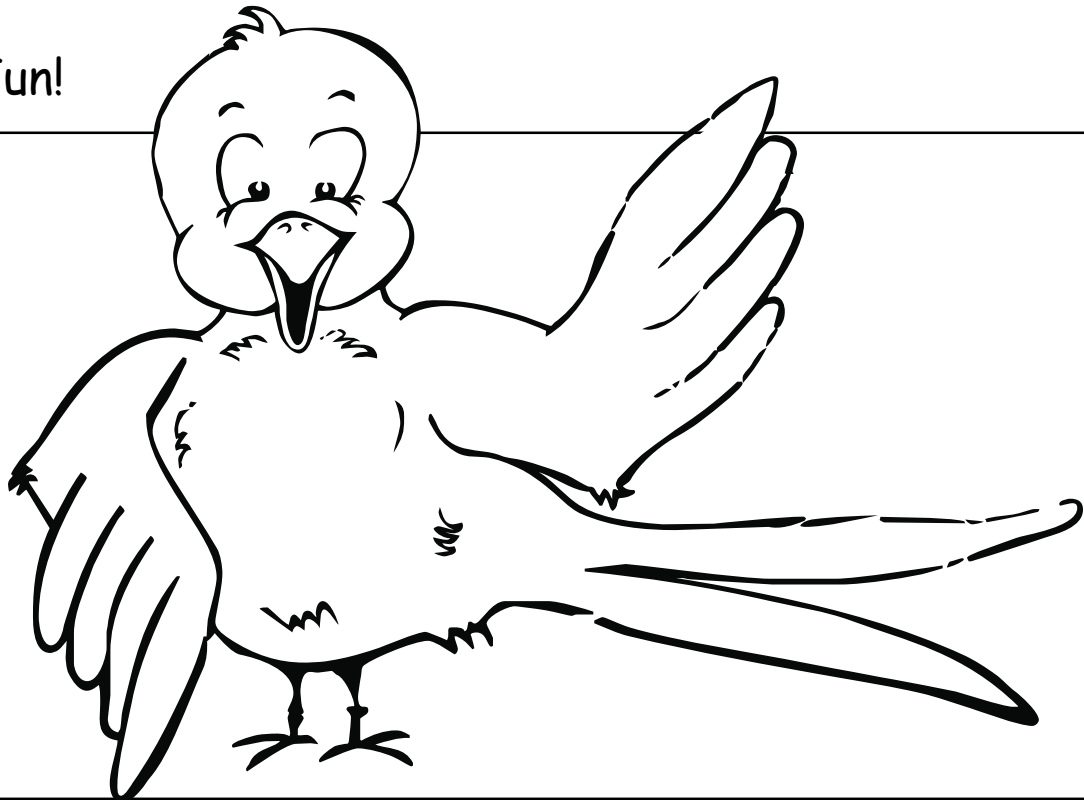

I've got some very important things to tell you about air pollution.

We birds like to have clean air and all creatures need clean air to breathe.

There are many things you can do to show you care about clean air.

