NOTE BY BEN: Tue Dec 18 17:52:25 GMT 2012

There was a power outage on Sunday. After power was resorted the main observing UPS that powers the instrument computers and network equipment did not turn back on. Becasue of this the observatory was not accessiable from the outside an GONG was unable to send operate. The ups was manually turned on this morning. And the sy stems connected to it are currently being recovered
