INTRODUCTION

1. The Anti-Fraud and Anti-Corruption Policy (hereinafter “the Policy”) of the World Food Programme (hereinafter “WFP”) sets out WFP’s policy and procedures relating to fraud and corruption. The policies and procedures outlined in this document are based on and reflect the principles set out in the Staff Regulations and Rules, the Financial Regulations and Rules, the Standards of Conduct for the International Civil Service, the Notice from the Inspector General on Reporting Fraud and Other Wrongdoings, as well as other relevant WFP issuances. The Policy also reflects the principles underlying the United Nations Convention against Corruption.¹
2. Fraud and corruption are contrary to WFP’s core values and adversely impact its activities and operations, undermining its effective functioning and diverting resources from its mission. Moreover, fraud and corruption can damage WFP’s reputation and diminish donors’ trust.
3. WFP shall therefore take measures to prevent, detect and deter fraud and corruption perpetrated to its detriment by WFP personnel as well as by cooperating partners, suppliers or other third parties, and shall take robust action where they are found to occur.

SCOPE

4. The Policy applies to all activities and operations of WFP, including: i) any project funded by WFP; and ii) any project implemented by WFP and any government agency and/or cooperating partner.
5. The Policy applies to all WFP staff members and other personnel, including but not limited to: i) consultants; ii) temporary assistance unit personnel; iii) service contract and special service agreement holders; iv) junior professional officers; and v) interns, volunteers and United Nations volunteers.
6. Contractual arrangements between WFP and cooperating partners, suppliers or other parties shall prohibit fraudulent, corrupt, collusive, coercive and obstructive practices.

 - e) Obstructive practice is: i) deliberately destroying, falsifying, altering or concealing of evidence material to the investigation or making false statements to investigators in order to materially impede a duly authorized investigation into allegations of corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practice; and/or threatening, harassing or intimidating any party to prevent it from disclosing its knowledge of matters relevant to the investigation or from pursuing the investigation; or ii) acts intended to materially impede the exercise of WFP's contractual rights of access to information.
8. In the Policy, these practices will be collectively referred to as "fraud and corruption".

BASIC PRINCIPLE AND OBJECTIVES

9. WFP is committed to transparency and accountability in the management of its resources in order to ensure the effective fulfilment of its Strategic Objectives. To this end, the Policy seeks to prevent fraud and corruption through: i) appropriate internal checks and balances; ii) staff training and awareness; iii) due diligence practices in the recruitment of WFP personnel and the hiring of contractors; and iv) effective internal and external auditing controls as well as effective inspections and investigations.
