MEDIA INFORMATION

UK Media Relations

The University of Kentucky Media Relations Department looks forward to serving the members of the media during the upcoming Wildcat women's soccer season. If you will be attending a game at the UK Soccer Complex, please review the items of interest and important phone numbers provided for you within this media publication.

The 2013 University of Kentucky Women's Soccer Media Guide is intended to answer any questions you might have about the season and assist you in your coverage of the team throughout the year. Requests for photographic privileges and working press space should be made through John Hayden at the media relations department. If the information provided in this publication does not answer your questions or you need further assistance, please contact Hayden or Chris Shoals in the UK Media Relations Department at 859.257.8429 or john.hayden@uky.edu or cms223@uky.edu

Game Day in the Bluegrass

Media guides, rosters, Southeastern Conference information, updated game notes and statistics will be available prior to each match. The UK media relations staff will be pleased to accommodate your postgame distribution needs. Please have a list of numbers prepared by the end of the match of the media outlets you wish to be reached. The visiting media relations personnel will be provided one phone line. In the case that a media relations representative will not be traveling to Lexington, arrangements should be made the week of the match for additional services to be provided by UK.

Interviews

Interviews with Coach Jon Lipsitz, his staff and student-athletes will be available following the match after a brief cooling off period. Media members wishing to interview coaches or any players other than on the day of a match should set up an appropriate interview time through John Hayden in the UK Media Relations Department. The best time to reach the coaching staff is in the early afternoon, Monday through Friday. The best time to speak with the student-athletes is after practice during the week. Practice is usually 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. ET at the UK Soccer Complex. All interviews during the week must take place 30 minutes prior to the start of practice or immediately following practice.

UKathletics.com

The official website of the University of Kentucky Athletics Association, UKathletics.com is the 24/7 home for information on UK women's soccer and the 21 other varsity sports. Online you can access all information pertaining to the Wildcats, including rosters, schedules, player profiles, statistics/results and game notes. CatScratches, the official blog of UK Athletics, is also available at the official athletics department website.

UK Interactive

UK Interactive, <http://interactive.ukathletics.com>, was created to provide on-line visitors with a broad overview of the UK Athletics program and each of its 22 varsity sports in an innovative and entertaining way. Our hope is that this site will provide an accurate glimpse of what it means to study and compete as a nationally prominent student-athlete at the University of Kentucky.

2013 KENTUCKY WOMEN'S SOCCER

#FIGHT

HEAD COACH JON LIPSITZ • FIFTH SEASON

Entering his fifth season, UK head women's soccer coach Jon Lipsitz has continued to develop the culture it takes to build a championship program from the ground up. In doing so, fans have had an opportunity to see the team grow right before their very eyes.

The Wildcats in 2013 won the first-ever NCAA Tournament game in the program's history under the guidance of Lipsitz, all while finishing fourth in the overall table of the SEC.

The Wildcats continued to set program records, and earn all-conference awards as Arin Gilliland was placed on the All-SEC First Team, with freshman Kelli Hubby and Courtney Raetzman booking spots on the All-SEC Freshman Team in 2013.

"The state of the program from when we took over five years ago is unrecognizable. It is a tribute to the staff and players of the past five years. We are in a position now where we are very proud of our culture, we are very proud of our success, but we are still very hungry for more."

In 2012, he helped guide the Wildcats to one of the most historic seasons in program history as the Wildcats hosted an NCAA Tournament game and finished the SEC portion of the schedule with a winning mark for the first time since the 2006 season. During the season, UK earned many key wins including a 1-0 defeat of South Carolina in Columbia for the first time since 2006, as well as a 1-0 win over No. 14 Tennessee in double overtime in Lexington to earn a key SEC win.

After after a two-year absence from the SEC Tournament from 2007-09, Lipsitz has led Kentucky back to Orange Beach (eight-year home of the SEC Tournament) three-straight years.