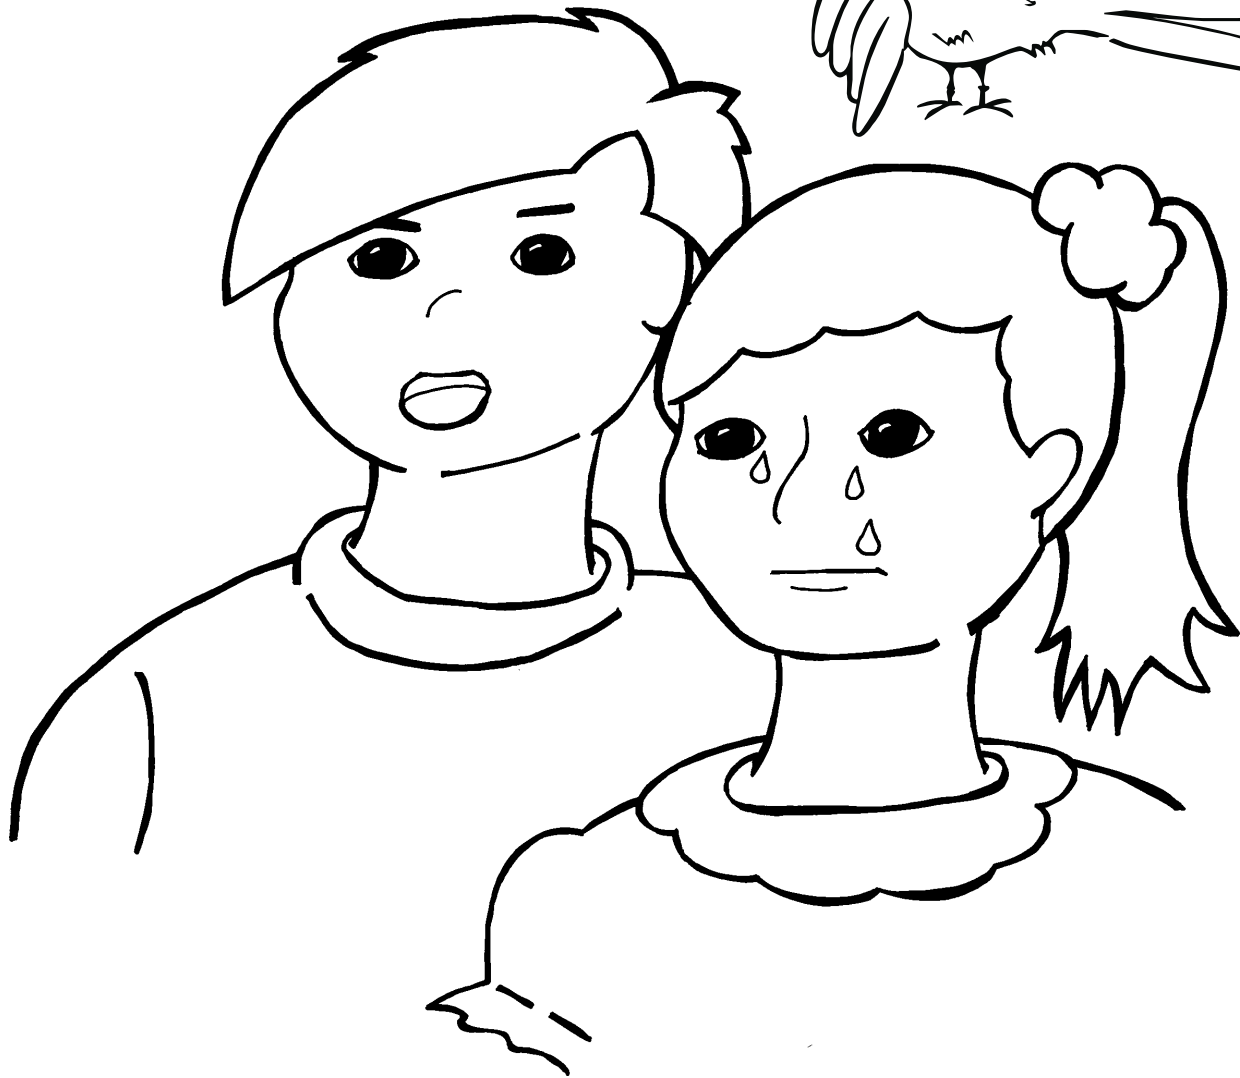

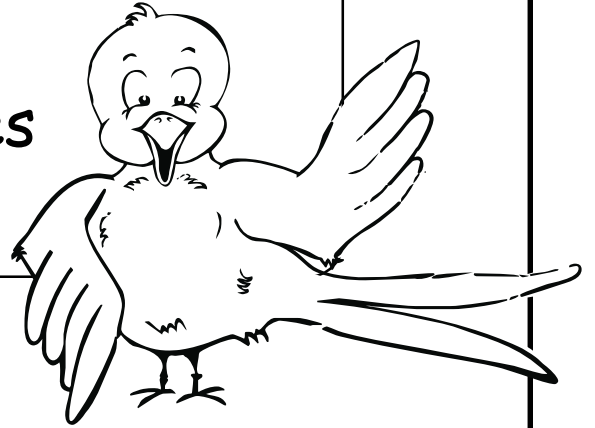

I've got some fun pictures for you to color and some exciting activities too. You will also learn some things about air pollution and see how you can Show You Care About Clean Air.

