Turns out that our nitrogen delivery fell through and our tank as well as NOAAs' are empty. Luckily, they had some stored in another building and they thankfully filled our dewar. So we should be okay to fill today. Adien made a call and email to Airgas but hasn't heard back from them yet. Hopefully they'll be able to make a delivery tomorrow but we may have to turn off CoMP for the weekend if they are not able to. Let's hope for the best.

GENERAL OBSERVATORY COMMENT BY waters: Fri May 12 00:52:24 GMT 2017

Gave a tour for about an hour (give or take) to some guest from boulder! It was fun and I'm glad we had a little bit of da ta from this morning to show them. :)

GENERAL OBSERVATORY COMMENT BY waters: Fri May 12 00:53:37 GMT 2017

We have been in fog for good three hours now and since it is getting less likely for it to clear, I'm going to head down a bit early to send the K-cor Summer occulter to boulder for inspection via fedex before they close.
