Dear ISCHE member,

Many of you will remember the lively discussion we had about the new constitution at the General Assembly in Riga. Since then we have made further progress with regard to the legal process. We are still waiting for final feedback from the German authorities, but I am delighted to tell you that there has not been any objection from them. We are therefore confident that we will be able to continue our discussions in London. There will be two main issues: the by-laws and the membership regulations. I am therefore pleased to cordially invite you to attend the London General Assembly, which will take place on 24 July at 11:00 am.

As last year, we will send you some material and documentation electronically in advance for the General Assembly of our London meeting; this material will also be included in the conference bag. You will find the draft of the by-laws and membership regulations among this material.

I would also like to remind you again of your opportunity to nominate new members for the Executive Committee. There will be two positions up for (re)election. The election will take place during the General Assembly. Please send the nominations to me or Noah Sobe (nsobe@luc.edu) by 24 June at the latest. Nominations should include a one-page CV and a one-page supporting statement. Further information can be found on the ISCHE website.

I am also delighted to be able to tell you that the programme for ISCHE 2014 is now available on the conference website. We are looking forward to an inspiring and productive conference, and hope you are too.

With warm regards

Eckhardt Fuchs
ISCHE President
