MEDIA INFORMATION

UK Media Relations

The University of Kentucky Media Relations Department looks forward to serving the members of the media during the upcoming Wildcat women's soccer season. If you will be attending a game at the UK Soccer Complex, please review the items of interest and important phone numbers provided for you within this media publication.

The 2012 University of Kentucky Women's Soccer Media Guide is intended to answer any questions you might have about the season and assist you in your coverage of the team throughout the year. Requests for photographic privileges and working press space should be made through John Hayden at the media relations department. If the information provided in this publication does not answer your questions or you need further assistance, please contact Hayden or Chris Shoals in the UK Media Relations Department at 859.257.8429 or john.hayden@uky.edu or cmsh223@uky.edu

Game Day in the Bluegrass

Media guides, rosters, Southeastern Conference information, updated game notes and statistics will be available prior to each match. The UK media relations staff will be pleased to accommodate your postgame distribution needs. Please have a list of numbers prepared by the end of the match of the media outlets you wish to be reached. The visiting media relations personnel will be provided one phone line. In the case that a media relations representative will not be traveling to Lexington, arrangements should be made the week of the match for additional services to be provided by UK.

Interviews

Interviews with Coach Jon Lipsitz, his staff and student-athletes will be available following the match after a brief cooling off period. Media members wishing to interview coaches or any players other than on the day of a match should set up an appropriate interview time through John Hayden in the UK Media Relations Department. The best time to reach the coaching staff is in the early afternoon, Monday through Friday. The best time to speak with the student-athletes is after practice during the week. Practice is usually 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. ET at the UK Soccer Complex. All interviews during the week must take place 30 minutes prior to the start of practice or immediately following practice.

UKathletics.com

The official website of the University of Kentucky Athletics Association, UKathletics.com is the 24/7 home for information on UK women's soccer and the 21 other varsity sports. Online you can access all information pertaining to the Wildcats, including rosters, schedules, player profiles, statistics/results and game notes. CatScratches, the official blog of UK Athletics, is also available at the official athletics department website.

UK Interactive

UK Interactive, <http://interactive.ukathletics.com>, was created to provide on-line visitors with a broad overview of the UK Athletics program and each of its 22 varsity sports in an innovative and entertaining way. Our hope is that this site will provide an accurate glimpse of what it means to study and compete as a nationally prominent student-athlete at the University of Kentucky.

HEAD COACH JON LIPSITZ • FOURTH SEASON

Entering his fourth season, UK head women's soccer coach Jon Lipsitz has continued to develop the culture it takes to build a championship program from the ground up. In doing so, fans have had an opportunity to see the team grow right before their very eyes.

"Last year, outside of our locker room, nobody expected us to be hosting an NCAA Tournament game. It was a tremendous achievement for this program, but we are not where we want to be yet." Lipsitz said.

"The state of the program from when we took over four years ago is unrecognizable. It is a great tribute to how hard everyone involved with this program has worked both on and off the field. We are in a position now where we are very proud of our culture, we are very proud of our success, but we are still very hungry for more."

Last season he helped guide the Wildcats to one of the most historic seasons in program history as the Wildcats hosted an NCAA Tournament game and finished the SEC portion of the schedule with a winning mark for the first time since the 2006 season. During the season, UK earned many key wins including a 1-0 defeat of South Carolina in Columbia for the first time since 2006, as well as a 1-0 win over No. 14 Tennessee in double overtime in Lexington to earn a key SEC win.

After a two-year absence from the SEC Tournament from 2007-09, Lipsitz has led Kentucky back to Orange Beach (eight-year home of the SEC Tournament) back-to-back years where the Wildcats dropped a heartbreaker to 12th ranked South Carolina, 3-2 in penalty kicks, and in 2011 fell to No. 14 Tennessee 1-0.

On Dec. 16, 2008, Lipsitz became the second head women's soccer coach in University of Kentucky history. Lipsitz, who owns a career record of 129-57-16 (.678) in 10 seasons, came to Lexington after spending four seasons as the head coach at Charlotte where he guided the 49ers to a 58-23-4 (.706) record including three straight Atlantic 10 titles in 2006, '07 and '08. Each season, Charlotte increased their win total, going from 11 in 2005, to 13 in 2006, to 16 in 2007, to a school record 18 in 2008.

In his four seasons at Charlotte, he guided the 49ers to 34 A-10 wins with a Carolinas' Cup title, three A-10 regular season titles, two A-10 Tournament titles and two NCAA Tournament appearances. The 49ers' success on the field during Lipsitz's tenure translated into recruiting success, as well.

