KCOR COMMENT BY berkey: Tue May 12 17:21:59 GMT 2020

Reinstalled the kcor field lens, after first contact cleaning

Leaving first contact on both surfaces overnight, let peel of better especially on the surface (lens bottom) that was left on top for the drying process. The bottom had some peeling issues around the edge of the o-ring. I think this happened because I flipped I didnt let the material dry enough on the first surface before flipping it over to apply on the second.
