MLSO PROBLEM : Tue Feb 3 18:25:21 GMT 2009

Internet connection is down again. I went down to the telephone shack and found 2 guys working there, they are replacing the batteries, since midnight. They said what they're doing shouldn't affect the Internet or phone connection and that someone called them saying the network connection was down, they also said that a phone company repairman is on his way up now. Joan called earlier asking if I knew why they couldn't connect to Kenobi, I told her that the Internet connection was down and she said she might try to contact the phone company or UH network guys.
