The following described property is annexed into the corporate limits of the Town of Livingston.

Beginning at a point in the corporate boundary of Livingston, Tennessee, said point being in the south right-of-way of Mountain Drive in the Hidden Valley Subdivision; thence west approximately 200 feet along the south right-of-way undeveloped extension of Mountain Drive; thence in a northerly direction approximately 60 feet across the right-of-way for Mountain Drive and continuing in the same northerly direction approximately 170 feet along Geraldine Copeland's west property line (Tax Map 44-D A-26); thence west approximately 55 feet; thence north approximately 220 feet along Geraldine Copeland's west property line (Tax Map 44-D, A-25); thence east approximately 270 feet to the current Town of Livingston corporate limits; thence south approximately 470 feet along the current Town of Livingston corporate limits to the point of beginning. (As shown on attached map.) [Ord. No. 126, Aug. 4, 1986]

Governing Body and Its Term of Office and Election

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That the government of said Town shall be vested in a Mayor and six (6) Aldermen. Beginning with the June 2008 election, upon the expiration of the terms of the Mayor and Aldermen, the Mayor and Aldermen shall be elected from the Town at-large for four-year terms by all persons eligible to vote in Town elections. [As replaced by Priv. Acts 1972, ch. 413; and by Priv. Acts 2001, ch. 58, § 3; and Priv. Acts 2007, ch. 13, § 1]

Mayor

Sec. 3. (a) Be it further enacted, That the Mayor shall hold his office for four (4) years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. No person shall be elected a Mayor who is not at the time a citizen of the State of Tennessee, a qualified voter, and for one year a bona fide resident in said town. The Mayor shall be ex-officio Recorder, but may decline to perform the duties of Recorder, in which case a Recorder shall be appointed as hereafter provided. He may fill all vacancies occurring in offices, except that of Aldermen, until the same be filled in the manner provided by this Act, and he shall receive a compensation or salary to be fixed within the limitation of this Act by the Board of Aldermen, which shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office. It shall be the duty of the Mayor, unless relieved by the Board of Aldermen, to preside at all meetings of the Board, but he will not be permitted to vote for any officer or agent, nor upon any measures, proposition, or ordinances before the Board except in case of a tie, and he shall then give the casting vote. In the event he is absent, or does not preside, such member of the Board of Aldermen shall preside as they may determine by majority vote or ordinance.

It shall be the duty of the Mayor to see that all ordinances and laws of the town are duly enforced, observed, and obeyed, and he shall, on application, instruct officers in their duties. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall take an oath to faithfully demean himself in office and discharge the duties thereof. It shall be his duty from time to time to lay before the Board of Aldermen in writing all matters and things he may deem it important to have acted upon, accompanied with suitable recommendations, and to cause special sessions of the Board of Aldermen whenever he may deem it necessary or expedient, at which special sessions no other business than that for which the session is called shall be transacted. He may remit wholly or in part fines, costs, forfeitures, and penalties imposed by the corporate courts, but shall make a report of such remissions to the next meeting of the Mayor and Aldermen, together with his reasons therefor.

For any malfeasance or misfeasance in his office as Mayor he shall be subject to be charged by the Board of Aldermen and fined, and dismissed from his office as the Aldermen may in their wisdom determine for the best; and on such trial the aldermen shall elect by ballot one of their number to preside, and all shall take an oath to faithfully and impartially try and render judgment on such trial, but at least five of the Board of Aldermen shall concur in a finding of guilt and in a verdict before such verdict shall be valid or binding.

(b) MAYOR'S ABILITY TO INSTRUCT OR DIRECT OFFICERS, SUPERVISORS AND EMPLOYEES IN THEIR DUTIES. The Mayor of the Town of Livingston, a municipal government, is the immediate supervisor of all the Town of Livingston's officers, supervisors, and employees. The Mayor's orders or directions are to be followed and obeyed by all officers, supervisors and employees of the Town of Livingston. The only exception to this requirement shall occur if the order or direction from the Mayor to the officer, supervisor or employee would result in either an illegal or unsafe act. Other than for such exception, any officer, supervisor, or employee who fails to obey an order or direction from the Mayor is guilty of insubordination and such officer, supervisor or employee will be subject to suspension or dismissal from employment by the Board of Aldermen, unless the Board delegates the authority to the Mayor to suspend or discharge employees by ordinance. [As amended by Priv. Acts 2007, ch. 13, § 2; and Priv. Acts 2007, ch. 35, § 1, and Priv. Acts 2021, ch. 23, § 1]