The two springs prior to his arrival in Lexington, he signed two of the highest-ranked recruiting classes in the program's history including the 19th ranked class in the nation according to Soccer Buzz in 2007.

While in Charlotte, he also coached seven

Academic All-Americans and two athletic All-Americans. In 2007, Lipsitz was named Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year after leading the 49ers to 16 wins and a school-record nine Atlantic 10 wins en route to the program's third-ever bid to the NCAA Tournament. The 49ers captured their second straight A-10 regular season title which was the fourth regular season championship in the program's history. Charlotte also won their first A-10 Tournament Championship when they captured the title with a victory over Fordham. Lipsitz and the 49ers continued their momentum through the 2008 season where they finished with a school record 18-4-1 mark including a perfect 11-0 mark in conference play. The team won their second straight A-10 tournament title and capped the magical season with an NCAA second round appearance, defeating the Tennessee Lady Vols 2-0 in the first round. The 49ers finished the 2008 campaign ranked fifth nationally in scoring (3.00) and 19th in shutout percentage (56.5).

Before taking over the 49ers women's soccer program, Lipsitz spent four seasons (2001-04) as an assistant coach for national-power Ohio State. During his four seasons with the Buckeyes, he was the chief recruiter for a program that won 52 games, two Big Ten Tournament titles and made three straight trips to the NCAA Tournament. In 2004, Ohio State won a school-record 19 games en route to an NCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearance. His efforts produced nationally-ranked recruiting classes, including players that earned freshman All-America honors in each of his last two seasons in Columbus.

Prior to his time at Ohio State, Lipsitz spent three seasons at NCAA Division III Denison University where he tallied a 43-10-4 record in three seasons.

No stranger to the UK women's soccer program, Lipsitz served as the Director of Coaching and Player Development for the Ohio Premier Girls' Soccer Club from 1993 to 2005, which Lipsitz has also served as a Regional Staff Coach for Region II and III Olympic Development Program, as well as the 1991 North Carolina ODP Head Coach. He holds the United States Soccer Federation "A" license.

The Chapel Hill, N.C., native graduated with a Bachelor's of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of North Carolina in 1993. He earned a Master's of Education from Ohio State in 1998.

Lipsitz and his wife, Kathryn, have two sons Zachary (15) and Max (8).

ASSOC. HEAD COACH MICHELLE RAYNER • FOURTH SEASON

Associate head coach Michelle Rayner is in the fourth year of her second stint with the UK women's soccer program, and her first season as associate head coach.

Rayner served as an assistant in the program from 2001-04. During her time in Lexington, Rayner helped coach seven Wildcats to seven All-SEC honors.

"You can look over the years, and the change is phenomenal in the sense that we have come so far in such a short amount of time," Rayner said. "Because of the work the whole staff is putting in day in and day out, we are generating interest from not only the top regional-level players, but now national-caliber players.

"It is amazing to see what we have done together in such a short amount of time. Having said that, this is not a time where we rest. It is just a situation where we continue to work even harder to continue to go deeper into all the competitions that we play in.

"We will continue to build off last year. These players know we will not rest off the performance we had last year."

Rayner returned to Lexington after serving as head coach at High Point for the last four seasons where she led the Panthers to a 33-38-12 record, including a 19-13-11 mark in her last two seasons. In 2007, Rayner guided High Point to the Big South Tournament Championship and made the school's second appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Along the way the team matched the program's Division I record for season wins with 11. In 2008, she equaled the all-time program record for fewest losses in a season with five.

During her time at High Point, she produced 14 All-Big South performers and recruited and developed three Big South All-Freshman selections. Rayner's insistence on excellence in the classroom showed results as well, producing two Big South Women's Soccer Scholar Athletes of the Year and four CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honorees.

Prior to her coaching tenure at UK, Rayner began her collegiate coaching career as the top assistant for the men's and women's soccer programs at Lincoln Memorial University in Harrogate, Tenn. She earned her bachelor's degree in physical education with a minor in coaching from Lincoln Memorial in 2001.

In addition to her collegiate coaching experience, Rayner served as the Director of Coaching for the Knoxville (Tenn.) United Stars Girls club, where two of her teams won Tennessee State Championships and other squads captured titles in numerous tournaments around the region.

Rayner is in the fourth year of her second stint with UK. This will be her first season as associate head coach.

