

2022 Bobby Pass Excellence in Grantsmanship Award

The College of Agriculture, Food & Environment Research Office solicits nominations for the 2022 Excellence in Grantsmanship Award in the amount of $1,000 to be presented to the CAFE faculty member receiving the most significant external award, or combination of awards, during the 2016-2022 academic years (July 1, 2017-June 30, 2022), while employed at UK. This award is given in memory of Dr. Bobby Pass, who chaired the Department of Entomology from 1968-2001, and was dedicated to promoting scientific excellence.

Faculty members should be nominated by their peers or departmental chair and endorsed by the chair. The winner of the Bobby Pass Excellence in Grantsmanship Award will be chosen by a committee appointed by the Associate Dean for Research.

Preference will be given to proposals recognized for meritorious science. Note there may be more than one grant listed. Indicators should include:

- Evidence of peer-reviewed selection process
- Evidence of degree of competitiveness
- Evidence of national stature (e.g. federal agency awards)

Nominees must hold a position in a faculty title series and cannot hold administrative positions such as director or chair. Nominees cannot receive this award two years in a row.