Board of Aldermen¹ -- Other Officers

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That no person shall be an Alderman unless he or she be a citizen of the State of Tennessee, a qualified voter, and for one year a bona fide resident in said town. Each Alderman before entering on the duties of his or her office, shall take an oath to faithfully demean himself or herself in office and discharge the duties thereof. The Board of Aldermen shall have full power and authority to appoint and elect all officers, servants, and agents of the corporation as they deem necessary, and, within the restrictions of this Act, fix the pay and compensation of the same; and they shall have power, for sufficient cause, to dismiss and discharge any officer or agent they may appoint by a majority vote of the Aldermen. The Board may, by ordinance, delegate authority to hire, suspend and discharge town employees to the Mayor. All vacancies in the Board of Mayor and Aldermen shall be filled for the ¹Chapter 641, Private Acts of 1917, provided as follows: ...the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of said Town of Livingston shall be charged with the duty of maintaining the roads and streets within said town and shall have power to levy road taxes and otherwise provide for the working of the roads within said corporate limits.

unexpired term by a majority vote of the remaining Aldermen. Four Aldermen shall constitute a quorum to transact business, and Aldermen shall hold their office for four years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. Every Alderman guilty of malfeasance or misfeasance in office shall be subject to be charged and tried by the Board of Aldermen and fined or dismissed from his or her office as in their wisdom they may deem for the best, and on such trial the Mayor shall preside and have the casting vote, the concurrence of a majority being necessary to a verdict. Before entering on such trial each Alderman and the Mayor shall take an oath to faithfully and impartially try the accused and pass judgment. [As amended by Priv. Acts 2001, ch. 58, § 2, replaced by Priv. Acts 2021, ch. 23, § 2; and amended by Priv. Acts 2023, ch. 7, § 1]

Miscellaneous Ordinance Powers

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Aldermen of the town of Livingston shall have full power and authority by ordinance within the town:

1. To levy and collect taxes upon all property taxable by law for State purposes; Provided, that the ad-valorem assessment on property for the purpose of meeting the current expenses of the corporation shall not exceed 60 cents, and for the purpose of providing for the existing debts as a special tax shall not exceed 15 cents on the $100, said corporation being allowed to pay interest on its bonded indebtedness out of the fund levied for current expenses.

2. To levy and collect taxes upon all privileges and polls taxable by law for State purposes.

3. To appropriate money and provide for the payment of the debts and expenses of the town.

4. To make regulations and laws to secure the health, safety, peace, and comfort of the town, determining what shall be deemed nuisances, and removing, preventing, and abating the same.

5. To make regulations and laws to prevent the introduction and spreading of contagious diseases, and to establish pest houses and hospitals.

6. To open, alter, abolish, widen, extend, establish, grade, pave, or otherwise improve, clean, and repair streets, alleys, sidewalks, and pavements, and to fix and determine the boundaries and locations of lots, streets, and alleys, and to declare and determine what streets shall be opened and graded and what sidewalks and pavements shall be built, and the width and quality of the same, and the amount of money to be expended thereon; and if the owner of the grounds, or abutting property, shall fail to comply with the provisions of such laws and ordinances as may be duly enacted by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen for the construction and repairing of the sidewalks and pavements, within such time as may be prescribed thereby, and in the manner prescribed by such ordinance, the corporation may contract with some suitable person, on the best terms that can be made for the construction and the repairing of such sidewalks and pavements, and pay for the same out of any moneys in the treasury of the town, and the amount so paid and expended shall constitute a charge against the owner of the abutting real estate on which said work shall be done, and a lien on said real estate, to be recovered by suit, in the name and for the use of the corporation, before any court of law or equity having jurisdiction of the amount, and the amount so paid shall be a lien on said lots or grounds, which said lien shall be enforced as other valid liens on real estate are now enforced in courts of equity; Provided, that a reasonable compensation shall be paid to any person whose ground may be taken or right affected in widening or extending streets and pavements; and such grounds shall not be taken and used for the purposes aforesaid, unless by consent of the owner, until such compensation and damages have been fixed, declared, and paid, or secured, or an offer to pay and secure the same has been made, and a refusal to receive said pay or damages by the owner; and, Provided, that said compensation or damages may be fixed by three disinterested persons, citizens of said town and landowners therein, to be selected by the Mayor and Aldermen and the person owning the ground, the Mayor and Aldermen selecting one, the owner of the ground selecting one and these two selecting the third; and in case of the refusal of one of the parties to select such disinterested person, then the party desiring the valuation or assessment of damages shall select five disinterested persons to make and report the same. No person shall be selected who has a like question pending for settlement.