Rayner, who played professionally in Australia and England for several years before coming to the United States to pursue a college education, was a member of the New Zealand National Team that competed in the first Women's World Soccer Championships in China in 1991.

ASST. COACH AARON RODGERS • FOURTH SEASON

Fourth-year assistant coach at Kentucky, Aaron Rodgers is no stranger to the Southeastern Conference. Rodgers is in his third stop within the SEC, having previously coached at Florida and Alabama.

Under his tutelage, former UK goalie Sydney Hiance posted 12 shutouts in two seasons, including seven in 2009, the third most in a season in school history. Hiance finished her career ranked second in UK history in shutouts (20), saves (283), minutes (6143:56) and fourth in goals-against-average (1.23).

"Kayla Price came in last year as a freshman and did really well. She helped us to a NCAA Tournament slot, and was really solid for us," Rodgers said.

"Kayla King had a great spring for us and we also have Kylie Morgan coming in with a huge youth career so we expect big things from her this year. It is going to be an open competition again, and competition always brings out the best.

"You also have Taylor Mogel who had a good year last year, worked hard and is going to make this an interesting fight. Whoever steps up and takes the position will earn the right to play."

Prior to coming to Lexington, Rodgers spent a year as a volunteer coach with the University of Florida soccer team, serving as the goalkeeper coach. During his time in Gainesville, the Gators captured the 2008 SEC championship, while reaching the NCAA Sweet 16 as well.

His other SEC stop in Tuscaloosa occurred in the 1998 season. The Crimson Tide won the Southeastern Conference's Western Division and earned a NCAA Championship berth that season. Rodgers coached 1998 All-SEC first team selection Rachel Brown, who is currently the goalkeeper for the England National Team.

Rodgers brings knowledge from the collegiate and club coaching ranks as well as experience as a player to the Wildcat program.

He began his coaching career as an assistant coach for the women's team at his alma mater, the University of North Texas. After a year with the Mean Green, Rodgers became the South Alabama assistant women's soccer coach for the 1996 and 1997 seasons. While at USA, the Jaguars went from a 2-17 record in 1996 to 18-3-1 in 1997, marking the biggest turnaround in women's collegiate history.

He went on to accept the associate director position at the nationally prominent Cardinal Soccer Club located in Cincinnati, Ohio. Rodgers spent almost two years with the program, working with players aged seven to 20.

A volunteer coaching position for the University of North Florida for the 2001 season followed, and the Ospreys finished the 2001 year nationally ranked. He spent the 2005, 2006 and 2007 seasons as an assistant coach for the Flagler College men's team.

Rodgers played collegiate soccer at both Arkansas-Little Rock (1991) and North Texas (1992-1993). He also played four seasons with various United Soccer League (USL) teams in the southeast - Texas Toros (1993-1994), Dallas Rockets (1995) and Mobile Revelers (1997).

A University of North Texas graduate, he received his bachelor's degree in political science in 1996.

Rodgers and his wife, Mandi, have a son, Luke, and daughter, Reese.

Bridges is not unfamiliar with the women's soccer program, having worked three seasons prior to this year. Some of his responsibilities included halftime promotions, student involvement, kids' area and in-game promotions. He graduated in December of 2010 with a Bachelor of Science in Marketing and Management.

Bridges is on track to graduate in May of 2012 with a Masters degree in Kinesiology and Health Promotion with an emphasis on Sport Leadership. In addition to his soccer responsibilities, he also oversees the Chick-fil-A Junior Wildcat Club as well as assisting with duties at baseball, women's basketball, football, tennis, and men's basketball.

A native of Lexington, KY, he is the son of Dan and Krista Bridges and has one younger sister, Leah, and one younger brother, Ethan. Spencer currently resides in Lexington.

SHARON FRANK

Sharon Frank will begin her first season at UK as the Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer with the women's soccer team.

A native of Plymouth, Mich., Frank, was a competitive gymnast from 2000-07 where she qualified for the Women's Level 8 Junior Olympic Regionals in 2004.

Frank attended Plymouth Christian Academy before advancing her education to Michigan State University, where she graduated with high honors in May of 2012 with a B.S. in athletic training.

At Michigan State, Frank worked with multiple sports including football, women's rowing and gymnastics.

The daughter of Dale and Joan Frank, Sharon enjoys biking, playing the keyboard, racquetball and reading in her spare time and has an ambition of becoming a full time athletic trainer at the Division I level.

