

GIVING REPORT
— 2017 —

President's Message

Dear Alcornites,

Investments in Alcorn State University through philanthropic contributions are tangible commitments to advancing the institution's mission. Alcorn appreciates your support and the many ways you help add value to the university.

Your support offers more than a monetary return. Donors who give to Alcorn realize a clear return on their investment. Whether contributing to a scholarship fund that will nurture the next generation of leaders, supporting student athlete success, or providing funding for academic and research programs that helps enrich the campus and community, the returns on your investment are significant and substantial.

Donor investments in Alcorn help advance academic achievement on the campus and beyond by bringing to life the dreams of generations of students and graduates. The university recognizes that earning and maintaining the confidence of donors is critical to its success. We appreciate your interest in making a difference and in contributing to an organization that is will be prudent stewards of those investments.

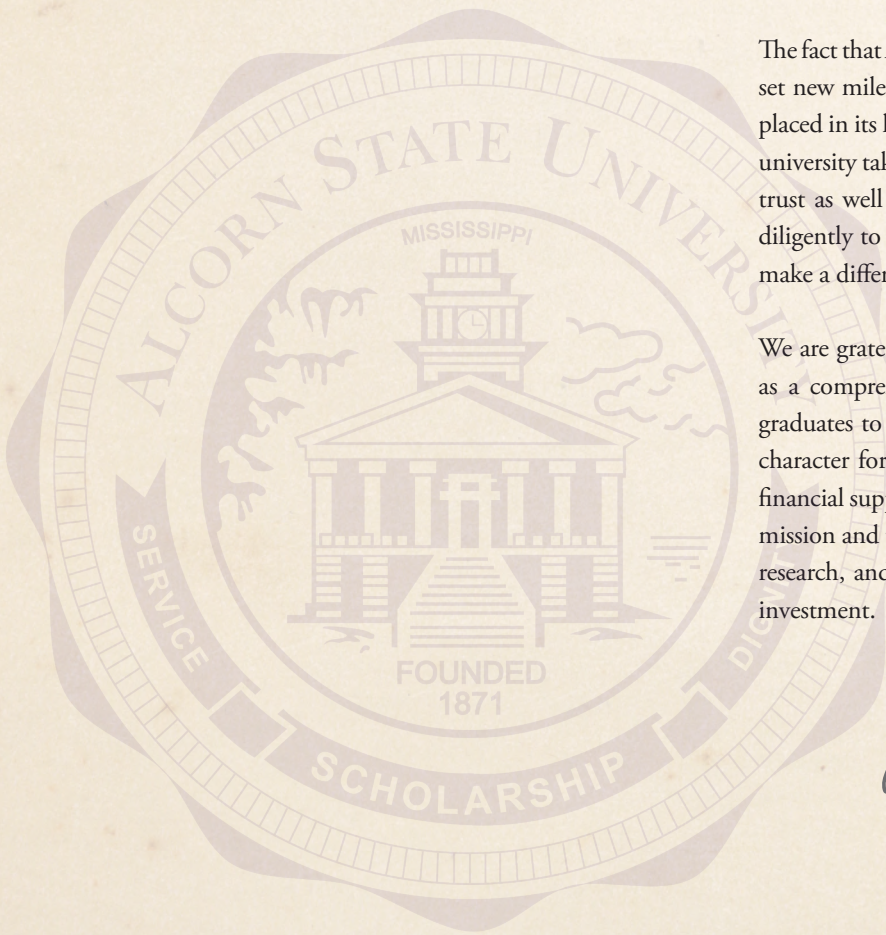

The fact that Alcorn's fundraising totals are continuing to rise and set new milestones annually speaks to the confidence you have placed in its leadership and management of those resources. The university takes this responsibility seriously and appreciates your trust as well as your contributions and will continue to work diligently to do its part to ensure that together, we continue to make a difference.

We are grateful for your investments in Alcorn and its mission as a comprehensive land-grant HBCU focused on preparing graduates to be successful, well-rounded future leaders of high character for the global marketplace of the 21st century. Your financial support strengthens the university's ability to meet that mission and to have a positive impact on teaching and learning, research, and service. By any measure, that's a great return on investment.

