COMMENT: Thu Feb 22 19:55:46 GMT 2001

Verizon people arrived on site. They will be pulling cable between their microwave shack and our building and possibly installing their network interface device (NID) inside our building. According to Ken, it is a small box that can go on the shelf by the PC speakers.

COMMENT: Thu Feb 22 21:17:29 GMT 2001

Darryl Kuniyuki indicates that Verizon will be installing equipment that will give us only 56K capability for now because they still need to reconfigure their equipment (find space for and install) in their microwave building.

PSPT PROBLEM: Thu Feb 22 22:06:46 GMT 2001

PSPT crashed at 2058.

COMMENT: Thu Feb 22 22:07:28 GMT 2001

Verizon finished installeng up to the NID, customer access point, in our building. They will do testing tomorrow after the rest of the cable is pulled around the rest of the Mauna Loa site. Indication is that third party installer connects the rest of the ssystem beyond the NID to our stuff.
