SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

FOR ACADEMIC PUBLIC HEALTH

ASPPH

The Association for Schools and Programs of Public Health (ASPPH) represents more than 150 accredited schools and programs of public health, including a community of more than 103,000 deans, faculty, staff, and students. ASPPH is the voice of academic public health – we train the next generation of public health professionals, convene leaders, generate evidence, and advocate for policies that improve the health and well-being of everyone, everywhere. We are guided by the principles of social justice and are committed to dismantling racism in academic public health institutions. ASPPH envisions a world where all people live in thriving communities supported by the work of strong and prepared public health professionals.

VALUE OF COLLABORATING WITH ASPPH

ASPPH is built on collaboration and dedicated to improved health for everyone, everywhere. When you collaborate with ASPPH, we can continue to advance the field of public health, and showcase your organization, products, and services. Your partnership supports the power of the academic public health community as we strengthen our field through educational and mentoring opportunities, research development, systems modernization, and advocacy.