On Dec. 16, 2008, Lipsitz became the second head women's soccer coach in University of Kentucky history. Lipsitz, who owns a career record of 129-57-16 (.678) in 10 seasons, came to Lexington after spending four seasons as the head coach at Charlotte where he guided the 49ers to a 58-23-4 (.706) record including three straight Atlantic 10 titles in 2006, '07 and '08. Each season, Charlotte increased their win total, going from 11 in 2005, to 13 in 2006, to 16 in 2007, to a school record 18 in 2008.

In his four seasons at Charlotte, he guided the 49ers to 34 A-10 wins with a Carolinas' Cup title, three A-10 regular season titles, two A-10 Tournament titles and two NCAA Tournament appearances. The 49ers' success on the field during Lipsitz's tenure translated into recruiting success, as well.

The two springs prior to his arrival in Lexington, he signed two of the highest-ranked recruiting classes in the program's history including the 19th ranked class in the nation according to Soccer Buzz in 2007.

While in Charlotte, he also coached seven Academic All-Americans and two athletic All-Americans. In 2007, Lipsitz was named Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year after leading the 49ers to 16 wins and a school-record nine Atlantic 10 wins en route to the program's third-ever bid to the NCAA Tournament. The 49ers captured their second straight A-10 regular season title which was the fourth regular season championship in the program's history. Charlotte also won their first A-10 Tournament Championship when they captured the title with a victory over Fordham. Lipsitz and the 49ers continued their momentum through the 2008 season where they finished with a school record 18-4-1 mark including a perfect 11-0 mark in conference play. The team won their second straight A-10 tournament title and capped the magical season with an NCAA second round appearance, defeating the Tennessee Lady Vols 2-0 in the first round. The 49ers finished the 2008 campaign ranked fifth nationally in scoring (3.00) and 19th in shutout percentage (56.5).

Before taking over the 49ers women's soccer program, Lipsitz spent four seasons (2001-04) as an assistant coach for national-power Ohio State. During his four seasons with the Buckeyes, he was the chief recruiter for a program that won 52 games, two Big Ten Tournament titles and made three straight trips to the NCAA Tournament. In 2004, Ohio State won a school-record 19 games en route to an NCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearance. His efforts produced nationally-ranked recruiting classes, including players that earned freshman All-America honors in each of his last two seasons in Columbus.

Prior to his time at Ohio State, Lipsitz spent three seasons at NCAA Division III Denison University where he tallied a 43-10-4 record in three seasons.

No stranger to the UK women's soccer program, Lipsitz served as the Director of Coaching and Player Development for the Ohio Premier-

ASSOC. HEAD COACH MICHELLE RAYNER • FIFTH SEASON

Associate head coach Michelle Rayner is in the fifth year of her second stint with the UK women's soccer program, and her first season as associate head coach.

Rayner served as an assistant in the program from 2001-04. During her time in Lexington, Rayner helped coach seven Wildcats to seven All-SEC honors.

"You can look over the years, and the change is phenomenal in the sense that we have come so far in such a short amount of time," Rayner said. "Because of the work the whole staff is putting in day in and day out, we are generating interest from not only the top regional-level players, but now national-caliber players.

"It is amazing to see what we have done together in such a short amount of time. Having said that, this is not a time where we rest. It is just a situation where we continue to work even harder to continue to go deeper into all the competitions that we play in.

"We will continue to build off last year. These players know we will not rest off the performance we had last year."

Rayner returned to Lexington after serving as head coach at High Point for the last four seasons where she led the Panthers to a 33-38-12 record, including a 19-13-11 mark in her last two seasons. In 2007, Rayner guided High Point to the Big South Tournament Championship and made the school's second appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Along the way the team matched the program's Division I record for season wins with 11. In 2008, she equaled the all-time program record for fewest losses in a season with five.

During her time at High Point, she produced 14 All-Big South performers and recruited and developed three Big South All-Freshman selections. Rayner's insistence on excellence in the classroom showed results as well, producing two Big South Women's Soccer Scholar Athletes of the Year and four CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honorees.

