

SEEKING INFORMATION

$50,000 REWARD

LEMONTEE RAMONE STEVENSON

NCIS and the San Diego Police Department are seeking information related to the murder of Lemontee Ramone Stevenson, a US Navy service member stationed in San Diego at the time of his death.

NCIS is supporting the San Diego Police Department in their investigation of the homicide. The California Governor's Office is offering a $50,000 reward for information leading to an arrest and conviction in this case.

On August 17, 2019, at 12:50 a.m., the San Diego Police Department received a report of a shooting at a residence located in the 2700 block of Marcy Avenue, in San Diego. When officers arrived at the scene, they found 19-year-old Lemontee Stevenson suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. Stevenson was transported to a local hospital where he succumbed to his injuries and was pronounced deceased.

San Diego Police Homicide Detectives investigating the incident learned Stevenson was attending a party at the location when Stevenson's friend got into an argument with an unknown Black male. Stevenson's friend and the unknown male began to physically fight. Stevenson attempted to break up the fight between the two males. The unknown male (suspect) pointed a handgun at Stevenson and shot him multiple times. The suspect immediately fled the scene. The suspect was described as a Black male with medium length hair.

Anyone with information on this murder is asked to call the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or the Crime Stoppers anonymous tip line at (888) 580-8477.