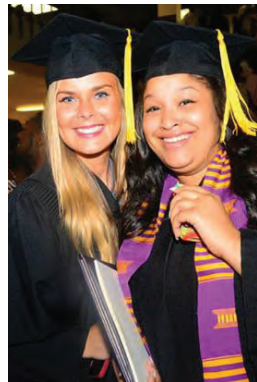

With Brave Thanks,

Letter from the Chairman

Dear Alumni and Supporters:

On behalf of the entire Alcorn State University Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors, thank you for all that you do for Alcorn. Your enthusiastic investment in the students, faculty, and programs at the university propels the success of this great institution.

The alumni, donors, and friends of Alcorn State University are truly inspirational, and the ASU Foundation is privileged and honored to play an integral part in serving as a key conduit that enhances and encourage excellence. Thanks to you, the Foundation achieved another successful year in raising private support for Alcorn while also proactively and prudently managing its private assets. Our success is your success — this relationship helps ensure that Alcorn keeps striving to be the best.

Alcorn's donors and friends have created scholarships that have helped generations of students and their families. Your support has created new programs, underwritten breakthroughs in research and strengthened athletics success. The funds you donate have helped rebuild and construct new facilities that will usher the university—and its students—into a future of excellence. In short, donors give Alcorn that extra edge that propels it from good to great.

We are grateful for your involvement and philanthropic support. With your help, Alcorn State University and the ASU Foundation will continue to create a bright future for generations to come. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Gage IV

Robert D. Gage IV, Chairman
Alcorn State University Foundation, Inc.

ANOTHER STRONG YEAR

Your Investments Make The Difference

The ASU Foundation had a consecutively strong fundraising year in 2017, with $1.6 million in gifts and commitments from nearly 2,000 different donors. Because of your support and strong markets, our endowment now stands at $20.4 million, and the five-year fundraising average is $1.4 million a year. As notable as the overall numbers are, what's more important is what those gifts provide – scholarships, new and revitalized facilities, experiences for students outside the classroom and more.

This report is for those who support Alcorn State University – our donors and supporters. We are so grateful for the generosity of the hundreds of donors who help make Alcorn a great university. Thanks to our donors, we have made significant progress and have contributed in many ways to the institution's growth. We are committed to maximizing the impact of your gifts through prudent investment management that helps to increase scholarship for students, funding for operations and support of athletics programs.

Our Board of Directors is dedicated to the Foundation and Alcorn State University and takes great pride in advancing the university's mission. Our belief is that a healthy university is good for our campus community, Mississippi, and the world. When you invest in Alcorn, you are investing in the knowledge and character of our faculty, staff and students. These investments will sustain the university well into the future.

In closing, the Alcorn family's tradition of supporting the oldest HBCU land grant in America is to be celebrated. Our tradition of giving has become as much a part of our future as it is our past. With your continued support, I am convinced that our best years are yet to come.

On behalf of Alcorn State University and the ASU Foundation, thank you!

With Brave Pride,

Marcus Ward '00
Executive Director and Editor

Generous donors support first ever ALL FOR ONE Faculty & Staff Giving Campaign

Committee members for Alcorn State University's All For One Faculty and Staff Giving Campaign celebrated the generous donations of committed university employees during their latest charitable event.

The All For One Mid-Campaign Breakfast was held Tuesday, April 4 in the James L. Bolden Ballroom to show appreciation to those who have given to the All For One Giving Campaign. Donors were rewarded for their giving with a certificate and an Alcorn gift bag. The Alcorn Jazz Combo and the Sounds of Dyn-O-Mite Tower of Power drum line performed selections for the crowd.

Dr. Cassandra Vaughn, university veterinarian and ASU Foundation board member, delivered the keynote speech at the event.

Vaughn credits her passion for the University and desire to see its students flourish for her donations.