Prior to her coaching tenure at UK, Rayner began her collegiate coaching career as the top assistant for the men's and women's soccer programs at Lincoln Memorial University in Harrogate, Tenn. She earned her bachelor's degree in physical education with a minor in coaching from Lincoln Memorial in 2001.

In addition to her collegiate coaching experience, Rayner served as the Director of Coaching for the Knoxville (Tenn.) United Stars Girls club, where two of her teams won Tennessee State Championships and other squads captured titles in numerous tournaments around the region.

Rayner is in the fifth year of her second stint with UK. This will be her second season as associate head coach.

Rayner, who played professionally in Australia and England for several years before coming to the United States to pursue a college education, was a member of the New Zealand National Team that competed in the first Women's World Soccer Championships in China in 1991.

ASSISTANT COACH IAN CARRY • FIRST SEASON

With multiple years of coaching and playing experience at the highest level of world soccer, including two years in the NCAA ranks, Ian Carry has been named the newest addition to Jon Lipsitz's staff, as he was appointed to the role of assistant coach.

Carry comes to Kentucky on the heels of a successful two-year stint as an assistant coach at Central Michigan, where he helped build the Chippewas into a national contender each year. Under Carry's leadership, CMU earned the school's first-ever NCAA Tournament at-large bid in 2011.

Working specifically with the goalkeepers at CMU, Carry mentored senior goalkeeper Stefanie Turner to All-MAC First Team honors with 11 shutouts on the 2012 season. Highlighting the season was a 10-save performance by Turner in a 0-0 double-overtime draw with No. 12 Marquette. He was also instrumental in bringing in a dynamic 2012 freshman class that earned three MAC All-Freshman team selections. A native of Dunshaughlin, Ireland, Carry worked as an international and goalkeeping coach for the Republic of Ireland from 2007-11.

While with the Republic of Ireland, he worked with the nation's U-15 girls, U-18 boys, U-19 women's and senior deaf squads. Carry was responsible for player identification, recruitment, monitoring and evaluation, scheduling and administering of elite training sessions, scheduling of both friendly and competitive matches, video analysis and apparel management.

As a coach, Carry helped lead the U-15 girls Irish team to the Bob Docherty International Trophy in 2008 and 2010. His U-18 boys squad earned the Celtic Cup in 2008 and 2009, as well as the International Centenary Shield in 2008 and 2010.

Carry was also a National Development Officer for Schools for the Football Association of Ireland from 2007-11 where he promoted football nationally within educational establishments, planned and coordinated pilot projects at the national level within school venues, and implemented programs aimed at primary school children to develop technically stronger players.

Prior to his time with the Republic of Ireland and FAI, Carry coached professionally from 2001-07, including stints as the head coach of West of Scotland's U-13, U-14 and U-15 girls squads and as the academy goalkeeping coach for the Celtic FC of the Scottish Premier League.

"I'm delighted to join the coaching staff at UK and very much appreciate the opportunity that Jon (Lipsitz) and Michelle (Rayner) have afforded me, Carry said. My goal when leaving Ireland was to coach at the elite collegiate level and this has culminated with my move to UK and the SEC. Preseason can't come quick enough so that I can get onto the practice field with the goalkeepers and prepare them for the tough season ahead."

An Irish goalkeeper, Carry has played professionally since 1993 for Longford Town FC (1993-95), Home Farm FC (1995-98), Queens Park FC (2000-01), Sporting Fingal (2009-10), the Shamrock Rovers (2010-11) and the Republic of Ireland International Squad (2010-11). A graduate of the Bell College of Technology in Hamilton, Scotland, Carry graduated in 2001 with honors with a bachelor's of arts degree in leisure management.

2013 UK WOMEN'S SOCCER SUPPORT STAFF

ALYX AYER

Alyx Ayer is in her first year as the marketing representative for UK women's soccer, and enters her third year as the assistant marketing director for UK Athletics. In addition to her responsibilities with women's soccer, Ayer also works with the UK men's soccer team, gymnastics and softball team.

A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Ayer joined the marketing staff for UK in 2011. Ayer helped run the 2013 SEC Softball Tournament held in Lexington, Ky., and also helped the marketing for the inaugural season and stadium dedication for the newly-named John Cropp Stadium in Lexington.

