

SERIES 100 – GENERAL OFFICE RECORDS

SERIES TITLE: GENERAL OFFICE RECORDS

SERIES DESCRIPTION: Records described in this series relate to the performance of routine operations of OSD and DoD offices and staff sections responsible for providing them. This series covers administrative subject files; facilitative records such as suspense files, tracking and control records, calendars, and indexes; and transitory documents.

SERIES APPLIES TO THE FOLLOWING ORGANIZATIONS: File Numbers within the 100 Series may be used by any directorate, division, branch, task force, field office or component under the purview of the OSD Records Administrator, including FACA Committees.

RECORDS CATEGORY: 101

CATEGORY TITLE: Office General Information

CATEGORY DESCRIPTION: The file numbers within this records category consist of the day to day administrative (housekeeping) records of an office.

FILE NUMBER: 101-01.1

FILE TITLE: Office Administrative Records

FILE DESCRIPTION: Records accumulated by individual offices that relate to routine day-to-day administration and management of the office rather than the mission-specific activities for which the office exists. Records include:

- Staff locators, unofficial organizational charts, and office seating charts (see Exclusion 1)
- Office-level administrative policies and procedures and files related to their development
- Calendars or schedules of daily activities of non-high-level officials (see 212 for Senior-Level Officials)
- Informal requests and tracking of personnel training, travel, supplies, and equipment, excluding procurement and payment records and forms requesting training (e.g. SF-182)
- Internal office activity and workload reports
- Studies and analyses of office administrative functions and activities
- Non-mission related management reviews and surveys
- Minutes of meetings related to administrative activities

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Cut off and destroy when business use ceases.

FILE NUMBER: 101-01.2

FILE TITLE: Action/Operations Files

FILE DESCRIPTION: Documents on the administration or operations of a Component's activities that pertain to more substantial activities than routine administrative files and are exclusive of official personnel files pertaining to individuals described in this Records Schedule. These files generally include the following:

OSD Records Disposition Schedules

- Routine comments on regulations, directives, or other publications prepared by another office with primary responsibility. If comments result in additional action affecting the mission or functions of the office, documents should be filed with the appropriate mission function files.
- Evaluations of suggestions that do not result in issuing an instruction or establishing a project.
- Program and budget documents, management improvement reports, cost reduction reports, and comparable management reports prepared to submit data to offices responsible for these management functions.
- Extracts of reports of inspections, surveys, or audits that pertain to the operation of the mission or functions.
- Comments on or contributions to news releases or other media furnished to publicize and promote the mission or functions.
- Preparation and submission of reports to and testimony and hearings before Congress as well as background papers containing comments on proposed legislation affecting programs. NOTE: Not to be confused with papers maintained under File Numbers 102-18.1 or 102-18.2 (Congressional Correspondence), or Series 1000, Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Legislative Affairs).

FILE TITLE: Federal Advisory Committee Files - Substantive Committee Records (Non-Grant Review Committees)

FILE DESCRIPTION: Records documenting the establishment and formation of committees and their significant actions and decisions. Refer to agency administrative procedures to ascertain if these records are held by the CMO, GFO, or DFO. Only one copy of each record is considered permanent. Not all records described below are necessarily created for all committees. NOTE: The term “advisory committee” as defined by FACA means any committee, board, commission, council, conference, panel, task force, or other similar group, or any subcommittee or other subgroup which is (1) established by statute or reorganization plan or (2) established or utilized by the President, or (3) established or utilized by one or more agencies or officers of the Federal government. This term does not apply to any committee which is composed wholly of full-time officers or employees of the Federal government. Exclusion: This item does not include records of committees whose sole purpose is grant review. See item 103-06.3 for these records.

Records may include:

- Records related to the establishment of the committee:
  - Charters (original, renewal, re-establishment, and amended)
  - Enacting legislation

