

Disability Advisory Committee (DAC)

Meeting Minutes

April 26, 2023

Certified by DAC Co-Chair Kyle Dixon — May 4, 2023

On April 26, 2023, at 1:00 p.m. EDT, the first virtual meeting of the fifth term of the DAC was called to order by DAC Co-Chairs Kim Charlson of the Perkins School for the Blind and Kyle Dixon of NCTA – the Internet & Television Association.

Commissioner Geoffrey Starks welcomed the members of the new DAC term. He discussed the importance of access to communication technology and expressed gratitude to the DAC and staff of the Consumer and Government Affairs Bureau (CGB) on their accomplishments.

Commissioner Nathan Simington discussed accommodations in the digital age and functional equivalents of AI services.

Alejandro Roark, CGB Chief, welcomed the members and introduced the DAC Co-Chairs. He then expressed gratitude to DAC members for their commitment and collaboration. Diane Burstein, CGB Deputy Bureau Chief, expressed her gratitude next.

Joshua Mendelsohn, DAC Designated Federal Officer (DFO), summarized the DAC meeting communications protocols and housekeeping rules. DAC Co-Chair Kyle Dixon then led a roll call of members, where the DAC members introduced themselves and their organizational affiliations and made any necessary disclosures.

Suzy Rosen Singleton, Chief of the Disability Rights Office (DRO), Will Schell, DRO Deputy Chief, and Eliot Greenwald, DRO Deputy Chief, shared briefings from DRO and discussed topics of interest, including matters concerning video programming, emergency communications, and modern communications.

Paula Silberthau, Attorney Advisor with the Office of General Counsel presented on general Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA) matters. Darice Gamble from the Office of the Managing Director then discussed record retention obligations.

The meeting opened for public participation. There were no public questions or comments. Closing remarks were made by DAC Co-Chairs Kim Charlson and Kyle Dixon.

The meeting adjourned at 3:15 p.m.