Prior to working at Kentucky, Ayer worked for her alma mater, Seton Hall University. At SHU, Ayer was the athletics marketing coordinator for 14 sports and was the administrator for the pep band and spirit squad. In addition, at SHU, Ayer oversaw social media and the graduate student staff.

Ayer received her bachelor of science from SHU in 2008, graduating with Magna Cum Laude honors. She currently resides in Lexington.

GARY FOXWORTH

Gary Foxworth enters his 17th year working with the sports video department at the University of Kentucky, and his first with the women's soccer team after a 16-year stint with the Kentucky football team.

Foxworth is responsible for all home game and practice footage, as well as assisting the coaching staff with the high-tech ProZone Video System, which is used by many high-level professional teams such as EPL Champions, Manchester United.

Foxworth graduated from Eastern Kentucky in 1989 and began his career at ECU in the media resources department for eight years.

Foxworth is a Lexington, Ky., native, and a graduate of Lafayette High School. He and his wife, Kimber, have a son, Austin, and daughter, Jessica Ann.

SHARON FRANK

Sharon Frank will begin her second season at UK as the Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer with the women's soccer team.

A native of Plymouth, Mich., Frank, was a competitive gymnast from 2000-07 where she qualified for the Women's Level 8 Junior Olympic Regionals in 2004.

Frank attended Plymouth Christian Academy before advancing her education to Michigan State University, where she graduated with high honors in May of 2012 with a B.S. in athletic training.

At Michigan State, Frank worked with multiple sports including football, women's rowing and gymnastics.

The daughter of Dale and Joan Frank, Sharon enjoys biking, playing the keyboard, racquetball and reading in her spare time and has an ambition of becoming a full time athletic trainer at the Division I level.

MELISSA GLEASON

Melissa Gleason begins her first year as Senior Associate Athletic Director for Business, and her second year as the administrator for the women's soccer program after serving eight years in the department, most recently as the Associate Athletics Director for Business from 2011-12.

Gleason has a long experience in sports management, obtaining a bachelors degree from Indiana University in Finance and Accounting and a masters in Sports Administration from Temple.

Gleason served as an independent auditor for Pricewaterhouse Coopers, as well as working with Disney Sports before taking a job with UK. In her spare time, Gleason enjoys reading, babysitting and is an avid fan of the Philadelphia Phillies.

MIKE HALEY

Mike Haley has been a full-time member of the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (C.A.T.S.) since the summer of 1991. Haley works as an Academic Counselor and works closely with the women's soccer program.

Haley received a pair of degrees from UK. He earned his bachelors in 1987, followed by his masters in Athletic Administration in 1993.

Haley received the inaugural Lifetime Achievement award at the 2003 Catspy awards.

Under Haley's tutelage, the women's soccer team has garnered 220 Academic All-SEC honors, as well as 20 Academic All-District honors and two Academic All-Americans.

Haley has a son, Ryan, and resides in Lexington.

B.J. HALL

Ben Hall-Volpenhein is in his second season assisting with the University of Kentucky Women's Soccer Program and will serve as the team's full-time manager for the 2013 season.

Currently a sophomore at UK, Ben graduated from Lexington Catholic High School in Lexington in 2011. He was a Top 100 Recruit for the Class of 2011 and a 3-star prospect, but due to injuries chose not to play in college.

Ben is aspiring to coach at the Division 1 level in the future and is one of three sons of Rob and Christie Hall-Volpenhein.

ERIC HARSHMAN

Eric Harshman enters his first year on the UK Sports Turf staff, and will take over all the field duties for the UK Soccer Complex's game and practice field.

Harshman is originally from Fort Wayne, Indiana where he grew up. He obtained a Certification in Turf Management from Rutgers University in 2008.

He has worked for the sports turf department at the Louisville Bats and LSU.

He is married to his wife, Katie, and is in the adoption process of a 21-month old from Africa.

