WEATHER COMMENT: Sun Jan 16 19:00:51 GMT 2005

Still very snowy, but much more slippery ice than on Thursday, it must have melted and refroze smooth, I couldn't drive past the last 15 or 20 feet of that last ice section before the visitor parking area - not enough ground clearance on that SUV, so I parked down the road about a mile and hiked up. I probably could have plowed through that last section eventually but then someone else may get stuck there and I'd be trapped up here. Wind= 10 mph from the NE, temp=36F.
