THIS IS WHO WE ARE

• We respectfully ask all media outlets to please refer to the university by our official name and abbreviations. The full name of the institution is New Mexico State University with a preferred written name of New Mexico State or NM State. When the name of the university is shortened, the abbreviation should be written as "NM State," or "NMSU" if space is limited. Our mascot is the Aggies. NM State is located in Las Cruces, N.M., which is indeed within the borders of one of the 50 United States. You'd be surprised at how many people think that New Mexico is a foreign country smh...

• NM State is the only university in the nation with a collegiately-licensed beer (Pistol Pete's 1888 Ale), wine (Pistol Pete's Crimson Legacy), whiskey (Pistol Pete's Six Shooter) and coffee (Aggie Roast).

• A portion of the proceeds from each of the Aggies' officially licensed products go to benefit the university's over 400 student-athletes.

• NM State was founded in 1888 as Las Cruces College and served as the state's land-grant university. It was later renamed New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts and in 1960 the constitution of New Mexico formally recognized the institution as NMSU.

THE OPENING TIP

- A new era of Aggie basketball begins on Nov. 6, 2023, when the Aggies travel to the old stomping ground of Adolph Rupp to take on No. 16 Kentucky in Lexington, Ky.
- Monday's contest versus will mark the first for the Aggies with newly appointed head coach, Jason Hooten at the helm. The meeting between the two sides will also be just the second time in history that the two share a court as they also collided in the 1999 NCAA Tournament.

NEW YEAR, NEW LEADER

- After spending the last 13 seasons as the bench boss at Sam Houston, Jason Hooten takes over an Aggie program in need of a refresh button.
- Many are confident Hooten has what it takes to return the Aggie program back to glory as he begins his tenure after compiling 261 wins, posting a .607 win percentage and helping the Bearkats to six postseason appearances. With the success, Hooten ultimately departed Huntsville, Texas, as the program's all-time winningest coach.
- In his final year with Sam Houston, Hooten helped lead the 'Kats to the program's first-ever appearance in the NIT Tournament. Once the Bearkats reached the national tournament, they made some noise - defeating Santa Clara in the opening round. During last year's historic season with Sam Houston, Hooten also led his Bearkats to upset road wins over a pair of Power Five programs in Oklahoma and Utah. The Aggies will be looking to absorb some of that magic on Monday when they take on their blue blood opponent

ROOM TO GROW

- In their first season as a member of Conference USA, the Aggies were projected to finish eighth in the nine-team league according to a vote of the conference's nine head coaches.
- This underdog role is new territory for the Aggie program as they become affiliates with CUSA after a run in the Western Athletic Conference that included seven regular season titles and 10 tournament titles during their 18-year stint as a member of the WAC.
- In fact, during the Aggies' 18 years in the WAC, NM State was selected to finish inside the top three of the coaches poll every year except for their inaugural season in which they were also tabbed to finish eighth. During that stretch, the Aggies were labeled preseason favorites nine times.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

- Heading into their season opener against New Mexico Highlands on Monday, Nov. 7, the Aggies have put up a 72-42-1 (.630) all-time mark in season openers.
- Dating back to the 2015-16 season, NM State has emerged as the victor in each of its last seven season openers. Over the last decade, the Aggies have gone 7-3 (.700) in their first game to begin a season.
- The last time the Aggies fell in a season opener was on Nov. 14, 2014, when No. 11 Wichita State bested the Aggies, 71-54.

TOURNAMENT TIME

- NM State's 10 conference tournament titles since 2006 are the second-most in the nation. Only the WCC's Gonzaga (14) has more.

BUILDING A FOUNDATION

- Although, this may be Jason Hooten's first year with the program, the former Sam Houston coach has done his best to surround himself with familiar faces as two staff members and starting center Kaosi Ezeagu from the Bearkats also made the trip from Huntsville to Las Cruces during the offseason.
- Last season, Ezeagu served as a vocal leader on Sam Houston's squad and started all 33 games that he appeared in and paced the Bearkats in blocks with 16 on the season.
- In addition to Ezeagu, Assistant Coach Payne Andrus and Graduate Assistant Terryonte Thomas were also contributor's to the success of the Bearkat program last season.

THIS DAY IN NM STATE HISTORY

- Monday will mark just the second time in program history that NM State will compete in a game on Nov. 6.
- Prior to Monday, the Aggies had only ever played on this date in 2018 when they hosted North Dakota State and defeated the Bison 73-56.