MELISSA GLEASON

Melissa Gleason begins her first year as associate athletic director for business, and her first year as the administrator for the women's soccer program after serving seven years in the department, most recently as the assistant athletic director for business.

Gleason has a long experience in sports management, obtaining a bachelors degree from Indiana University in Finance and Accounting and a masters in Sports Administration from Temple.

Gleason served as an independent auditor for Pricewaterhouse Coopers, as well as working with Disney Sports before taking a job with UK.

In her spare time, Gleason enjoys reading, babysitting and is an avid fan of the Philadelphia Phillies.

MIKE HALEY

Mike Haley has been a full-time member of the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (C.A.T.S.) since the summer of 1991. Haley works as an Academic Counselor and works closely with the women's soccer program.

Haley received a pair of degrees from UK. He earned his bachelors in 1987, followed by his masters in Athletic Administration in 1993.

Haley received the inaugural Lifetime Achievement award at the 2003 Catspy awards.

Under Haley's tutelage, the women's soccer team has garnered 220 Academic All-SEC honors, as well as 20 Academic All-District honors and two Academic All-Americans.

Haley has a son, Ryan, and resides in Lexington.

ERIC HAUB

Eric Haub begins his third year as an Assistant Sports Turf Manager at the University of Kentucky.

His responsibilities include the landscaping and maintenance of all the athletic fields on campus, with his primary focus being on the UK soccer/softball complex.

Before being selected for the position at UK, Haub completed internships at the University of Louisville, Purdue University and with the Pittsburgh Steelers where he managed the athletic fields and landscaping surrounding the facility.

Haub is a 2010 graduate of Purdue University with a Bachelors Degree in Agronomy specializing in Turf Science.

JOHN HAYDEN

Associate Director of Media Relations John Hayden is in his seventh season at Kentucky after being named Assistant Director of Media Relations in July of 2006. He spent six years in the same position at the University of Alabama where he directed the media and public relations efforts for the football, softball, women's soccer and men's cross country and track and field programs.

During his tenure with Alabama, the softball team made four appearances at the College World Series (2000, 2003, 2005, 2006).

After graduating from Alabama in December of 1998 with a degree in broadcasting, Hayden served as an intern in the media relations department with the Chicago White Sox's AA affiliate, the Birmingham Barons, during the 1999 season.

In addition to his responsibilities with women's soccer, Hayden also works with the men's basketball team.

A Paducah, Ky., native, Hayden is the son of Bernard and Cathy Hayden. He is married to the former Maria Angelini and the two have a one-year old daughter, Lilly.

LOGAN MARTIN

Logan Martin is in his first season as a student athletic training assistant with the women's soccer team, however he has been around the athletics department, working with both the football and men's soccer programs.

A native of Winchester, Ky., Martin is a political science major and hopes to attend law school.

The son of Glenn and Daphne Martin, Logan has a younger brother, Wilson.

CLIFF MATEKOVICH

Cliff Matekovich enters his 10th year as the Video Coordinator for the Kentucky women's soccer team. Matekovich has been at UK for 11 years after working four years as a student in the sports video department before taking a full-time position.

He has also interned at The Babcock Advertising Agency in Washington, D.C., where he produced videos that went to General Motors and high-end automotive dealerships, as well as GM customers.

The Mt. Vernon, Ky., native's hobbies include concerts, Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, backpacking and spending time with family and friends.

Matekovich earned his degree in Telecommunications from Kentucky in 2003. He is the son of Joe and Darlene Matekovich and has a sister, Elizabeth.

JUSTIN MATHIS

versity of Kentucky to earn a Masters of Kinesiology and Health Promotion with emphasis in Sports Leadership.

He aspires to become an Athletic Director in the future.

The son of David and Julie Mathis, Justin has a younger brother and sister, Conner and Caitlyn.

MASON POGUE

Mason Pogue is in his first season working with the women's soccer team. He has been a student athletic trainer for two years, first with the Kentucky football team followed by a stint with the Wildcat baseball team.

A native of Owensboro, Kentucky, Pogue is a kinesiology major and hopes to get accepted into the graduate physical therapy program at UK, where he aspires to become a doctor of physical therapy.

The son of Donald and Annette Pogue, Mason has an older sister, Miranda and a younger brother, Miller.

CHRIS SHOALS

Chris Shoals is in his third year working in the UK Media Relations department, and second season working with the women's soccer program.

In addition to his duties with the women's soccer team, Shoals also handles all media for the UK swimming and diving team, as well as assisting in the day-to-day operations in the media relations office.

