**MKIV PROBLEM**: Sun Dec 17 22:06:32 GMT 2000

Console screen is locked with time frozen at 2142 UT. I was able to "End Day" on the GUI screen and enter log comments from Kii via rlogin. NOTE:

After the first part of this log entry was finished I typed Pau into the Kii xterm window to close down Nahenahe from Kii via rlogin. That seemed to work OK, the Console window on Nahenahe dissapeared and I was able to move the cursor around the screen, etcetera, so I closed down the rest of the way from Nahenahe.

UPDATED COMMENT 22:36 UT: I had to reboot Nahenahe because it wouldn't allow me to logout due to the strangeness noted earlier. So it looks like everything is normal again now.