7. To erect, establish, and keep in repair bridges, sewers, channels for running water, creek beds, culverts and gutters, and to purchase, contract for, construct, own, or lease and operate works and plants for furnishing water and light to the town, or to contract with any light or water company, or with any person, to furnish light and water for the town, and to pay for same, and to construct cisterns and water tanks and bore or dig wells.

Also, to confer upon any person or corporation by franchise duly passed by ordinance the right to enter upon the streets, alleys, and other public properties of said city for the purpose of laying water mains, pipes, hydrants, and other fixtures and erecting all necessary buildings and equipment therein, with the right to such person or corporation to maintain and keep the same in repair, together with the right to acquire, own, construct, operate and maintain a water system or plant in the City of Livingston, and to distribute, supply and deliver water to said City and the inhabitants thereof and of adjacent territory, using such streets, alleys, and other public property as is deemed necessary, with the power to invoke the eminent domain laws of the State where necessary in order to use private property in and adjacent to said town of Livingston and the right to do and perform all acts necessary and convenient in the acquisition and installation of a water system or plant in said city and in the management of its said business, for any definite period of time not exceeding fifty (50) years. Also, to have the power to contract with such person or corporation for furnishing water to said city at a price to be agreed upon by and between the Mayor and Aldermen of the town and the owner of such water system. Also to have the power to sell and convey by deed to be duly executed by the Mayor and Recorder of the City of Livingston, conveying the title thereto in fee, or leasing for a term not exceeding fifty years, a lot 99 x 99 feet located on Spring Street in said City at what is known as the Old Town Spring on the old Celina road, at such price and upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon, same to be used exclusively for the benefit and promotion of a water system in and for the town of Livingston.

The Mayor and Aldermen shall also have power to attach to such franchise grant to any person or corporation a condition or provision permitting the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to purchase the property of such water company after ten (10) years on a valuation to be agreed upon by the city and the water company and the Railroad and Public Utilities Commission of the State of Tennessee, as may be determined by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, and contained in the ordinance granting the franchise. It is hereby declared that the title to said lot or parcel of land 99x99 feet located at the Old Town Spring on the old Celina road, being a part of a tract of forty acres of land conveyed by Joseph Gore and Ambrose Gore to Jonathan Douglas, Joseph Copeland, Adam Gardenshire, Henderson Bates, Jacob Smelser, John B. Murphy and John Jackson, as commissioners for the use and benefit of the town of Livingston and their successors in office forever, dated August 10, 1833, and registered in Deed Book "F," page 407, of the Register's office of Overton County, Tennessee, all said commissioners having died without making a formal conveyance thereof to the town of Livingston, is now vested in the town of Livingston and may be conveyed or leased by the Mayor and Aldermen for municipal purposes. The Mayor and Aldermen shall have power at the expiration of any period fixed in such franchise for the purchase or re-purchase of the properties of any water company which may serve the town of Livingston and its inhabitants, and to that end shall have power, to purchase same on an affirmative vote of the people at an election to be held according to law, at which a majority of the votes cast in such election held for the purpose, shall vote in favor of purchasing or acquiring the water plant, water system and its properties and appurtenances which may be constructed under such franchise as may be granted by said Mayor and Aldermen. Upon an affirmative vote as aforesaid, bonds may be issued for the purpose of paying for such properties of such water company; but no election shall be held until after the expiration of the time fixed in the franchise for the acquisition of the properties of the water company, and thereafter an election or elections may be held, but not oftener than once every two years, for the purpose of determining whether or not the town of Livingston shall acquire the water system and operate the same; and in case said water system shall be acquired in the manner aforesaid, then full power is given to the Mayor and Aldermen to operate such water system as fully as if same were owned and operated by private persons. [This subsection appears as amended by Priv. Acts 1929, ch. 242]

8. To establish, support, and regulate a night watch and patrol and day police, and to organize and support a fire company and supply the same with quarters, uniforms, engines, hose, hooks and ladders, and other necessary equipment.

9. To erect market houses, establish markets, and regulate the same, and the vending of meats, poultry, fish, and vegetables; and to provide for the erection, fitting up, and repairing of all buildings which may be necessary for the use of the town.