Have Fun!

Air Pollution

can make you feel sick,
cough or make your eyes
water.

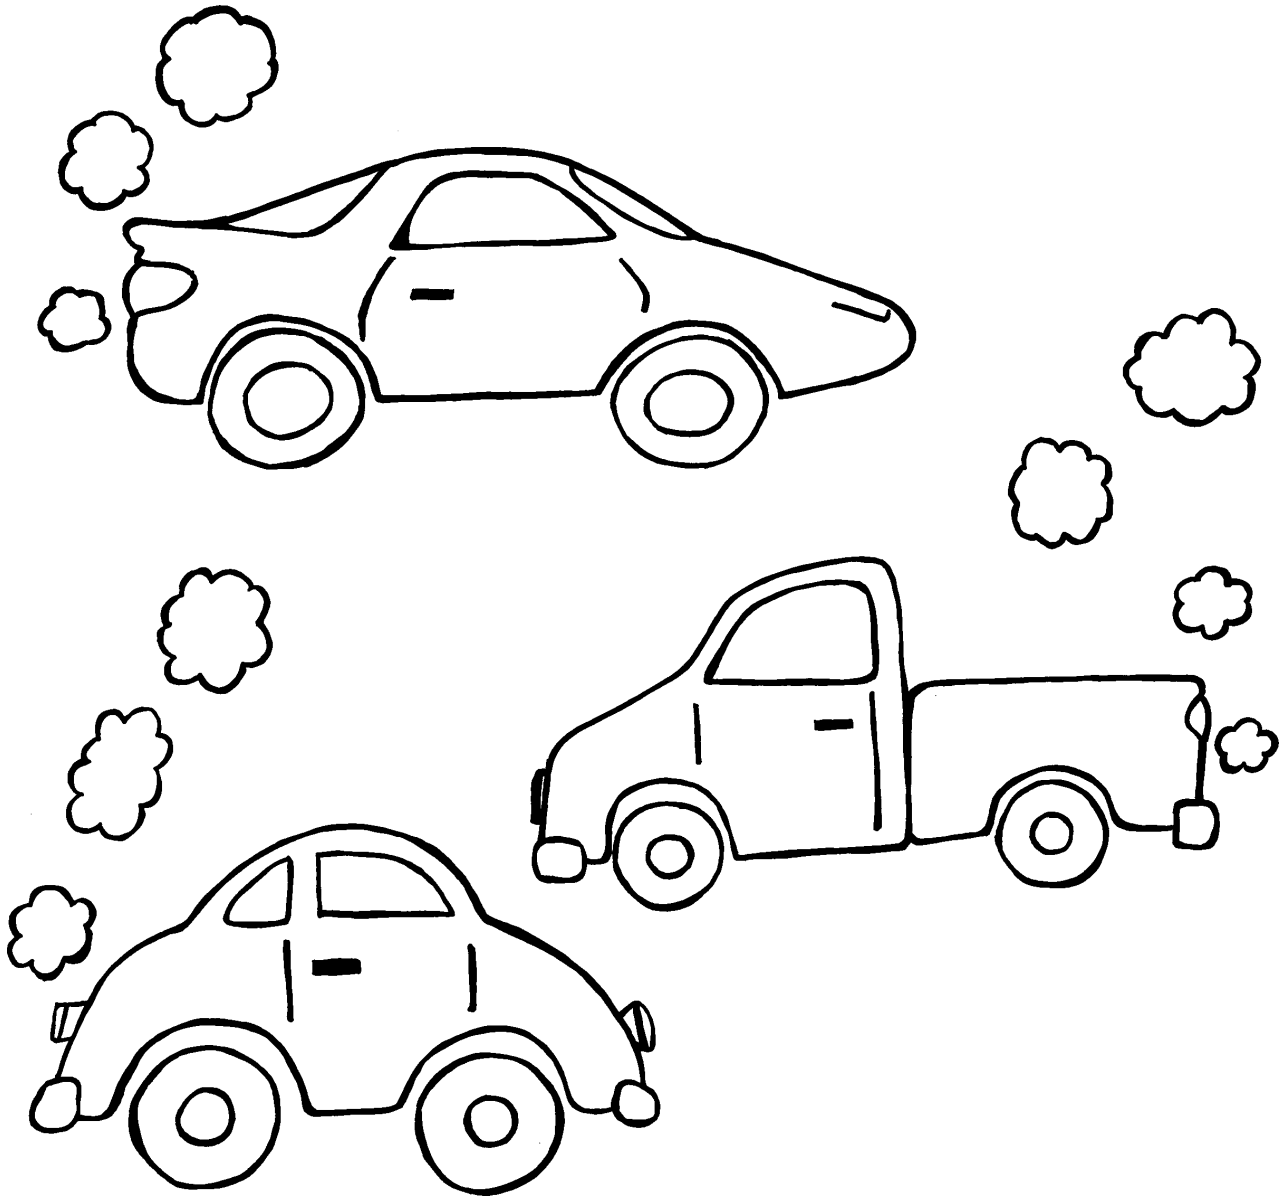

Kids need clean air.

