*Possible CME in Progress waters: Mon Feb 20 19:47:33 GMT 2017

Starting before the Sun was up, between PA 46-54, there is a large prominence that can be seen launching, then it seems to do a loop or twist on itself and then continues to launch through the corona. Can be seen in GONG and KCor.

WEATHER COMMENT: waters: Tue Feb 21 00:54:24 GMT 2017

Looks like we'll have some interesting weather this evening; as I'm closing up, hail is coming down but very small pieces.

And I can hear some thunder towards the South but it sounds far.
