4. CHANGE IN CHILD SUPPORT

In order to increase or decrease support payments because of a change in income of the parent making the payments, the change must be both long-term and significant. The court will not modify a support order because of a minor or temporary increase or decrease in income. Generally, a change in income is considered significant if it would raise or lower the support payments by 15% or more or if it would change which parent owes support. You must attach any documentation you have that supports your request. Examples include pay stubs, tax returns, and proof of social security or disability benefits. Include proof of any deductions you are claiming.

I want the support payments for the above children to be increased decreased no change in support payments

[Check all of the following boxes that explain why you are requesting an increase or decrease. Attach extra pages if necessary. Only write on one side of the page.]

a. There has been a change in the income of one or both parents that would change the amount of child support owed or would change which parent owes support. [If you check this box, attach documentation of the increase or decrease in income and explain why it has occurred.]

b. There has been a change in the children's schedule that changes the type of custody or percentage of shared custody between the parents. [If you check this box, list the dates when the living arrangements changed, explain what the current living arrangements are, and attach any documents you have to support your claim.]

c. There has been a change in the availability or cost of medical insurance for the children or medical expenses for the children have significantly increased or decreased. [Describe what the change should be and attach all available documents that support the requested change.]

d. Other Change. [Be specific and attach any supporting documents.]

Income Withholding. I understand that the court's modification order must require that the support amount be immediately withheld from the obligor's income unless one of the three exceptions shown below applies.

I request that the court not order immediate income withholding, because:

1. Alternative Payment Arrangement.

The other parent and I agree on the alternative payment arrangement¹ described in the attached document signed by both of us (and by CSED if support has been assigned to the state); and

- if CSED is enforcing the support order, CSED has entered this agreement into its record; and
- an income withholding order has not been terminated previously and subsequently initiated; and
- the obligor has agreed to keep the obligee (or CSED, if CSED is enforcing the order) informed of the obligor's current employer and the availability of employment-related health insurance coverage for the children until the support order is satisfied.

2. Not in Best Interests of Children.

Immediate income withholding would not be in the best interests of the children, because:

and

- the obligor made voluntary support payments under a court or agency order, and has not been in arrears in an amount equal to the support payable for one month,

and

- the obligor agreed to keep the obligee (or CSED, if CSED is enforcing the order) informed of the obligor's current employer and the availability of employment-related health insurance coverage for the children until the support order is satisfied.

3. Obligor Receives Other Compensation.

The obligor is receiving social security or other disability compensation that includes regular payments to the children at least equal to the support owed each month. To the extent these payments to the children do not satisfy the monthly amount owed, I request that the remaining amount due be immediately withheld from the obligor's income pursuant to AS 25.27.062.

¹ The following are some examples of alternative payment arrangements: having a military allotment paid to the obligee; advance payment of two months' support to the obligee as security for future payments; or an automatic funds transfer from the obligor's bank or employer to the obligee.

5. REQUIRED ATTACHMENTS. Each of the items listed below must be attached to this motion. Check each box to indicate that you completed and attached the item.
