

Humanitarian Engineering

This course introduces skills for creating impactful solutions in developing communities. Systems thinking is emphasized to explore methods and practices used in work that improves the capacity of vulnerable communities.

Course Topics

- Community development strategies
- Sustainable design principles
- Development planning
- Emergency response
- Technologies and approaches tailored for vulnerable populations

Collaborative Online International Learning

ENHANCE YOUR ONLINE LEARNING EXPERIENCE WITH A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

This COIL (Collaborative Online International Learning) course brings together students from Colorado State University and SRH Heidelberg in Germany.

Through interactive, cross-cultural collaboration, you'll gain unique insights into the subject, and engage with diverse viewpoints. Expand your global awareness and build valuable cross-cultural skills in this unique online setting.

2025 T/Th Online
Summer 11-12:50 May 19-Aug 8

Questions?

Contact: aaron.brown@colostate.edu