10. To provide for establishing parks and for enclosing and improving and regulating the same, and all public grounds belonging to the town, in or out of the corporate limits.

11. To license, tax, and regulate auctioneers, grocers, merchants, druggists, retailers, taverns, brokers, shavers, bankers, confectioners, coffee houses, restaurants, professions, insurance companies and agents, hawkers, peddlers, artists, livery stables, billiards, pool rooms, nine-pin and ten-pin alleys, drays, hacks, wagons, and omnibuses, and all other business and occupations lawful to be carried on and conducted within the corporate limits of the town, and which are taxable by the State; Provided, that no tax shall be imposed on any business for calling or property exempted from taxation by the State.

12. To license, regulate, and suppress theatricals and other shows, exhibitions, and amusements, and to regulate and suppress all disorderly houses and assemblies.

13. To provide for the prevention and the extinguishment of fires, to regulate and restrain or prohibit the erection of wooden buildings in any part of the town, and to order the removal and prevent the carrying on of manufactories, such as mills, bakeries, sash and blind establishments, and all other business regarded as dangerous in causing fires and explosions; to regulate the storage of gunpowder and all combustibles and explosives, and the use of lights and stovepipes in all stables, shops, and other places, and to provide for the cleaning, sweeping, and burning of chimneys and flues.

14. To establish and regulate all inspections, weighings, and measurings, not otherwise provided by law, within the corporate limits of said town.

15. To restrain and prohibit gaming and gaming houses; and should tippling houses be allowed at any time by law within the corporate limits, to regulate and restrain the same; to erect pumps and waterworks on streets and alleys, and abolish, close, and fill up tanks, wells, and sinks.

16. To impose fines, forfeitures, and penalties for the breach of any law or ordinance of the town, and to provide for the collection of the same; to impose workhouse sentence not to exceed six months.

17. To provide for the arrest and confinement until trial of all rioters, drunken and disorderly persons in the town by day or night, and to authorize the arrest and detention of all persons found violating any ordinance of said town.

18. To regulate and to punish by pecuniary fines and penalties and workhouse sentences not exceeding six months all breaches of the peace, noise, fighting, drunkenness, vagrancy, disorderly conduct, and disturbances by day and by night within the corporate limits.

19. To prevent and remove all filth in the town, and to require landowners to remove or sink all pools, ponds, or thoroughly drain same; to prevent and remove all encroachments into and obstructions upon all streets, lanes, alleys, sidewalks, and pavements, and for the cleaning of the same.

20. To erect and establish a workhouse, or house of correction, and organize the same in or near the town, and any person who shall fail or neglect to pay any fine and costs or secure the same, or give bond to appear to work out his fine and costs as may be required, shall be committed to the workhouse until such fine and costs are paid or secured, and for such time as may be adjudged; and every person so committed shall work for the town at such labor as his or her health shall permit, within or without said workhouse, not exceeding ten hours each day, and for such work shall be allowed, exclusive of board, a credit upon such fine and cost of such amount as may be fixed by the Mayor and Aldermen for each day of work until the whole is discharged, when such person shall be released.

21. To appoint a City Marshal, with a sufficient police force; a Health Officer; a City Attorney; a Recorder, who shall be ex-officio Treasurer; a Building Inspector; a Street Superintendent; and all such other officers and agents as the necessities of the corporation may require and as the Board of Aldermen shall determine are needed, and fix and declare their pay and compensation; Provided, that the City Attorney and Recorder shall be compensated for their services by fees and commissions on taxes and other revenue, to be fixed by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, and such fees to be collected in each case from the defendant in all cases where the defendant is found guilty, but in no case shall the town be liable for any such fees.

22. To designate and inclose a plat of ground in or near the town not to the annoyance of any citizen, where all speeding of horses and other animals and where all exhibitions and shows of stock and jockeyings may be conducted, and prohibiting the same in other portions of the town under penalties prescribed by ordinance.

23. To take charge of and care for any lunatic or crazy person that may be found at large within the corporate limits, and make such disposition of such person as may be deemed proper, and to recover by suit from any one chargeable by law for such care and keeping.

