

Acknowledgements

The editors wish to thank Dr Julia Winnebeck and Dr Maria Munkholt Christensen, who, with us, co-organised the lecture series on which this book is based (see introduction to this volume). David B. Smith gave us invaluable assistance in language-editing the articles. We are also grateful to Miriam Thurow and Anna-Lena Steuckart for their help in organising the original lecture series under the difficult circumstances caused by the COVID pandemic, as well as Raphaela Djalili and Nathalie Kröger for their careful proofreading and formatting of this volume. We would also like to thank the editors of the book series “Dependency and Slavery Studies” for permitting us to publish the book in their series. Finally, we would like to thank the team at De Gruyter for their efficient work in the publication process.
