

| Contents

Introduction to the 2 nd Edition	vi
How to Use This Book	vii
Charts of Content	xii
Unit 1: Listening at a University	1
Listening to Lectures in English	2
Listening in a New Context	8
Getting Ready to Listen to a Lecture	9
Lecture 1, Part 1: The Creative Process in Science and Engineering	11
Is Multi-Tasking Possible?	12
Listening for Organizational Clues from the Speaker (Discourse Markers)	13
Lecture 1, Part 2: The Creative Process in Engineering	18
More Strategies	20
Unit 2: Listening for Different Purposes	24
Lecture Purpose and Organizational Patterns	25
Lecture 2, Part 1: Clean Energy for Tomorrow	34
Recognizing Definitions in Lectures	35
More about Repetition	37
Noticing Critiques	38
Lecture 2, Part 2: Clean Energy for Tomorrow	39
Unit 3: Listening for Abstract Concepts	42
Understanding Abstract Lecture Content	43
Lecture 3, Part 1: Hofstede's Value Dimensions	45
Recognizing Emphasis	47
Lecture 3, Part 2: Hofstede's Value Dimensions	51
Contrastive Language and Voice Cues	51
Demonstrating an Understanding of Abstract Concepts	53
Informal Interactions: The Q&A at the End of Class	55
Lecture 3, The Q&A at the End of Class: Hofstede's Value Dimensions	56

Unit 4: Listening for Claims and Evidence	58
Preparing for Rich and Rapid Content	59
Lecture 4: Writing and Genre	61
Review Definitions	62
Study Claims and Evidence	62
Evaluate Strength of Claims	64
Make a Chart to Consolidate Lecture Material	72
Write a Summary	74
Anticipate Application Questions	74
Listening in Seminar-Style Classes	76
Unit 5: Listening to Interactive Lectures	78
The Educational Purposes of Interactive Lectures	79
Types of Questions in Interactive Lectures	82
Signposting in Interactive Lectures	86
Lecture 5: The Ten Principles of Economics, Part 1	87
Revisiting Abstract Terms and Concepts	88
Revisiting Definitions	89
Lecture 6: The Ten Principles of Economics, Part 2	94
Review of Lecture Features	96
Appendix: Features of Natural Spoken English	99
Different Contexts, Different Levels of Formality	100
Topic-Comment Organizational Pattern	111
More Practice with Informal Speech	116
References	119