24. To pass all-by-laws and ordinances for the government of the town and the rightful enjoyment of the power herein conferred, and the regulation of the officers and agents of the corporation, as may be deemed necessary, and possess and exercise the power to pass all reasonable ordinances for the regulation and preservation of public morals, the health and peace and good order of the town conferred by the code on municipal corporations; Provided, they be not incompatible with the Constitution and laws of the land.¹

Marshal

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That the Marshal of the town of Livingston shall take an oath to perform well and truly the duties of his office, and he shall have full power and authority within the corporate limits to execute all State warrants which may come into his hands, as may now be done by District Constables under existing laws, and to execute without the corporation all criminal process issued by the officials of the corporation for offenses committed against it.

Recorder

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, That the Board of Aldermen shall have power and authority, in the event the Mayor shall decline in writing to perform the duties thereof, to elect and appoint a Recorder, who shall be invested with the powers of a Justice of the Peace, and hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. He shall have jurisdiction in all cases for violations of the criminal laws of the State, as other Justices of the Peace, and shall have jurisdiction over and shall hear and determine all breaches of the law and violations of the ordinances of the town, and be empowered to impose fines and costs in all cases of violations of the ordinances ¹Chapter 294, Private Acts of 1937, purported to amend this section by authorizing the board of mayor and aldermen to issue $35,000.00 in coupon bonds to construct and equip an auditorium for the city provided a referendum was held and two-thirds of all the qualified voters voting therein approved such action.

Chapter 405, Private Acts of 1939, purported to add a new section 5-A to this charter. Said new section authorized the board of mayor and aldermen to issue $5,000.00 in coupon bonds for street surfacing in the city provided a referendum was held and two-thirds of all the qualified voters voting therein approved such action.

Chapter 406, Private Acts of 1939, also purported to add a new section 5-A to this charter. Said new section authorized the board or mayor and aldermen to issue $5,000 in coupon bonds for street surfacing and/or refunding street improvement bonds provided a referendum was held and a majority of all the qualified voters voting herein approved such action.

These three acts are not set out herein because they are of a temporary nature and have no general or lasting significance.

of the town, whether the defendant plead guilty or not guilty, and preserve and enforce order in his court as other Justices of the Peace may now do. The Recorder shall take the oath of office as prescribed for Justices of the Peace before entering upon the duties of his office. The Recorder, if not the Mayor, may be an Aldermen [Alderman], a Justice of the Peace, or other person the Aldermen may elect. All fines imposed by the Recorder for violations of the ordinances of the town shall be paid into the town treasury, to be appropriated in such manner and for such purposes as the Board of Mayor and Aldermen may determine. Appeal shall lie from the judgments of the Recorder as are now allowed by law from Justices of the Peace.

Municipal Taxes¹

Sec. 8. Be it further enacted, That all taxes levied and assessed by the Mayor and Aldermen on property shall have the same lien (subject to State taxes) as is prescribed by law for State taxes, and in assessing and imposing taxes the basis and mode of assessment prescribed by law for State taxes may be observed with such modifications as may be deemed suitable and proper for the town as set forth in the ordinances thereof. All taxes shall be collected by the Recorder in the same manner as State taxes are collected by law, and on failure to pay municipal taxes the Recorder will issue his distress warrant, and such taxes may be collected in the manner provided by ordinance of the town, and the several courts of the State shall have jurisdiction to enforce the collection of such municipal taxes in the manner provided for the collection of State taxes.

Bonds and Reports of Officers

Sec. 9. Be it further enacted, That the corporation shall take from its officers and agents bonds in such amounts and such conditions as may be lawful for the faithful discharge of duty and the sure accounting for and paying over of all moneys that may come into their hands, and it shall be unlawful for any such officer or agent empowered to receive the moneys of the corporation to enter upon the duties of his office until he shall have executed a good and sufficient bond and same has been approved by the Mayor in writing, and all such officers

¹Chapter 30, Private Acts of 1957, provided as follow:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, That all funds collected and/or allocated to the Town of Livingston as its portion of the State Sales Tax shall be earmarked and expended only for Debt Service; and no part of the same shall be used or diverted from such purpose. Any official violating the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable accordingly.

and agents of the corporation shall make quarterly reports under oath to the Mayor of the transactions and business of their office, showing in detail the amount of money received and from what source and the disposition of the same, and the Mayor shall keep a record of said reports and publish the same quarterly in the town paper as information to the public, and cause the same to be spread upon the minutes of the Board.

Property Conveyances and Uses¹

Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Aldermen shall have full power and authority to sell and convey, lease, and otherwise dispose of all property, real and personal, belonging to the corporation as to them shall seem best.

