

JOB GROUPINGS EXEMPT FROM TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT

- 1. Agriculture (outside of Lexington)
Applies to Agriculture Extension Offices outside Lexington, Nicholasville, Versailles, Georgetown, Winchester, Paris and Frankfort areas.
- 2. Robinson Trust
Applies to Robinson's Scholar Program.
- 3. Medical center programs (outside of Lexington)
Applies to programs that operate outside the Lexington, Nicholasville, Versailles, Georgetown, Winchester, Paris and Frankfort areas. Examples include the Center for Rural Health, the Nurse Practitioner Program and the Allied Health Physician Assistant Program.
- 4. Athletic camps, game attendants and temporary coaches
Applies to UK Athletics Association ONLY.
- 5. Operations and news personnel
Applies to announcers, producers, editors, anchors and reporters associated with WUKY.
- 6. Students employed on student wage lines or for minority outreach programs
Applies to all students positions on 5133XXX G/L series, the Science Outreach Program and the summer Minority Outreach Program.
- 7. Summer stipends
Applies to programs offered to recruit students (undergraduate or high school) to participate in undergraduate research programs. These students receive a stipend for their work.
- 8. Post docs/research associates
Applies to all postdoctoral scholars, fellows and temporary research associates included under the 512XXX subcode series.
- 9. Faculty
Applies to all faculties employed in 511XXX subcode series.
- 10. Physicians in Student Health
Applies to Student Health physicians who are not employed as faculty but as temporary professional staff. Therefore, physicians hired in Student Health for temporary needs are exempt from Temporary Employment.
- 11. Temporary Faculty
Applies to future faculty employees as temporary professionals whose appointments are pending Board of Trustees approval.

12. Instructors

Applies to individuals hired as temporary professionals to instruct as subject matter experts, guest lecturers, clinical specialists and/or course coordinators. Included are individuals hired to teach various continuing medical education courses such as CPR, EMT training and Advanced Trauma Life Support.

13. House staff

Applies to all residents employed at the Medical Center.

14. Teaching assistants and graduate assistants

Applies to individuals hired in the 513XXX subcode series.

15. Social workers, psychologists, psychometrics

Applies to the program in the Department of Psychiatry, which employs temporary clinical social workers and psychometrics to evaluate and counsel patients who are on managed contracts that will not pay for a psychiatric evaluation.

16. Contractual workers

Applies to individuals with any type of contractual agreement with the University.

17. Positions funded by grants issued prior to July 1, 1997 and not renewed annually

Contact Temporary Employment for more information.

18. High school co-op students

Applies to high school students who are performing work to fulfill course credit requirements at local high schools.

19. Voluntary employees

Applies to any person who volunteers his/her time to the University of Kentucky without compensation.

20. Hospital on-call staff

Applies to any hospital employee who works only an on-call basis.

21. Standardized learning/problem-based learning patients

Applies to programs in the Medical Center, which employ temporary personnel to act as patients in various clinics for medical center students to practice their examination and diagnosis skills.

22. Visiting scientists

Applies ONLY to the Center for Applied Energy Research (CAER).

23. Tutors

Most should be UK students paid student wages under subcode series 513XXX.

24. Interpreters employed by disability research center

Applies to interpreters due to be paid the set amount established by the state of Kentucky.

25. Professional technical/scientific positions funded by grants

Applies to technical/scientific position funded by a grant requiring a degreed professional such as a Research Assistant or Research Associate.