

UST System Installation and Maintenance Qualifications

- Trained Personnel
- Qualified Service Technicians (QSTs)
- Certified UST Installers

Lists of QSTs and Certified UST Installers, or information on how to become one can be found on the OPS website.

Trained Personnel	QSTs	Certified UST Installers
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Replace dispenser hanging hardware <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ nozzles, hoses, swivels, breakaway devices, etc. • Replace filters 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Items included under Trained Personnel • Perform periodic inspections/testing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ spill buckets, piping containment sumps, overfill prevention devices, and release detection equipment • Repair/replace existing spill buckets, overfill prevention devices, piping flex connectors, and emergency shut-off valves • Repair piping containment sumps • Install/repair/replace release detection equipment, dispensers, and meters 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Items included under Trained Personnel • Items included under QSTs • Install UST Systems <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ underground tanks, piping, piping containment sumps, spill buckets, etc.