All conveyances of property to the corporation shall be made to the Mayor and Aldermen, and all conveyances from the corporation shall be executed by the Mayor officially.

Correction of Tax Assessments

Sec.11. Be it further enacted, That the Board of Aldermen shall have power to correct the assessment of taxes and reduce and enlarge the same in all proper cases, upon notice to the taxpayer, and release the same when improperly assessed.

¹Chapter 19, Private Acts of 1925, authorized the board of mayor and aldermen to convey in fee simple the title to three (3) specifically described tracts of land.

Chapter 501, Private Act of 1941, authorized the board to purchase, convey, etc., "Zollicoffer Lake Park" or farm.

Chapter 78, Private Act of 1955, provided:

That all net rentals received from rental of any and all municipally owned buildings in all municipalities of the State having a population of not more than 2320 and not less than 2310 by the Federal census of 1950 or any subsequent Federal census, shall be applied to the retirement of any and all outstanding bonds, or interest thereon, which were issued for the construction of municipal buildings by such municipality; provided, that this Act shall in nowise modify, alter, or abrogate any existing pledges of such rentals heretofore at any time lawfully made by the governing body of such municipality.

First Governing Body

Sec. 12. Be it further enacted, That the present Board of Mayor and Aldermen under the old charter shall constitute the first Board of Mayor and Aldermen under this charter, and shall consist of the following persons -- to wit: Dr. M. B. Capps, Mayor; J. W. Henson and R. L. Mitchell, Jr., Aldermen from the First Ward; M. O. Ward and Dr. R. L. Burks, Aldermen from the Second Ward; T. F. Stephens and J. W. Rich, Aldermen from the Third Ward; and they shall hold their office and exercise all powers conferred and perform all the duties imposed by this Act until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.

Municipal Elections

Sec. 13. (a) Be it further enacted, that on the first Tuesday in June 2004, and on the same day biennially thereafter an election shall be held at a place or places designated by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen for the purpose of electing Aldermen and Mayor for said Town whose terms of office shall be as follows:

Mayor for four (4) years; and

Aldermen for a term of four (4) years.

Candidates elected in 2024 will assume office on the 1st day of September following the election, and serve until June 30, 2028. Thereafter, their successors will assume office on the 1st day of July following the election. Candidates elected in 2026 will assume office on the 1st day of September following the election, and serve until June 30, 2030. Thereafter, their successors will assume office on the 1st day of July following the election.

There shall be six (6) Aldermen for the Town of Livingston with three (3) being elected every two (2) years for a four (4) year term. Candidates shall run citywide, with all persons eligible to vote in City elections voting for three (3) candidates. The three (3) candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected.

(b) The Mayor and Board of Aldermen, in office at the time, shall appoint officers, judges, and clerks to hold said election in compliance with the general election laws of the State of Tennessee.

(c) All persons of lawful age, and either residents or property owners, are qualified to vote in said election, and the Officers holding said election shall certify the returns to the existing Mayor and Board of Aldermen, who shall canvass the same and declare the result; should there be a tie, they shall decide the election by a majority vote. [As amended by Priv. Acts 1953, ch. 535, § 2; replaced by Priv. Acts 2001, ch. 58, § 1; and amended by Priv. Acts 2007, ch. 13, § 3; and Priv. Acts 2023, ch. 7, §§ 2 and 3]

Bonds for Electric Light Plant

Sec. 14. Be it further enacted, That in the exercise of the power herein granted to the Mayor and Aldermen to purchase, contract for, construct, own, or lease, and operate works for lighting the town, it shall be lawful for the Mayor and Aldermen to issue for that purpose coupon bonds of the corporation under the restrictions and in the manner hereinafter provided, not to exceed in the aggregate the sum of five thousand dollars, and the proceeds of said bonds shall be used alone and exclusively for the purpose of providing the town with a plant or works for lighting the same. Said bonds shall be of such denominations, bear such interest, not exceeding five per cent per annum, and be due at such time, not less than five nor more than twenty years, and be payable at such times and place as the Mayor and Aldermen shall determine. The bonds shall in no case be sold for less than par, and the coupons attached shall be receivable at maturity for all taxes and dues to the corporation, except the sinking fund, provided for in this Act; Provided, that said bonds shall not be issued unless authorized by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters voting at a town election to be held by order of the Mayor and Aldermen at any time and as many times as the Mayor and Aldermen may deem necessary after thirty days' notice of such election has been given by publication. The Mayor and Aldermen shall appoint the Officers, Judges, and Clerks to hold said election under the law regulating the election of members of the Legislature, and the officer holding the same shall certify the returns to the Aldermen, who shall canvass the same and declare the result.