OSD Records Disposition Schedules

- Explanation of committee need, when required
- Filing letters to Congress
- Organization charts
- Committee specific bylaws, standard operating procedures, or guidelines
- Any other materials that document the organization and functions of the committee and its components
- Records related to committee membership:
  - Memos or similar documentation of how and/or why individual members were selected
  - Membership balance plans
  - Membership rosters
  - Appointment letters, and all sub-categories of appointment letters, such as renewals, thank you letters, etc.
  - Resignation or termination letters
- Records of committee meetings and hearings:
  - Agency head's determination that a meeting or portion of a meeting may be closed to the public
  - Agendas
  - Materials presented to or prepared by or for the committee, such as briefing books, background materials, reports (including drafts), and presentations
  - Meeting minutes
  - Public comments
  - Testimony received during hearings
  - Transcripts of meetings and hearings (NOTE: If transcripts do not exist, audio/visual recordings are permanent under 103-06.2)
- Records related to committee findings and recommendations:
- One copy each of final reports, memoranda, letters to Agency, studies, and pamphlets produced by or for the committee
  - Responses from Agency to committee regarding recommendations
  - Committee presentations or briefings of findings
- Records created by committee members:
  - Correspondence documenting discussions, decisions, or actions, related to the work of the committee (excluding administrative or logistical matters), including electronic mail (email), exchanged between one or more committee members and/or Agency committee staff (such as the Designated Federal Officer)
- Records related to research collected or created by the committee:
  - Records related to research studies and other projects, including unpublished studies, reports, and research materials (may include electronic data)
  - Raw data files created in connection with research studies and other projects where the information has been consolidated or aggregated for analyses, reports, or studies
- Documentation of Advisory Committee Subcommittees (i.e., working groups and other subgroups):
  - Records relating to the formulation of the subcommittee or working group, if they exist
    - Decision documents
    - Membership
    - Statement of purpose or other documentation of duties and responsibilities
  - Records that document the activities of subcommittees that support their reports and recommendations to the chartered or parent committee. This documentation may include, but is not limited to:

OSD Records Disposition Schedules

- Meeting minutes
- Transcripts
- Reports
- Briefing materials
- Substantive correspondence, including electronic mail (email), exchanged between one or more subcommittee members, any other party that involves the work of the subcommittee, and/or Agency committee staff (such as the Designated Federal Officer)
- Background materials
- Records related to committee termination ((i.e., email, letter, memo, etc.)
- Other records documenting decisions, discussions or actions related to the work of a committee, including information on committee websites not captured elsewhere in committee records

NOTE: Sponsoring agencies need to designate the recordkeeping copy of permanent committee records. Only one copy of the records should be the official recordkeeping copy that is transferred to NARA. Committee records should be arranged by committee, not by the type of record (e.g. NARA should not receive a collection of charters for multiple committees; original charters should be transferred with the other permanent records related to the committee, regardless of where they are maintained).

DISPOSITION: Permanent. Office of committee chairman or secretariat, whichever is the designated office of record: Cut off annually and transfer to NARA 15 years after cutoff or upon termination of the Committee, whichever is earlier.

FILE NUMBER: 103-06.3

FILE TITLE: Federal Advisory Committee Files - Committee Accountability Records

FILE DESCRIPTION: Records that document financial and ethics accountability, such as records documenting financial expenditures associated with the functioning of the committee and financial disclosure and conflict of interest documents. Records include:

- Travel costs
- Committee member payments

OSD Records Disposition Schedules

- Meeting room costs
- Contractor costs
- Federal Register notice costs

Exclusion: Forms filed under the Ethics in Government Act are scheduled in GRS 2.8, Employee Ethics Records (See File Category 403 and File Numbers 202-80 and 202-81). These forms may apply to committee members designated as special Government employees (SGEs).

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Cut off annually. Destroy 6 years after cutoff.

PRIVACY ACT: Not applicable

FILE NUMBER: 103-06.4

FILE TITLE: Federal Advisory Committee Files – Non-Substantive Committee Records

FILE DESCRIPTION: Records related to specific committees that are of an administrative nature or are duplicative of information maintained elsewhere.

- Drafts and copies of Federal Register notices
- Audiotapes and videotapes of committee meetings and hearings that have been fully transcribed or that were created explicitly for the purpose of creating detailed meeting minutes (once the minutes are created)
- Photographs of committee social functions, routine award events, and other non-mission related activities
- Records relating to logistical or administrative aspects of committee meetings and activities such as meeting location and access, phone line or internet connections, IT support concerns, etc.
- Routine correspondence:
  - Correspondence (including intra-agency, with committee members, or the public) regarding logistics (e.g., agenda planning, meeting arrangements, administrative issues)
  - Public requests for information
- Non-substantive committee membership records, including:
  - Resumes, curriculum vitae, or biographical information for individuals who are considered or nominated for a committee but are never appointed or invited to serve on a committee
  - Member credentials (resumes or biographies)
  - Member files (personnel-type records)
  - Non-substantive web content

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Cut off and destroy when superseded, obsolete, no longer needed, or upon termination of the committee, whichever is sooner.

NOTE 1: Consult with the appropriate agency staff (i.e., records officials, general counsel) to ensure the records designated in this category are accurately designated as administrative.

NOTE 2: Records on agency websites that are duplicative of records maintained elsewhere and that are not designated as the recordkeeping copy may be destroyed subject to 103-06.3.

