WILDLIFE DAMAGE PREVENTION ACT EXEMPTION REQUEST

The Utah State Department of Agriculture and Food may exempt owners from payment of imposed fees when the Commissioner determines that:

Livestock as defined in the Agricultural and Wildlife Damage Prevention Act are permanently confined within pens or corrals within incorporated city limits where animal damage control activity by state or federal agencies is prohibited or severely restricted.

Proceeds collected from wool sales or brand inspections from exempt animals for predator control will be refunded to the owner provided an exemption request is filed with the department prior to December 31 of the calendar year corresponding to the exemption, and the exemption is approved by the Commissioner.
