

Northeast Ohio Medical University (NEOMED). We invite applications from those with a Ph.D. in sociology, psychology, social work, criminology, public health, or related field, or an M.D. with a research background for a tenured or tenure-track open rank position. The Department of Psychiatry at NEOMED has a focus on issues related to community-based mental health and mental health services. Our interdisciplinary faculty engage in research in areas relevant to the health and well-being of people with serious mental illness. There are many opportunities for collaboration with a diverse group of mental health experts at NEOMED and other surrounding universities.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Women and minority candidates are especially encouraged to apply. NEOMED is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer.

To apply, submit your materials online <https://neomed.peopleadmin.com/postings/2077>.

Please include: (1) a letter describing your research, projected research, and teaching activities, (2) curriculum vitae, and (3) names and contact information for three references.

Questions about the position can be sent to Christian Ritter, by email: jritter@neomed.edu or mail: Department of Department of Psychiatry, 4209 State Route 44, P.O. Box 95, Rootstown, Ohio 44272. Northeast Ohio Medical University (NEOMED) is committed to the health, economy and quality of life in Northeast Ohio through the medicine, pharmacy and health sciences education of students and practitioners at all levels; the development of new knowledge through research in the biomedical, community health and behavioral sciences; and the provision of community service and wellness education throughout the region. Located in the center of one of the country's top health care regions, NEOMED is among nationally-ranked hospitals, research companies and institutions of higher education that are thriving in the health sciences.