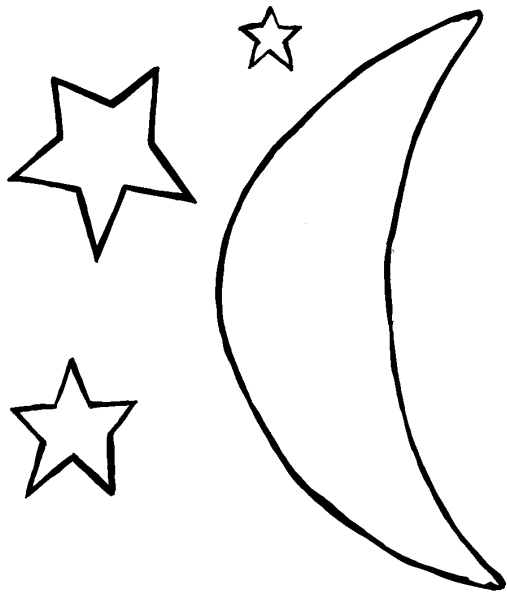

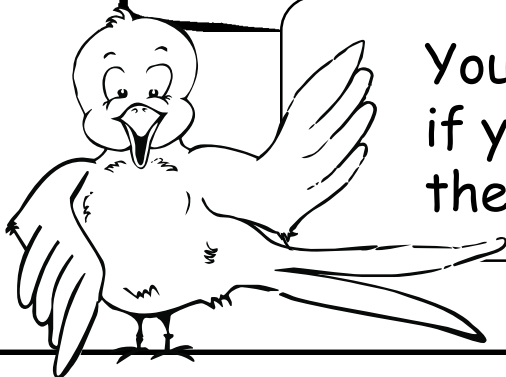

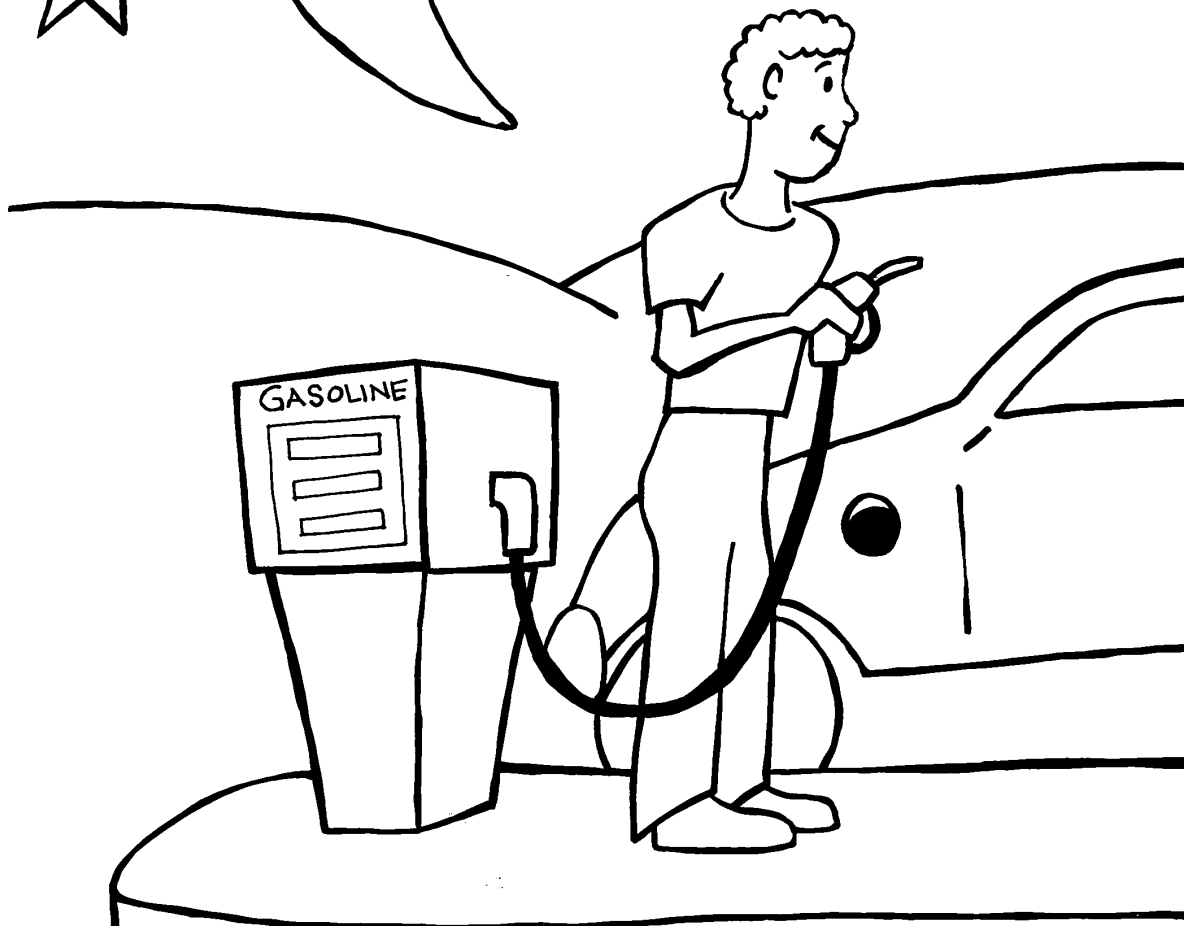

Industry and traffic are
sources of air pollution.

Cars and trucks make
more than half of the air pollution.

Cars should be
fueled at night
to reduce air
pollution.

You can reduce air pollution
if your parents put gas in their cars at night.

Open burning
can cause
air
pollution.

Burning trash can also create pollution.

