GENERAL OBSERVATORY COMMENT BY waters: Tue Sep 6 16:43:38 GMT 2016

Felt an earthquake up here, the building creaked and shook a bit but otherwise calm.

GENERAL OBSERVATORY COMMENT BY waters: Tue Sep 6 19:47:26 GMT 2016

It's been too bright to start up but it looks like we might be moving out of the cirrus at some point. Let's hope it's soon.

GENERAL OBSERVATORY COMMENT BY waters: Tue Sep 6 20:36:46 GMT 2016

Not entirely sure what happened but we just lost the Dec for about 15seconds. There was an audible sound that I heard down here in the control room but the spar is clear of everything. Luckily I hadn't quite restarted the instruments yet.

GENERAL OBSERVATORY COMMENT BY waters: Tue Sep 6 20:39:57 GMT 2016

The cirrus has burned off, restarted instruments!

GENERAL OBSERVATORY COMMENT BY waters: Tue Sep 6 20:44:31 GMT 2016

Our door leaks water from the bottom left corner of the window trim when it's opened with enough force. It leaked on the side of the door that is inside.

GENERAL OBSERVATORY COMMENT BY waters: Tue Sep 6 23:58:06 GMT 2016

Some clouds are coming up from the West, pushed through a couple of them. Hopefully they will stay away from the Sun's path. Will keep an eye on them.