"I give because I am a believer of doing as much for others as I do for myself," said Vaughn. "My relationship with Alcorn is symbiotic. Besides my parents, I received great mentorship from fellow Alcornites. I give because I want more for our students. I want them to connect my giving to their getting in hopes that they will give to the University after they graduate."

MyShawn Smith, sophomore chemistry major from Chicago, Illinois and scholarship recipient, thanked the ASU Foundation for ending his financial struggles, which allowed him to remain a student at the University.

"It wasn't until I crossed paths with the ASU Foundation that I knew that I would remain a student here," said MyShawn. "The ASU foundation has played a major role in my matriculation here at Alcorn. Had it not been for those who gave to the Foundation, I would not be a student here. Thank you for supporting me."

Marissa Allen, sophomore, agricultural economics major who is a recipient of the ASU Foundation's Mississippi Rural Rehabilitation Scholarship, also gave the Foundation credit for enabling her to further her education.

"I have to rely on scholarships and grants to support me because of my parents' financial situation," said Marissa. "The ASU Foundation has been a great resource for me to continue my love for learning. There are people at this university who really care about us. I couldn't have made it this far without their help." President Dr. Alfred Rankins Jr. applauded all employees who contribute to the betterment of the University.

"I sincerely appreciate all of you who give back to the ASU Foundation," said Rankins. "It's important because giving back counts in our national rankings. It's important because those funds support deserving students in furthering their educations. Your donations provide necessities such as scholarships, books and grants for our students."

Alcorn's Meridian-Lauderdale Alumni Chapter Sets Alumni Chapter Giving Record at Annual

Purple and Gold Scholarship Gala

Each year, Alcorn State University's Meridian/Lauderdale Alumni Chapter goes above and beyond to support their beloved alma mater.

The Chapter did the same in 2017 by hosting the Purple and Gold Scholarship Banquet Friday, April 28 at the MSU Riley Center in Meridian, Mississippi. A total of 17 high school seniors were awarded scholarships during the program. The students are: Tamiera Gibbs, Christina Coon, Krystal Gates, Destinee Slater, Trayana Carter, Demetria Walker, Zykierra Harbin, Kyra Kapers, Logan Nave, Destiny Clark, Ajah Edwards, Kai Horne, Gabriel Johnson, Brianna Porter, Alan Sanders, Tyrell Lewis and Lauren Scott.

Also during the banquet, Chapter President, Wilbert Jones, presented President Alfred Rankins Jr. with a check for $45,000 for the ASU Foundation, which will be used to provide scholarships in various academic departments. This chapter's gift, once again set a high water mark in alumni chapter giving. Emanuel Barnes, vice president for Student Affairs, delivered the keynote address for the banquet. He encouraged the audience to never forget the past, celebrate the present and honor the future. Alcorn's Men Choral and Charles "CC" Carter provided entertainment for the banquet.

25th Anniversary

Opening Of Jack Spinks-Marino Casem Stadium, Dwight Fisher Field Celebration

The 2017 football season at Alcorn State University marked the 25th year that the Braves football team has called Jack Spinks-Marino Casem Stadium, Dwight Fisher Field their home, and the university left no stone unturned in celebrating the special occasion.

Originally named Jack Spinks Stadium and dedicated on Sept. 19, 1992, with a 32-7 victory over Alabama State, the stadium was renamed on Sept. 17, 2011 to recognize the contributions of Casem. To kick off the milestone celebration, the university held a very special pre-game presentation to honor Casem on Saturday, Sept. 23 when the Braves defeated Southern.

President Alfred Rankins, Jr. welcomed thousands of alumni and fans for the festivities celebrating the historic silver anniversary as the legendary head football coach was presented an honorary doctorate degree for leaving an outstanding legacy at Alcorn.

"Spinks-Casem Stadium has been home to so many memorable moments in Alcorn football history," said Rankins. "I think all Braves fans – those who have been here for many of the past 25 years and our more recent followers – will appreciate this anniversary celebration. Recognizing the contributions of Coach Casem is just the first step in what will be an outstanding commemorative season."

Being honored by the school that groomed him as a coach and leader was a pleasant surprise for Casem. He showed his appreciation by thanking President Alfred Rankins Jr. and the University for their recognition.