The Cincinnati, Ohio native is entering his junior year at UK, majoring in broadcast journalism.

JOHN SPURLOCK

John Spurlock is in his fourth season as the strength and conditioning coach for the women's soccer team. He also works with men's soccer, men's and women's sprinters and hurdlers, as well as assisting with 10 other varsity teams.

Spurlock, a native of Fairfield, Ohio, came to UK from the University of Dayton in Dayton, Ohio. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and a certified strength and conditioning coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. Spurlock is also certified by USA Weightlifting and CrossFit.

He competes in CrossFit and Olympic weightlifting. In 2008, he was the Ohio State Champion in the 77 kilogram weight class.

Spurlock earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Hanover College in 2005. While at Hanover, he was a wide receiver on the football team. He also earned his master's degree in Kinesiology from UK in 2010.

RODNEY STILES

Rodney Stiles is in his 25th season with the Athletics Association, his 11th as an Assistant Athletics Director for Event Management.

Currently Stiles is the Event Manager for three varsity sports and all non-university sporting events. He serves as the Game Manager for all home football games as well as the football game day traffic and parking coordinator. He also coordinates the sustainability and recycling operations for Commonwealth Stadium. Other sports which he has served as event manager at UK include Men's Soccer, Volleyball, Women's Basketball, Track, Baseball and Softball.

Previously, as the Director of Administrative Services, Stiles supervised the maintenance, scheduling and operations of Memorial Coliseum. He also managed the student ticket distribution for all men's basketball and football games, coordinated football parking and oversaw transportation needs for all Olympic sports programs at UK.

A native of Campbellsville, Ky., Stiles was a walk-on kicker on the UK football team from 1978-81 while earning his bachelors' degree. He coached high school football in Owensboro, Ky., at Apollo High School from 1981-82. He returned to Kentucky in 1983-85 as a graduate assistant for Jerry Claiborne's staff, coaching the running backs and assisting with recruiting.

Married to the former Carmen Saylor, Rodney and Carmen have a one-year old son Camden Gregory.

CORTNEY WIESLER

Cortney Wiesler is in her fourth season with the UK women's soccer program, and her first as the Director of Soccer Operations after serving as the team manager from 2009-11.

A 2007 graduate from West Virginia University with a degree in Athletic Coaching Education, Wiesler played soccer for the Golden Bears where she earned All-Mid-South Conference honors.

She came to Kentucky where she received her masters in Kinesiology and Health Promotion in 2009.

Wiesler graduated from Hempfield High School in Lancaster, PA where she helped win the 2000 state championship.

Aspiring to coach soccer at the Division I level, Cortney is the daughter of John and Linda Pfost and is married to Marty Wiesler.

B.J. HALL

Ben Hall-Volpenhein is in his first season assisting with the University of Kentucky Women's Soccer Program.

Currently a sophomore at UK, Ben graduated from Lexington Catholic High School in Lexington in 2011. He was a Top 100 Recruit for the Class of 2011 and a 3-star prospect, but due to injuries chose not to play in college.

Ben is aspiring to coach at the Division 1 level in the future and is one of three sons of Rob and Christie Hall-Volpenhein.

Played her club soccer for the McLean MPS Strikers under the direction of Clyde Watson ... While playing with the Strikers, Dallaire won the National Championship in the 2010 Super-Y, as well as a member of the Super-Y ODP National Select Team in 2009 and 2010 ... Daughter of Mike and Kyle Dallire, and is majoring in social work with a concentration in pre-medicine.

Place of Birth: Portsmouth, N.H.
Parents: Mike and Kyle
Siblings: Nicole and Simone
Club Team/Coach: McLean MPS Strikers/Clyde Watson