JOHN HAYDEN

Associate Director of Media Relations John Hayden is in his eighth season at Kentucky after being named Assistant Director of Media Relations in July of 2006. He spent six years in the same position at the University of Alabama where he directed the media and public relations efforts for the football, softball, women's soccer and men's cross country and track and field programs.

During his tenure with Alabama, the softball team made four appearances at the College World Series (2000, 2003, 2005, 2006).

After graduating from Alabama in December of 1998 with a degree in broadcasting, Hayden served as an intern in the media relations department with the Chicago White Sox's AA affiliate, the Birmingham Barons, during the 1999 season.

In addition to his responsibilities with women's soccer, Hayden also works as the primary media contact for the 2012 national championship winning men's basketball team.

A Paducah, Ky., native, Hayden is the son of Bernard and Cathy Hayden. He is married to the former Maria Angelini and the two have a two-year old daughter, Lilly.

JUSTIN "PEMO" MCKINLEY

Pemo McKinley returns for his second season with the UK women's soccer team, as he was the equipment manager with the Wildcats during the 2011 season before serving the 2012 school year working with the UK women's basketball team.

McKinley graduated from the University of Kentucky in 2012 with a degree in accounting and is currently a graduate student, studying business administration.

McKinley is responsible for the proper conditioning of all the players uniforms, home and away, as well as helping the team with day-to-day activities.

McKinley is a native of Owensboro, Ky., and lives in Lexington.

TAYLOR MOGEL

Taylor Mogel enters her first year as an undergraduate assistant coach after injuries forced her to end her playing career after two seasons. Mogel saw time in one SEC game in the team's 2011 season. Mogel will be assisting Ian Carry and Kayla Price in working with the goalkeepers on a daily basis.

Mogel is from Scottsdale, Ariz., and was named first year Academic All-SEC in her freshman year.

EVAN MULDER

Evan Mulder enters his first season with the women's soccer team, as he will be working with Sharon Frank through the season helping with all aspects of the athletic training program.

Mulder is a native of Sheboygan Falls, Wisc., and went to college at UW-La Crosse. In his spare time, Mulder likes to spend time with his family and friends, golf, run and watch the Green Bay Packers.

KAYLA PRICE

Kayla Price will enter her first season as an undergraduate assistant coach, after injuries forced her to take the year off from playing. Price was a standout goalkeeper for the Wildcats in 2010 and 2011 recording multiple shutouts and helping lead UK to the NCAA Tournament in each of her first two seasons in goal.

Price is a Lexington, Ky., native and will be entering her third year at the University of Kentucky.

CHRIS SHOALS

Chris Shoals is in his fourth year working in the UK Media Relations department, and third season working with the women's soccer program.

In addition to his duties with the women's soccer team, Shoals also handles all media for the UK men's tennis team, as well as assisting in the day-to-day operations in the media relations office.

The Cincinnati, Ohio native is entering his senior year at UK, majoring in journalism with a minor in Communications.

JOHN SPURLOCK

John Spurlock is in his fifth season as the strength and conditioning coach for the women's soccer team. He also works with men's soccer, men's and women's sprinters and hurdlers, as well as assisting with 10 other varsity teams.

Spurlock, a native of Fairfield, Ohio, came to UK from the University of Dayton in Dayton, Ohio. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and a certified strength and conditioning coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. Spurlock is also certified by USA Weightlifting and CrossFit.

He competes in CrossFit and Olympic weightlifting. In 2008, he was the Ohio State Champion in the 77 kilogram weight class.

Spurlock earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Hanover College in 2005. While at Hanover, he was a wide receiver on the football team. He also earned his master's degree in Kinesiology from UK in 2010.

RODNEY STILES

Rodney Stiles is in his 26th season with the Athletics Association, his 12th as an Assistant Athletics Director for Event Management.

Currently, Stiles is the Event Manager for three varsity sports and all non-university sporting events. He serves as the Game Manager for all home football games as well as the football game day traffic and parking coordinator. He also coordinates the sustainability and recycling operations for Commonwealth Stadium. Other sports which he has served as event manager at UK include Men's Soccer, Volleyball, Women's Basketball, Track, Baseball, Softball and Tennis.