"It's hard to express how pleased I am that President Rankins thought to bestow such a great honor on me," said Casem. "I was really surprised and more than happy to receive the honor." Dr. Casem concluded, "Alcorn helped me to grow into a man. It was a wonderful place to work because I worked with a great crew. Everyone was very helpful. I worked hard to be an ambassador for this institution, and I am pleased that they thought that my work was worth recognizing."

The university also unveiled an official Spinks-Casem Stadium 25th Anniversary commemorative logo as a part of the celebration of the wins, teams, players and events that have made the stadium a college football game day landmark known for its "Spinks Jinx". The logo was painted onto the berm hill areas around the field and between the 20 and 30-yard marks on the field as a subtle touch for a simple stadium with a storied history.

Several activities, promotions and giveaways were held during and between each home game throughout the season. Commemorative posters, a three-dimensional replica stadium birthday cake, keepsake replica stadiums, t-shirts and a special presentation and tribute to Spinks was held during Homecoming.

The Spinks family was presented with a commemorative game day ball signed by the 2017 Braves Football team players and coaches as well as a custom, large oak plaque that featured an artist sketch of Spinks, the first African American Mississippian drafted into the NFL.

ALCORN AWARDED OVER $1M

Grant To Strengthen Student Athlete Development Programs

Alcorn State University was awarded over $1 million in funding from the Mississippi Department of Human Services (MDHS) for a one-year program to strengthen and enhance its student athlete support and development programs.

The university will dedicate the over $1,036,000 in grant funding for its Sneewrengthening Student Athletes and the Family Enhancement (S.A.F.E.) program designed to assist student athletes with a multitude of targeted services including comprehensive academic advising, interpersonal communication skills, substance abuse awareness, social media etiquette and personal financial planning in state-of-the-art creative learning spaces. Students will also receive assistance applying to graduate and professional schools, internships, career counseling, mentoring, study skills development, leadership training and exposure to community service activities.

"We are thankful to MDHS for their support and recognition of Alcorn as a leading institution focused on strengthening and enhancing our student athletes' life skills development," said President Alfred Rankins Jr. "This funding will provide a big boost to the Alcorn family."

Alcorn is already serving its student athlete population through its Office of Athlete Academic Enhancement's (OAAE) Four-for-Forty Initiative, which was established in spring 2015 to increase academic progress, graduation success, grade point averages and credit hours earned.

"We are grateful for this opportunity to enhance our value proposition to our student athletes" said Jason Cable, assistant vice president for Athletic Compliance and Academic Services. "The S.A.F.E. program will serve as the conduit for additional services and resources that will holistically prepare student athletes to pursue excellence.

With our president's leadership, Alcorn will continue our efforts to identify and implement innovative initiatives for student athlete development."

The new funding will expand the university's programs, which are already a proven success. Since spring 2015, over 300 students have participated in OAAE programming. During its two-year span, the average Four-for-Forty students' GPA has increased to a school record 3.2. In 2015-2016, the university led the SWAC for graduation success rate for a second consecutive year, according to the NCAA.

Marcus Ward, vice president for Institutional Advancement and executive director of the ASU Foundation, Inc, said the new program and funding is part of a campus-wide effort to increase student success.

"We are very excited to assist with administering this innovative program that will enable the university to provide tailored life skills tools to strengthen our student athletes' success on and off the field," said Ward. "Our goal is to position students to achieve the highest levels of physical, intellectual and personal growth during their careers at Alcorn. The S.A.F.E. program will help transform the university's culture and relationship between academics and athletics by promoting an atmosphere and expectation of excellence."

With support from the S.A.F.E. grant, the university will be able to add full-time and part-time staff positions to assist with program management and coordination.

1871 Club Suite Named After Beloved Alcornite, Exie Williamson ('55)

The legacy of the late Exie Williamson, a distinguished Alcorn State University alumna, was celebrated by dedicating a suite in her honor.