Dallaire's Q & A

What is your nickname, and why? My family calls me JQ, because Q was the first letter I learned how to write!
What team member is most likely to be a head coach? Brooke
Who is the most famous person you have ever met? Charles Mann and Ricky Irvins (both former Redskins players) – they were both parents on my soccer teams
Would you rather win the World Cup or an Olympic gold medal? World Cup
What is the worst Christmas gift you've ever been given? None, really! I love Christmas – it's definitely my favorite holiday
If you had a horse in the Kentucky Derby, what would you name it? Zippy!
Who is the best soccer player in the world outside of Messi? Xavi!
What is your prized possession? Probably the super fuzzy UK blanket my parents got for me after I committed – I always travel with it!
Why did you choose your jersey number? On my high school team, numbers were chosen by seniority, and when it came time for the freshman to pick, I had no idea which number to choose. Everyone else did though, and number 13 was the only one left! I really like it though because I had a good season and everyone likes to think of it as an unlucky number but I like to think I make my own luck.
Who is the most famous person in your cell phone? Clyde Watson (my club team coach). Mia Hamm still goes to him for advice
What song gets you pumped up for a game? Pretty much all music (except classical and country). It's better if it is a goofy song, so I don't get into my own head. My current fave is Call Me Maybe!
Who is the funniest player on the team? Me! They just don't know it yet.
What is your favorite city to visit? Chincoteague Island
Who is your favorite American Idol winner? Clay Aiken (did he win?)
What is your biggest fear? I hate heights! Just climbing stairs with gaps in between them makes my hands and feet sweaty and tingly.
What is one food you will absolutely not eat? I hate big chunks of cold cheese
What is your dream job? Well I really want to be a doctor in an Emergency room or in a free health clinic
Who have you not seen in concert that you want to see in person? Ne-Yo or Nicki Minaj!! I LOVE them!
What's one of your most interesting life stories that sets you apart from everyone else?! I have a really good memory!

What is your nickname, and why? People usually just call me Gorgol. It started when I first started playing travel soccer and my coach called me by my last name. Ever since then it just kind of stuck.
What team member is most likely to be a head coach? Hmm probably Cailin
Who is the most famous person you have ever met? Well I haven't really met anyone famous but I was third row for a Drake concert if that counts for anything.
Would you rather win the World Cup or an Olympic gold medal? World Cup
What is the worst Christmas gift you've ever been given? Last year I got a pair of gloves.
What would people be surprised to know about you? My last name used to be Gorgoloski until my great grandfather changed it.
If you had a horse in the Kentucky Derby, what would you name it? Dash
Who is the best soccer player in the world outside of Messi? Cristiano Ronaldo no doubt. I even think he's better than Messi.
What is your prized possession? Probably my ipod
Why did you choose your jersey number? Well I've never been 14 before but I've always been an even number and I'm kind of excited to start with a new number.
Who is the most famous person in your cell phone? My brother convinced me he had Lil Wayne's number about five years ago. The number is still in my phone.
What song gets you pumped up for a game? Any weeknd or Drake song. I actually get more in the zone listening to calm songs before games
Who is the funniest player on the team? Maddie!
What is your favorite city to visit? San Diego
Who is your favorite American Idol winner? Carrie Underwood
What is your biggest fear? I hate worms
What is one food you will absolutely not eat? I try to stay away from raw fish... even sushi

Hoff's Q & A

What is your nickname, and why? Hailes, Hay, or Hoff. Pretty much whatever is easiest to say on the field.

What team member is most likely to be a head coach? I would definitely say that Ashley VanLandingham or Dani Krohn would since they have tons of patience with everyone on the field and know just what to say!

Who is the most famous person you have ever met? I'd say the most famous person I have ever met is Mia Hamm... it was a highlight of my life!

Would you rather win the World Cup or an Olympic gold medal? I would want to win an Olympic Gold medal because I think it would be amazing to represent the USA with all of the other athletes and sports, and it would also be out of this world to get the chance to experience the Olympic Games up close and personal!

What is the worst Christmas gift you've ever been given? The worst would have to be the random pajama sets I get at least once every Christmas.

What would people be surprised to know about you? Probably the fact that I'm an absolute germ freak and I hate worms with a passion.

If you had a horse in the Kentucky Derby, what would you name it? Lightning... It even sounds fast!

Who is the best soccer player in the world outside of Messi? Balotelli, but not when he chokes in front of the goal.

Why did you choose your jersey number? It was all that was left, but I still like it because it's not common!

Who is the most famous person in your cell phone? Renee Balconi

What song gets you pumped up for a game? Ayy Ladies by Travis Porter-- It's my go to jam before a game.

Who is the funniest player on the team? Molly Huber, mostly since we have the same sense of humor and think that everything is funny.

What is your favorite city to visit? New York City, but I don't think I could live there, I just like to go for the site seeing and shopping!

Who is your favorite American Idol winner? Carrie Underwood or Kelly Clarkson since they have stayed grounded and have made names for themselves.

What is your biggest fear? Being kidnapped or locked in somewhere without a way out!

What is one food you will absolutely not eat? Anchovies...they smell way too disgusting to even think about trying.