FILE NUMBER: 103-06.6

FILE TITLE: Federal Advisory Committee Files – Committee Management Records

FILE DESCRIPTION: Records created and/or maintained by Committee Management Officers (CMOs) and their staff related to the overall management of committees for the Department of Defense. These records may pertain to specific committees or to the committee management function in general.

Records include:

- Agency guidelines
- Correspondence
- Requests for approval of committee nominees
- Copies of records about committees maintained for reporting purposes, such as:
  - Information provided to GSA Secretariat for annual comprehensive reviews
  - Statistical data files and reports
  - Annual reports to the Library of Congress describing the agency's compliance with the Government in the Sunshine Act
  - Financial operating plans and final cost accountings

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Cut off and destroy when 3 years old, 3 years after submission of report, or 3 years after superseded or obsolete, as appropriate.

FILE TITLE: Official Visits Files

FILE DESCRIPTION: These files pertain to both foreign and domestic visitors but not consultants, contractors, or the officials of other Government Agencies visiting in connection with special projects or other mission-related matters. They may consist of letters, memorandums or other correspondence; schedules or itineraries; lists of points of contact; and information on clearances and liaison activities required to obtain official approval for visits. Also included may be duplicate copies of travel orders, papers accumulated in the process of arranging billeting, transportation, messing and other purely logistical arrangements to support visitors, and documents relating to the selection and activities of escort officers.

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Cut off after completion of visit, hold in the CFA for 5 years and destroy. Earlier destruction is authorized if no longer needed for reference purposes.

FILE TITLE: Transitory Records

FILE DESCRIPTION: Records required only for a short time (generally less than 180 days), and are not required to meet legal or fiscal obligations, or to initiate, sustain, evaluate, or provide evidence of decision-making. Records include, but are not limited to:

- Messages coordinating schedules, appointments, and events
- Transmittal documents such as email, letters, cover memos, and facsimile cover sheets that do not provide evidence of approval, concurrence, or decision-making, or include substantive comments
- Received copies of circulated internal information such as Agency instructions, notifications, circulars, newsletters, and email blasts to employees

OSD Records Disposition Schedules

- Messages received from Agency distribution lists or listservs
- Suspense or “To-do” or task lists and assignments

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Cut off and destroy when no longer needed for business use.

FILE NUMBER: 103-14

FILE TITLE: Intermediary Records

FILE DESCRIPTION: Records of an intermediary nature, meaning that they are created or used in the process of creating a subsequent record. To qualify as an intermediary record, the record must also not be required to meet legal or fiscal obligations, or to initiate, sustain, evaluate, or provide evidence of decision-making. Records include:

- Non-Substantive Working Files: Collected and created materials not coordinated or disseminated outside the unit of origin that do not contain information documenting significant policy development, action, or decision-making. These working papers do not result directly in a final product or an approved finished report. Included are such material as rough notes and calculations and preliminary drafts produced solely for proof reading or internal discussion, reference, or consultation, and associated transmittals, notes, reference, and background materials.
- Audio and visual recordings of meetings that have been fully transcribed or that were created explicitly for the purpose of creating detailed meeting minutes (once the minutes are created)
- Dictation recordings
- Input or source records, which Agencies create in the routine process of creating, maintaining, updating or using electronic information systems and which have no value beyond input or output transaction
  - Hardcopy input source documents where all information on the document is incorporated into an electronic system (See Exclusion 1)
  - Electronic input source records such as transaction files or intermediate input/output files
- Ad hoc reports, including queries on electronic systems, whether used for one-time reference or to create a subsequent report
- Data files output from electronic systems, created for the purpose of information sharing or reference (See Exclusion 2)

Exclusion 1: This item does not allow destruction of original hardcopy still pictures, graphic materials or posters, aerial film, maps, plans, charts, sound recordings, motion picture film, or video recordings once they are digitized. Agencies must follow agency-specific schedules for these records. If the records are unclassified, the agency must submit a schedule for them.

Exclusion 2: This item does not include the following data output files (agencies must follow agency-specific schedules for these records, except for the final bullet, which the GRS covers in another schedule):

- Files created only for public access purposes
- Summarized information from unclassified electronic records or inaccessible permanent records
- Data extracts produced by a process that results in the content of the file being significantly different from the source records. In other words, the process effectively creates a new database file significantly different from the original
- Data extracts containing Personally Identifiable Information (PII). Such records require additional tracking and fall under 203-32 [GRS 4.2, item 130 (DAA-GRS-2013-0007-0012)].