Sinking Fund for Electric Light Plant Bonds

Sec. 15. Be it further enacted, That before any bonds are issued under the provisions of this Act for furnishing lights for the town, the Mayor and Aldermen shall provide by ordinance for a sinking fund for retiring the bonds by levying a tax not exceeding twenty cents on one hundred dollars, to be designated the "Sinking Fund Tax," to run with the bond, to be collected annually, and to be used exclusively for the purpose levied, to be sufficient, with its accumulation, as near as may be estimated, to meet or retire the principal of said bonds by their maturity; and for the management and application of the sinking fund, the Mayor, Recorder, and one of the Aldermen, to be elected by the Board of Aldermen, shall constitute a Commission, known as the "Sinking Fund Commission," and said Commissioners shall take an oath to faithfully discharge their duties, and give bonds under such penalties and conditions, and serve for such compensation as may be prescribed by ordinance, and it shall be their duty as Commissioners to receive the sinking-fund tax when collected, to invest the same from time to time in the redemption of said bonds or in other securities to be approved by the Mayor and Aldermen, until the bonds are redeemable, and all bonds by them at any time redeemed shall be canceled in the presence of the Mayor and Aldermen, by whom a record thereof shall be kept. Said Commissioners shall make settlement as may be required by ordinance.

Digest of Ordinances, Etc.

Sec. 16. Be it further enacted, That there shall be prepared and published, within twelve months after the passage of this Act, a digest of all the ordinances, laws, and resolutions of a public nature then in force, and all the laws and ordinances heretofore legally enacted under the former charter of said town shall be in full force until modified or repealed, and a like digest in every five years thereafter if deemed necessary by the Board of Aldermen.

Schools

Section 17. Be it further enacted, That the public school, or schools, of said town shall be under the supervision, management and control of the County Board of Education of Overton County, Tennessee.

Be it further enacted, That an Advisory Board of Education for the public school, or schools, of said town be, and the same is, hereby created, to consist of six members to be elected by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of said town, whose duty it will be to advise with the County Board of Education of Overton County, Tennessee, in the supervision of the management, and control of said public school or schools, and in the selection of teachers for said school or schools.

Be it further enacted, That the first members of said Advisory Board to serve until the next election for said office be the same as the membership of the said Board of Directors of said town now in office, to wit: W. H. Boswell, T. B. Copeland, W. H. Estes, J. A. Hargrove, W. R. Officer and P. H. Wheat, and that successors be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, elected and qualified in the year 1932, and said first meeting of the said Board of Mayor and Aldermen every two years thereafter. [As amended by Priv. Acts 1913 (E.S.), ch. 105; and Priv. Acts 1931, ch. 78]

School Tax

Sec. 18. Be it further enacted, That the Board of Mayor and Aldermen are hereby authorized and empowered to levy and collect a sufficient tax upon the property and polls subject to municipal taxation to support and carry on a public free school in said town for nine months in every year, the length of the school term to be determined by said Board of Mayor and Aldermen.

Application of Municipal Funds to School Maintenance

Sec. 19. Be it further enacted, That the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, in their discretion, shall have the power to apply any funds in the municipal treasury not otherwise appropriated to the maintenance of a public school or schools within said town.

School District¹

Sec. 20. Be it further enacted, That the territory embraced within said municipality shall be and constitute a separate school district, and the said Board of School Directors shall be a body corporate in like manner as District School Directors are under the general laws of the State; and the County Trustee of Overton County is hereby required to settle with and pay over to the Recorder hereinbefore provided for the pro rata part of the school fund appropriated by the State and county, and the receipt of said Recorder shall be a good and sufficient voucher to said Trustee for the same.

Assets and Obligations of Old Corporation

Sec. 21. Be it further enacted, That the taxes heretofore levied under the former charter shall be collected under this Act and be subject to the control of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen herein provided for, and all moneys and other property belonging to said municipality shall be the property of the town of Livingston as herein incorporated, and all legal and valid and bona fide debts and obligations against the town of Livingston under its former charter shall be valid and binding under this Act.