The ASU Foundation, Inc. and the 1871 Club presented the Exie Williamson Memorial Suite on Saturday, Oct. 14 in the press box of Jack Spinks – Marino Casem Stadium. A special presentation was made to the Williamsons, which her son, J.J. Williamson, accepted on behalf of the family.

“This is such a great honor for my family and I,” said Williamson. “My mom gave her life to Alcorn. She bled purple and gold. She helped recruit a lot of students for the university. Because of her, I knew at an early age where I would attend college.”

Williamson’s exemplary employment history includes that of business education teacher at East Side High School in Cleveland, Mississippi, after graduating from Alcorn in 1955. In this position, she had the latitude to recommend course offerings being the first teacher in the Business Education Department. As her career progressed, Mrs. Williamson was selected (1961) by her principal, and received approval from the superintendent of Bolivar County Schools to attend Atlanta University to begin her work toward certification in guidance and counseling. In 1962, she returned to her home city and accepted a position at Jim Hill High School in Jackson, Mississippi, as a business education teacher. In 1965, as a result of her ability to relate effectively to students, faculty, parents and fellow administrators, she was offered the position of guidance counselor at Jim Hill.

Marcus Ward, vice president for Institutional Affairs, acknowledged the importance of saluting Williamson for her outstanding efforts to better the university.

“This in a great occasion, and we are proud to have this opportunity,” said Ward. “The naming of a facility is a very special moment in time, and to name it after someone as special as Ms. Exie is even more sentimental to me. Ms. Exie not only cheered on the Braves, but she also cheered on a number of young people throughout her career in education. We are proud to recognize her contributions to Alcorn.”

Larry Smith, director of athletic development, remembered Williamson as a class individual and charter member of the 1871 Club who adored Alcorn.

“I had the honor of working with Ms. Williamson, and she was an outstanding individual who loved Alcorn State University,” said Smith. “We are thankful for her many contributions to Alcorn.”

President Alfred Rankins Jr. spoke highly of Williamson. He remembers her for her joyful spirit.

“She always had a smile on her face, and I never heard her speak negatively about Alcorn,” said Rankins. “I can’t think of anyone who sat in the press box and enjoyed themselves as much as Ms. Williamson did. It gives me great pride and honor to dedicate this suite to her.”

DELTA SIGMA THETA SORORITY

Undergraduates Chapter Donates $15,000 to ASU Foundation in honor of the late Dr. Alpha Morris

The ladies of Alcorn State University’s Delta Epsilon Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. ended the academic year by presenting a donation to honor one of the University’s most iconic figures.

Members of the sorority’s undergraduate chapter donated $15,000 to the ASU Foundation, Inc. Thursday, May 4 during the Delta Sigma Theta Graduating Senior Reception. The ladies donated $10,000 in honor of the late Dr. Alpha L. Morris, former chair of the Department of Social Sciences and Golden Life Member of Delta Sigma Theta. The other $5,000 was donated to a scholarship in the chapter’s name.

The sorority raised the funds through numerous service projects and functions held on campus. Deshayla Vassell, senior and Chapter president, said that they raised the money to honor Morris’ esteemed accomplishments on and off campus.

“We wanted to honor Dr. Morris’ legacy,” said Deshayla. “Delta Epsilon serves to create opportunities and empower students. We want to encourage all students to attain achievements that are the embodiment of the goals and ideals of Alcorn State University.”

Morris’ daughter and member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc., Patricia Morris Sullivan thought highly of the students’ effort to salute her late mother’s legacy.

“I thought the young ladies’ kind donation was a wonderful acknowledgement of her legacy, the University and the sorority,” said Sullivan.

Dr. Gwendolyn Lucas-Gordon, one of the Chapter’s advisors and director for Alumni and Staff Development in the School of Agriculture and Applied Sciences, feels proud of the ladies for raising and providing the endowment.

“I am proud of the young ladies for their commitment to scholarship and service,” said Gordon.

“Dr. Morris served as an advisor for Delta Epsilon for over 50 years and was initiated on the second membership intake line of the chapter. The current members wanted to leave a lasting legacy in her honor at Alcorn.”
