GONG PROBLEM: Tue Apr 26 01:05:39 GMT 2005

GONG has been running normally since this morning when we bypassed the camera power monitor and reseated cable connections at the camera interface board. Halted instrument and cycled power to the instrument and data computers during the reconfiguration/connector reseating exercise. To demonstrate our confidence that things are better, I just went down to lock the shelter. Data logger file for yesterday thru this morning was downloaded and sent to Tucson. New 24-hour power quality log was started and will finish at around 2130 UT tomorrow. If bypassing the camera power monitor or connector reseating fixed the problem, then the further power quality logs may not be needed. Should the system crash again there is a contingency plan to bypass the UPS as a test.