Failure to Hold Municipal Election

Sec. 22. Be it further enacted, That the powers, rights, and privileges of this Act shall not be lost or forfeited by a failure to hold an election every two years, as herein directed, but shall continue and be exercised at any time by the Mayor and Aldermen when elected in accordance with the provisions of this charter; and if for any cause the election for Mayor and Aldermen should not occur on the day fixed by this Act, it shall be held under the order of the then existing Mayor and Aldermen within thirty days thereafter and on not less than ten days' notice.

¹At the time this section was enacted, the town operated its own schools. However, under § 17 as amended, the schools of the town are now under the supervision, management and control of the county board of education.

Charter and Ordinances as Evidence

Sec. 23. Be it further enacted, That this Act is declared to be a public Act, and may be read in evidence in all the courts of law and equity, and all ordinances and proceedings of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen may be proved by the seal of the corporation and attestation of the Mayor; and if no seal, then by the attestation of the mayor alone.

Restriction on Incurring Debts for Current Expenses

Sec. 24. Be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for the Mayor and Aldermen to contract or incur any debt for the current expenses of the town in excess of the taxes levied and collected for that purpose.

Administration of Oath to Mayor and Aldermen and Approval of Their Bonds

Sec. 25. Be it further enacted, That the oath of office required herein to be taken by the Mayor and Aldermen shall be administered by the Clerk of the County Court or his deputy, and all bonds required to be given shall be approved by the Mayor and acknowledged before him and kept on file in his office, except the bond of the Mayor, which shall be approved by the County Court Clerk and filed in his office.

Removal of vegetation and debris

Section 26. (a) If it is determined by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen that any owner of record of real property has created, maintained or permitted to be maintained on such property the growth of trees, vines, grass, underbrush and/or the accumulation of debris, trash, litter, or garbage, or any combination of the preceding elements, so as to endanger the health, safety or welfare of other citizens or to encourage the infestation of rats and other harmful animals, the Mayor shall provide notice to the owner of record to remedy the condition immediately. The notice shall be given by United States mail, addressed to the last known address of the owner of record. The notice shall state that the owner of the property is entitled to a hearing. The notice shall be written in plain language and shall also include, but not be limited to, the following elements:

- (1) A brief statement of this section which shall contain the consequences of failing to remedy the noted condition;

- (2) The Mayor's office address and telephone number;
- (3) A cost estimate for remedying the noted condition which shall be in conformity with the standards of cost in the community; and
- (4) A place wherein the notified party may return a copy of the notice, indicating the desire for a hearing.

(b)(1) If the owner of record fails or refuses to remedy the condition within ten (10) days, or additional time as determined by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, after receiving the notice the Board shall immediately cause the condition to be remedied or removed at a cost in conformity with reasonable standards and the cost thereof assessed against the owner of the property. the town may collect the costs assessed against the owner through an action for debt filed in any court of competent jurisdiction. The town may bring one (1) action for debt against more than one (1) or all of the owners of properties against whom such costs have been assessed, and the fact that multiple owners have been joined in one (1) action shall not be considered by the court as a misjoinder of parties. Upon the filing of the notice with the Office of the Register of Deeds of Overton County, the costs shall be a lien on the property in favor of the Town of Livingston, second only to liens of the state, Overton County and the Town of Livingston for taxes, any lien of the town for special assessments, and any valid lien, right or interest in such property duly recorded or duly perfected by filing, prior to the filing of such notice. These costs shall be collected by the town tax collector or Overton County trustee at the same time and in the same manner as property taxes are collected. If the owner fails to pay the costs, they may be collected at the time and in the same manner as delinquent property taxes are collected and shall be subject to the same penalty and interest as delinquent property taxes.

(2) If the person who is the owner of record is a carrier engaged in the transportation of property or is a utility transmitting communications, electricity, gas, liquids, steam, sewerage or other materials, the ten (10) day period of the first sentence of this subsection shall be twenty (20) days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays.

(c)(1) The Board of Mayor and Aldermen may make any rules and regulations necessary for the administration and enforcement of this section. The town shall provide for a hearing upon request of the person aggrieved by the determination made pursuant to subsection (a). A request for a hearing shall be made within ten (10) days following the receipt of the notice issued pursuant to subsection (a) or within such additional time as determined by the Board. Failure to make the request within this time shall without exception constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order or act of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen may seek judicial review of the order or act. The time period established in subsection (b) shall be stayed during the pendency of a hearing. [As added by Priv. Acts 2000, ch. 113, § 1]
