Attention: Regional Materials Engineer

Permission is hereby granted to the State of Alaska, Department of Transportation and Public Facilities, its agents, contractors, and employees, to enter upon my land described as follows, for the purposes of borrow area explorations thereon:

All that part of the following-described tract of land:

This permission shall include the right to take samplings of borrow material by standard approved methods and to bring onto said land any and all necessary equipment for that purpose and to do all reasonable acts necessary for the accomplishment thereof.

The State shall take all reasonable precautions to avoid damaging said lands and the appurtenances thereon and, in the event that any damage results from such explorations, the State, by making such entry, agrees to compensate the undersigned for such damages.

This permission shall terminate 60 days from the date hereof unless extended in writing.

It is understood that this permission is not a waiver in any way of the right to reasonable compensation for damages to such land resulting from such exploration nor of any remedy at law to secure the payment therefor, nor shall the undersigned be liable for any injuries sustained by the State's agents, contractors, employees, or equipment, unless the same is occasioned by the negligence of the undersigned, his agents, employees, or equipment.

Very truly yours,