Previously, as the Director of Administrative Services, Stiles supervised the maintenance, scheduling and operations of Memorial Coliseum. He also managed the student ticket distribution for all men's basketball and football games, coordinated football parking and oversaw transportation needs for all Olympic sports programs at UK.

A native of Campbellsville, Ky., Stiles was a walk-on kicker on the UK football team from 1978-81 while earning his bachelors' degree. He coached high school football in Owensboro, Ky., at Apollo High School from 1981-82. He returned to Kentucky in 1983-85 as a graduate assistant for Jerry Clayborne's staff, coaching the running backs and assisting with recruiting.

Married to the former Carmen Saylor, Rodney and Carmen have a one-year old son Camden Gregory.

ALYSSA TELANG

After donning the kit for four years in Lexington, Alyssa Telang returns to the Wildcats as an undergraduate assistant coach.

Telang played and started in all but one game in her four years at Kentucky, and was part of a historically good back line, which led Kentucky to its first-ever NCAA Tournament win in 2012. Telang was also a captain for that team along with fellow senior Brooke Keyes.

Telang played over 7,000 minutes in her career, recording three goals and over 50 shots.

Telang is from Shelby Township, Mich., and the daughter of Ray and Karen Telang.

LINDSEY WELCH

Lindsey Welch enters her first season with the UK women's soccer team and will be part of the athletic training staff for the 2013 season. Welch is a native of Paducah, Ky., and is an undergraduate student at UK.

CORTNEY WIESLER

Cortney Wiesler is in her fifth season with the UK women's soccer program, and her second as the Director of Soccer Operations after serving as the team manager from 2009-11.

Wiesler is responsible for all team meals, day-to-day activity, team travel arrangements, practice scheduling, player communication, camps, road game video and more.

A 2007 graduate from West Virginia University with a degree in Athletic Coaching Education, Wiesler played soccer for the Golden Bears where she earned All-Mid-South Conference honors.

She came to Kentucky where she received her masters in Kinesiology and Health Promotion in 2009.

Wiesler graduated from Hempfield High School in Lancaster, PA where she helped win the 2000 state championship.

Aspiring to coach soccer at the Division I level, Cortney is the daughter of John and Linda Pfost and is married to Marty Wiesler.

What actress would play you in a movie? Does Beyonce count as an actress?

What is the worst dream you ever had? I've had some pretty bad naked-in-school dreams, not to mention some pretty bad medical ones after watching a lot of Grey's Anatomy.

Would you rather win the World Cup or an Olympic gold medal? World Cup, hands down!

What is your guilty midnight snack? Anything chocolate

What three items would you keep if you were stranded on an island? Books on books on books (that's only one item fyi), my phone, and food (can't live without it)

If you had a horse in the Kentucky Derby, what would you name it? Zippy! After my old dog that I basically grew up with.

Who is the best soccer player in the world? I know it's cliché but Messi, Messi, Messi

Describe the new stadium in three words or less.
I CAN'T WAIT

What is one moment you will never forget? Winning the Louisville game at Louisville and the massive pile-up that happened the second the whistle blew.

Who is the most famous person in your cell phone?
Hahaha this is a mean question cuz I don't have any famous friends...Gilly is pretty famous right?

Who on the team would make the best president?
Stuart Pope foshoo

Who is the funniest player on the team?
This is a hard one cuz our team is full of funny people. You have the people who are funny on accident, like Allie, Kelli, and Shorty. Then you have the people who are just funny people without trying, like Stu and Emma. Then there are the people who constantly crack terrible puns (FITZ). Either way our team loves to laugh, so it's hard to go wrong.

What is one TV show you will not watch?
Spongebob. His laugh drives me up the wall and is the creepiest thing ever...ew.

What is your favorite vacation destination?
My family goes to Chincoteague Island, VA every year and I LOVE it to death. It is so peaceful, and the beach is beautiful. Lots of memories there.