Good Ozone: Way up high

OZONE LAYER →

The ozone layer surrounding the Earth protects us from harmful rays from the Sun.

Air pollution such as smog, is often found near cities.

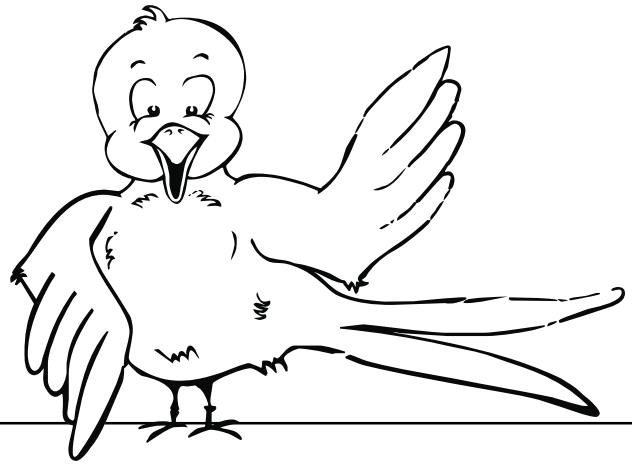

When there is ozone found near the ground, it can be harmful to us if we breathe it.

Bad Ozone: When it's nearby

Dot-to-Dot

Walk or ride a bike
to help reduce
air pollution.

Connect the dots to help the girl on her way.
