

2023 Research/Extension Impact Award

The College of Agriculture, Food and Environment Research Office solicits nominations for the 2023 Research/Extension Impact Award. The award provides $1,000 to be presented to faculty in a CAFE research program that has resulted in a fully-developed extension program during the 2018-2023 academic years (July 1, 2018-June 30, 2023) at UK. The awards will go to both the research and extension faculty program leaders, if they are different.

Programs should be nominated by investigators, chairs, or directors and endorsed by chairs or directors. The winner of the Research/Extension Impact Award will be chosen by a committee appointed by the Associate Dean for Research with input from the Associate Dean for Extension.

Research must have been conducted in the college and the extension program must have been developed in the college. Nominees must hold a position in a faculty title series and cannot hold administrative positions such as director or chair. Nominees cannot receive this award two years in a row.