What is your favorite place to play in the SEC?
Is that a question? Home, home, home...UK is the best

Who is your favorite USWNT player? Shannon Boxx

What actress would play you in a movie? Lauren London

What is the worst dream you ever had? Losing my both my legs to a shark and not being able to play soccer or any other sports.

Would you rather win the World Cup or an Olympic gold medal? World Cup

What three items would you keep if you were stranded on an island? Water, Canned goods, Lighters

If you had a horse in the Kentucky Derby, what would you name it? Swifty5.0

Who is the best soccer player in the world? Lionel Messi

Describe the new stadium in three words or less. Awesome, Convenient, Better

What is one moment you will never forget? Winning the state championship in high school after 4 overtimes.

Who is the most famous person in your cell phone? My uncle Michael (He does Michelle Obama and Opera's hair)

Who on the team would make the best president? Morgan Riggs

Who is the funniest player on the team? Destine Graves

Who is your favorite professional sports team? OKC Thunder and the Clippers

What is one TV show you will not watch? Teen Mom 1 or 2 and 16 and pregnant

What is your favorite vacation destination? Hawaii

Who is your favorite USWNT player? Abby Wambach

What is one thing that you've always wanted to do, but never been able to do? Go to Brazil

What's one of your most interesting life stories that sets you apart from everyone else? My mncle Michael has been doing stars hair for a very long time now and we sometimes go out to dinner to celebrate our accomplishments.

WATSON

@itschlowee

#27 • Defender

5-6 • Freshman

Rancho Cucamonga, Calif./Los Osos

Pre-College: Played her club soccer under the coaching of Walid Khoury for Slammers FC. While with Slammers, she won nationals in 2012, was crowned Surf Cup Champions in 2010 and was a finalist in the Nike Manchester Cup in 2010 as well ... Played her high school soccer for Los Osos High School where she led her team to a first-place finish in the league every year she has been there ... Currently in the midst of her senior season, Los Osos was CIF champions in 2012 as well as a finalist in the state championship ... Watson's brother, Marcus, played professionally in England at Leicester City in England in addition to playing for the Minnesota Thunder

Place of Birth: Pasadena, Calif.

Parents: Clive and Victoria

Siblings: Marcus

Club Team/Coach: Slammers FC/Walid Khoury

Watson's Q & A

What is your nickname, and why? A lot of people call me Chlo just because its easier to say fast instead of Chloe

What actress would play you in a movie? I would play Lindsey Lohan in Mean girls

What is the worst dream you ever had? I don't usually remember my dreams but one of the worst dreams I've had was probably getting chased by a guy who I thought was going to kill me

Would you rather win the World Cup or an Olympic gold medal? I think I'd rather win the World Cup

What is your guilty midnight snack? My guilty midnight snack would probably be chips or chocolate

What three items would you keep if you were stranded on an island?

I would have another person to keep me company, knife, and water

If you had a horse in the Kentucky Derby, what would you name it?

I would name my horse Fred

Who is the best soccer player in the world? They said Messi is the best player in the world but for me I just love the way he's so calm and simple so I like Yaya Toure or to be honest Gareth Bale is coming up

Describe the new stadium in three words or less. Awesome

What is one moment you will never forget? One moment will never forget will be the game I played center back on Slammers for the first time and the coach of PDA came up to me after and told me I was good player and had a really good game

Who is the most famous person in your cell phone? The most famous famous person in my phone would be my friend Zach, he'll be famous in a few years with his band

Who is the funniest player on the team? Destine Graves

Who is your favorite professional sports team? I just love watching soccer but my dads a huge Tottenham Hotspurs fan and I've grown up watching them so I'll say they're my favorite team

What is one TV show you will not watch? Dr. Phil

What is your favorite vacation destination? England

Who is your favorite USWNT player? Shannon Boxx

What is one thing that you've always wanted to do, but never been able to do?

Build my own house

What's one of your most interesting life stories that sets you apart from everyone else? I'm not that interesting of a person but maybe something like both of my parents are from England and have english accents
