

Benefits of a federal career in wildland fire

Health Care

Government pays 70-75% of the plan.

Many health plans to choose from.

Dental and vision plans available.

Multiple levels of life insurance to choose from.

Paid leave

Holidays

11 paid holidays each year

Sick leave

Earn up to 104 hours each year

Annual leave

Earned based on years of creditable service

1-3 years > 13 days
3-15 years > 20 days
15+ years > 26 days

Retirement

The greatest value in your federal career is the retirement benefits!

#1

Firefighters are eligible for special retirement coverage after 25 years of service before age 50 or after 20 years of service after age 50.

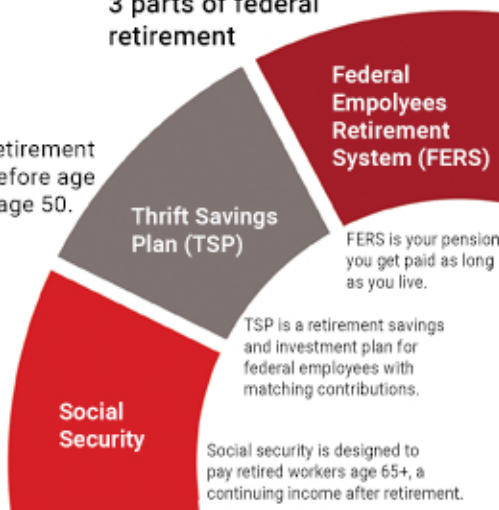

#2

Yearly cost of living increase and FERS pension for life.

#3

Health insurance carryover into retirement and the government continues to pay 70-75%.

3 parts of federal retirement

BLM Fire is a leader in the nation's management of wildland fire. To meet our wildland fire-related challenges, the BLM needs professional firefighters and leaders who are committed to managing fire in the most effective and efficient ways possible.

#WeAreBLMFire

blm_oc_ben_and_ret@blm.gov
usajobs.gov
nifc.gov/careers/blm-fire-job

@BLMFire

Note: Temporary seasonals are eligible for federal health insurance and supplemental dental and vision. Permanent employees are eligible for health and life insurance, supplemental dental and vision, and TSP.