POWER FIVE AGGIES

- The 2023 NM State roster features three Aggies who have spent time on Power Five rosters as Kaosi Ezeagu (Kansas State), Femi Odukale (Pitt) and Davion Bradford (Wake Forest and Kansas State) each played among the best of the best during their collegiate careers.
- Unfortunately for the Aggies, only Kaosi Ezeagu will be available in the season opener as both Odukale and Bradford are awaiting transfer waivers from the NCAA.

BEATING THE BEST

- Monday provides the Aggies the opportunity to come away with a major upset to start the season. A win over the 16th-ranked Wildcats would mark the first time that the Aggies defeat a ranked opponent since knocking off No. 21 UConn in the First Round of the 2022 NCAA Tournament. This also marked the last time that a team defeated the Huskies in the NCAA Tournament as UConn went on to win the 2023 National Championship.
- Prior to defeating UConn, NM State's last win over an opponent ranked inside the top-25 came in 2017 when the Aggies defeated #6 Miami in the Diamond Head Classic.

SEEING THE SEC

- The Aggies' matchup versus Kentucky will mark just the 14th time in program history that NM State faces off against an opponent from the Southeastern Conference.
- In total, the Aggies hold a 3-10 record against SEC competition with wins coming over Alabama (1994), Tennessee (1955) and Mississippi State (2019).

JASON HOOTEN

HEAD COACH | FIRST SEASON | TARLETON, '93 | RECORD: 261-169 (.607)

NM State Director of Athletics Mario Moccia announced the hiring of Jason Hooten as the 28th head coach of the Aggie men's basketball program on Friday, March 24. Hooten brings with him an impressive 13 years of head coaching experience across his 30-year coaching career.

In 13 seasons as the head coach at Sam Houston State University, Hooten displayed a track record of success as he compiled 261 wins, posted a .607 win percentage and helped the Bearkats to six postseason appearances, including a win in the first round of the 2023 NIT. Hooten's ability to build a winning program guided him to become the Bearkats' winningest coach in program history. Hooten and his staff helped lead the SHSU program to six 20-plus win seasons, including four in the last six seasons.

In 2023, Hooten led the Bearkats to a program-tying record of 26 wins en route to earning the No. 1 seed in the 2023 WAC Tournament. On the heels of one of Sam Houston State University's best seasons in program history, Hooten was named one of 20 finalists for the Hugh Durham Award, which is presented to the top Division I mid-major coach in the country. Hooten also appeared on the list of 25 finalists for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award – an award honoring success on the court while also displaying moral integrity off the court.

Under Hooten, the Bearkat program produced 36 all-conference honorees, including 2023 WAC Player of the Year Qua Grant who was one of four conference players of the year to take the court for Hooten. The Killeen, Texas, native also coached nine first team all-conference selections, four all-defensive team members and one Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

Hooten's defensive philosophies helped build the program into one of the stingiest defenses in the country this season as the Bearkats held teams to just 59.3 points per game to rank fourth in the country and first in the conference. SHSU opponents also combined to shoot just 39.1% from the field in 2022-23 – a mark that was good for fifth in the nation and tops in the WAC.

Hooten's Bearkat teams also gave NM State fits during their two-year stint as conference foes. Sam Houston knocked off the Aggies twice in two meetings, including handing NM State a 25-point loss to end a 10-game winning streak during the 2021-22 season. The 2022-23 season was also highlighted by a pair of wins over Power Five programs as they defeated both Oklahoma and Utah during non-conference play.

Prior to being appointed the head coach at Sam Houston, Hooten served as an assistant on the Bearkats' staff from 2004 to 2010 and was a member of the coaching staff during one of two NCAA Tournament appearances in program history when SHSU reached the Big Dance in 2010. In five seasons as an assistant with Sam Houston, the Bearkats reached 20 wins four times and posted an overall record of 127-59. In 2009, RecruitingRumors.com named Hooten as one of the top 100 NCAA assistant coaches while CollegeInsider.com named him to the Mid-Major Top 25 assistant coaches honorable mention list.

Ahead of his time with Sam Houston, Hooten appeared on Lonny Reisman's staff at Tarleton from 1993 to 2004. While coaching with his alma mater, Hooten helped the Texans construct a combined record of 204-111. Hooten's stint at Tarleton blossomed from his time as a student-athlete at TSU where he played for two seasons under Reisman (1989-91). As a guard, Hooten helped lead the Texans to a record of 52-10 while leading Tarleton in assists with 123 in 1990-91.

Hooten received his undergraduate degree from Tarleton State University in 1993 before earning his master's from Tarleton in 1995. He is married to Kristen Hooten and the two have a daughter, Jady, and a son, Jayce.
